Glass To Preach Here On Sunday

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Lineberger, the worship services next Sunday at Divine Street Methodist Church will be conducted by visiting ministers. The Rev. H. I. Glass, D.D., will conduct the morning worship service at 11 o'clock. O. M. Leslie will conduct the evening worship service at 7:30. The Rev. Glass is the Executive Director of Methodist Retirement Home, Inc., which is an agency of the North Carolina Methodist Conference for providing a home for aged people. Before coming to his present position, he served as pastor of a number of North Carolina Methodist Churches, and was at one time District Superintendent in the Raleigh District which includes the Dunn area. He has spoken in Divine Street Church on a number of previous occasions.

Mr. Leslie is a prominent Dunn businessman. He serves as Lay Assistant to the Rev. J. W. Lineberger in charge of Stewart Methodist Church.

NO AUTHORITY - Marvin Raynor, manager of Belk's Store in Dunn, was told last night that the local Board has no authority in setting the specifications for building a marquee over the front of his store. Such matters are regulated by the State Fire Marshal. City Attorney L. R. Williams stated. Raynor wanted to construct the marquee nine feet above the sidewalk, but the State Fire Code states that such constructions have to be at least 10 feet above the walk.

HONORING MASONS AND WIVES

Chapter No. 59 of the Eastern Star is honoring the masons of Palmyra Lodge No. 147, AF & AM and their wives, Monday evening, February 8, at 8:30 in the

Lillington Route 1 News

T-Sgt. and Mrs. C. E. Hurt and son have arrived from San Antonio, Texas for a visit with Mrs. Hurt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pleasant of Angier, Rt. 2. Sgt. Hurt will report for overseas assignment following his visit here. Mrs. Hurt and son will follow him as soon as the necessary arrangements have been completed.

Faye Chandler, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Chandler of the Nellie's Creek Church community, is recovering nicely following a recent tonsillectomy.

Mrs. Dayton Hockaday has returned to her home from Highsmith Hospital, Fayetteville, where she had a major operation. Her condition is fine and she is now able to have visitors.

Dorothy Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellis is recovering nicely following a tonsillectomy last Monday. She has returned to her home from Highsmith Hospital.

Mr. Tom Matthews is a patient at Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill. His condition is unchanged. He is the father of Mrs. Rufus Mangum of this route.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Vann announce the birth of a daughter, Terry Lynn on Jan. 25th at Good Hope Hospital, Erwin. Mother and baby are now at home and doing nicely. Mrs. Vann is the former Martha All Wimbler.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT Mr. and Mrs. Larry Matthews of Angier, Rt. 2, announce the arrival of a baby boy, Larry Pittman Jr., on Jan. 19 at the Good Hope Hospital, Erwin. Mrs. Matthews is the former Mabrey Adams of Willow Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Scale Johnson and daughter, Melba of Apex, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Matthews have recently moved from Raleigh

CHAMP AGAIN - The one-time ex-champion of chomping gum, J. A. Young, left, pictured above with Thurman Maxwell, sales manager of Wellons Candy Company in Dunn, notified Maxwell yesterday that he's back in the champ's spot. He far exceed all records so far set by chewing 129 sticks of gum for seven hours, he reported. He began chewing at 6 p. m. Wednesday evening and chewed until 1 a. m. Thursday, he said. The highest previous to this was 105 set by an unidentified youth. Miss Sue Johnson of Winston-Salem chewed 90 sticks for four hours and 12 minutes as the record last weekend. (Daily Record Photo)

They also visited Silver Springs, then back to Greenville to spend the night with their daughter.

The weather was ideal in Arizona, could have gone for a swim most anytime. They compared the climates of Arizona with that of Florida this way-terribly dry and warm in Arizona and moist, warm rained for the first time since July. They report a wonderful trip, but really think Harnett County the best place of all.

Mr. Cleveland Johnson, who was a patient at the Dunn Hospital for nearly three weeks is steadily improving and is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cad Upchurch in Dunn.

Friends in this area will be happy to learn that Mr. Robert Lee has recovered sufficiently to be moved to his home from the Dunn Hospital.

He is a brother of Mrs. H. T. Butts and Jessie Lee of this community.

Mrs. Alice Morgan and Mrs. J. T. Butts spent Wednesday in Calner with Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLeod. Mrs. McLeod is Mrs. Morgan's sister and their many friends in this community are so happy to know this couple are steadily improving and able to be up in the house now.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Butts have returned from a vacation trip of four weeks, that carried them through nine states, and also to NuQuallus in Old Mexico.

They were accompanied to Greenville S. C. by their daughter, Lolis and Francis Stephenson of Varina who are students at Bob Jones University there. Also on the trip was Mrs. Butts niece, Miss Layton Paineil who went as far as Tuscon, Arizona which was the home of Mrs. Butts sister, Mrs. Vincent Zuzana. After a few hour visit there, Miss Paineil continued her trip by bus to Calif, where she is employed. The return trip was made around the gulf coast, with a couple of days stop at Tarpon Springs, Fla. This is the sponge industrial center and proved to be quite interesting. While there they went for a fishing trip - but no luck - just one tiny fish and an octopus.

Refreshments consisting of iced drinks, iced cup cakes and candies were served to the following: Marion Phelps, Stacey Whittington, Frank Farrel, Jimmy Johnson, Bobby Wester, Robert Matthews, Charles Currin, Harold Stewart, Cyrus Stewart, Leo Kelly Jr., Barbara Myrick Terry Edwards, Faye Stewart, Willie Jean Bowling, Peggy Bell, Elaine Byrd, Betty Lou Glasby, Peggy Morgan, Nancy Morgan, Gladys Johnson, Becky Matthews, Mary Ann Moore, Janette Darroch, Gerald Myrick, Howard Pope, Mrs. Byrd and Mrs. Matthews.
