

Purdie's Shows New GE Appliances

NEW GE LINE ON DISPLAY — Johnnie Purdie, left, owner of Purdie Equipment Company in Dunn, is shown here as he demonstrated features of a new General Electric refrigerator to pretty Mrs. Shirley Hinson during the grand opening of Purdie's new building Saturday. You can tell by the smile on her face, Mrs. Hinson liked the new GE. The new GE line is now on display at Purdie's. (Daily Record Photo.)

Miss McPhail Weds D. C. Tysinger

In a quiet and impressive ceremony, Miss Doris Thornton McPhail and Mr. David Charles Tysinger were united in marriage on Thursday, February 18, in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. David F. Blue, Jr. of Concord, N. C. Preceding the ceremony, a musical program was rendered which included: "O Promise Me" by DeKoven, "Evening Star" by Wagner, "Because" by d'Hardelot, and "The Wedding March" from Lohengrin by Wagner. During the ceremony Schubert's "Serenade" was played and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was used as a benediction. The vows were heard by The Rev. David F. Blue, Jr. former pastor of the bride. The bride was attired in a beige traveling suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Tysinger is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McPhail of Dunn. She is a graduate of Central High School. Mr. Tysinger is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tysinger of Lillington, Route 1. He is a graduate of Bule's Creek High School and is engaged in farming. Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tysinger will be at home in Lillington, Route 1.

RETURN FROM NEW YORK
Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Mrs. Gordon Townsend returned Friday morning from New York where they spent the past week. Mrs. Townsend was on a buying trip for the Mary Sorrell Shop in Dunn.

MISS OLIVE, LT. COL. BELSMA UNITED IN CHURCH CEREMONY SATURDAY

Miss Joyce Olive and Lt. Col. Alfred Donald Belsma USAF, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Olive Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Thomas E. Nelson officiated at the ceremony, and wedding music was presented by Mrs. Alton Harrington, organist, and Mrs. Laurel Cameron, soloist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan Olive of Olinia and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alice Belsma of Larkspur, Wisconsin and the late William Belsma. The bridegroom had her two sisters as attendants. Mrs. Earl Goldston of Goldston was matron of honor and Miss Daisy Olive of Greensboro was the maid of honor. They wore ballerina-length dresses of pale blue taffeta styled with pleated bodices and full skirts. They wore matching headaddresses and carried heart-shaped bouquets of miniature pink and garnet roses tied with pink illusion. For the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of pale candlelight satin and Venice lace made with a high mandarin neckline trimmed with lace. The bell-shaped skirt ended in a long train. Her tiered veil of French illusion was finger-tip length and was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was centered with a white orchid. Major Bedford D. May was best man for the bridegroom and serving as ushers were Capt. Bernell Whitaker and Capt. Charles Hendricks, all of Southern Pines. The bride's mother wore a blue-gray dress with an orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Following the ceremony, the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church, and then left for a wedding trip to New York City and Canada. On their return, they will make their home in Southern Pines. Mrs. Belsma attended Woman's College in Greensboro and Lt. Col. Belsma, who is currently assigned to the Air Ground Operation School in Southern Pines, attended the University of Wisconsin and graduated from the University of Oregon.

MOVE TO ALABAMA
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Altman left Dunn to make their home in Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. Altman will attend the Commercial Trade Institution School there.

STEPHENSON-ROBERTS
Miss Norma Jean Roberts is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel D. Roberts of Willow Springs and the late Thomas Henry Roberts. Her engagement to William Paul Stephenson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson of Benson, is announced by her mother. The wedding will take place June 12 in Providence Presbyterian Church, Angier. Miss Roberts is a senior at Woman's College, Greensboro, and Mr. Stephenson is a graduate of Louisville College.

PLEASANT-TALLEY
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ray Talley of Fuquay Springs have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Joyce Talley to Marion Benton Pleasant Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant of Angier.

BRYAN-SMITH
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaw Graham of Raleigh have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Peggy Graham Smith to Clyde Milton Bryan Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan of Angier.

Hatcher & Skinner Funeral Home
ESTABLISHED IN 1912
AMBULANCE SERVICE
Phone 2447
Dunn, N. C.

Bryan of Dunn, Miss Smith attended Duke University and is now employed by the Highway Commission in Raleigh. Mr. Bryan is a senior at State College where he is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. The wedding will take place in June.

B & PW CLUB TO MEET
The Business and Professional Woman's Club will meet Tuesday night at 6:30. All members are urged to be present. Dr. C. W. Byrd will be the guest speaker.

ATTENDS CELEBRATION
Paul Hester spent the weekend in Creedmore, in order to attend the Golden Wedding anniversary of his parents.

How To Relieve Bronchitis
Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes into the bronchial system to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial membranes. Guaranteed to please you or money refunded. Creomulsion has stood the test of millions of users.
CREOMULSION
relieves Coughs, Chest Colds, Acute Bronchitis

Rehearsal Party Given In Raleigh For Bridal Couple

A rehearsal party was given Friday night for Miss Ruth Hobbs of Raleigh and Wesley Fowler of Dunn, who were married Saturday in Raleigh. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holler and Miss Nancy Holler in their home on White Oak Road, white gladioli, pompons and mixed spring flowers provided an attractive setting for the party. Guests were invited into the living room by Mrs. R. H. Latham and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hobbs of Charlotte. Cake was served by Mrs. L. F. Abernathy of Rock Hill, S. C. and punch was poured by Miss Wynona Fowler. Others assisting in the serving were Miss Ruth Hobbs Abernathy of Rock Hill and Miss Janice Fowler of Dunn. Approximately fifty members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests were present. Miss Hobbs was complimented by Mrs. D. H. Sutton at a luncheon Friday afternoon at the Reinly house in Raleigh. The bride-elects place was designated by a nosegay of white flowers and the hosts also presented her a gift of china. The luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of white roses and chrysanthemums. Guests included Mrs. James Bogie, Mrs. Home Culbreth, Mrs. Mary Olive Walker, the mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Alma Fowler, both of Lillington; Mrs. W. N. Hobbs and Mrs. Jansie Forsythe, both of Charlotte; and Miss Ruby Hayes, Mrs. E. E. Boyce, and Mrs. James Taylor, all of Gastonia.

Fowler - Hobbs Marriage Solemnized In Raleigh

The First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh was the setting for the five o'clock wedding of Miss Ruth Hobbs of Gastonia and Raleigh, to Wesley Caswell Fowler of Dunn on Saturday, February 20. Dr. James M. Sprunt, assisted by the Reverend J. W. Lineberger of Dunn, performed the double-ring ceremony against a background of palms and floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Jack D. Thompson, organist, and Mrs. Lloyd L. Coats Jr. of Dunn, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Given in marriage by her brother, Walter N. Hobbs of Charlotte, the bride wore a floor length gown in bluish misty nylon tulle and exquisite imported Chantilly lace over taffeta, featuring a moulded bodice below the sheer nylon yoke enhanced with delicate tracings of seed pearls, caplet sleeves and tulle gauntlets. Lace inserts glorified the voluminous nylon skirt. Her headpiece was a matching lace half hat with pearl trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of Four D's Amour and white phalaenopsis orchids centered with a white hybrid orchid and tied with nylon net and white satin streamers. Miss Ruth Hobbs Abernathy of Rock Hill, South Carolina, niece of the bride, was the maid of honor and only attendant. Her full length gown of pastel blue nylon tulle was fashioned with a moulded bodice and the V-shaped neckline was embellished with satinized blue leaves. The bouffant skirt was accented with a puffed flounce on one side and a repetition of the satin leaves. She wore a matching pearl-trimmed half bonnet and mits, and carried a cascade bouquet of Wedgewood Iris and Apollo pink carnations tied with pink nylon ribbon. Wesley Caswell Fowler Jr., attended his father as best man. Groomsman were Nathan M. Johnson Jr., William J. Thompson, Guyton Smith and Aley B. Johnson, all of Dunn. T. Avery Fowler of Salisbury, brother of the groom, L. F. Abernathy of Rock Hill, C. G. brother-in-law of the bride, John W. Brewer Jr., and Dan F. Holler of Raleigh, served as ushers. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter N. Hobbs, wore a beige taffeta dress with harmonizing accessories and a white petalled purple throated orchid. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a crepe dress of light blue with light grey accessories and her corsage was also a purple throated orchid. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Hobbs entertained at a reception in the church reception rooms. Later in the evening the bridal couple left for a trip to northern points. For travel, the bride wore a suit of mauve tweed with a Dolly Madison Dresden pink, imported Swiss braid level bonnet, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will make their home in Dunn where Mr. Fowler is connected with the Johnson Cotton Company. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas Hobbs of Gastonia and has made her home in Raleigh for the past nine years, where she has been connected with the Pritchard Paint and Glass Company. The groom is the son of Mrs. Alma Lassiter Fowler and the late Arthur Franklin Fowler of Lillington.

West-Dupree Vows Spoken

Mrs. Marie Gray Dupree and John H. West Jr. were united in marriage February 12 in a ceremony at the West home in Portsmouth, Virginia. The Rev. Neal W. Ellis officiated. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eddie M. Gray of Angier, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John H. West and the late Mr. West of Portsmouth, Va. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. D. M. Gray of Butler served as her matron of honor and Charles Watson of Portsmouth was best man for Mr. West. For the ceremony the bride wore an ice blue taffeta dress with white gloves and other navy accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses and carried a white prayer book topped with lily-of-the-valley. An informal reception at the West home followed the ceremony. Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. West will make their home in Portsmouth where Mr. West is employed on the city police force.

Mrs. Tingen Is Hostess To Circle

Circle Number 2, of the Sumnerville Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Mozelle Tingen Wednesday night at seven-thirty. After calling the meeting to order, Mrs. Shelton Webb led in prayer. The secretary, Mrs. Tingen, read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. In the absence of the Bible leader, Miss Betsy Ross lead the Bible study. The meeting was closed with sentence prayers and during the social hour the hostess served strawberry short cake with coffee. Those present for the meeting were Mrs. Shelton Webb, Mrs. Janyne Lucas, Mrs. Jim Christian, Mrs. Nell Ross, Miss Betsy Ross, and Mrs. Tingen, the hostess. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Shelton Webb

Future Teachers Organized In Coats High School

The Students at Coats High School interested in becoming teachers met Thursday afternoon in the Commercial Department to make plans to organize a local Future Teachers of American organization. Opportunities in teaching, training required to become a teacher, supply and demands of teachers were discussed by the sponsors, Mrs. Gladys Phillips and Mrs. Mary Jo Mann. Students who are choosing teaching as their career are: Jean Reynolds, Eugenia Baker, Della Jackson, Charlotte Ferrell, Ann Pleasants, Becky Pope, Lee Joy Johnson, Sue Johnson, Fay Avery, Susan Turlington, Jo Ann Stephenson, Donald Blalock, Allie Mae Barnes, Bobby Smith, Connie Mason and Joyce Johnson. FTA Clubs organized in the individual schools become a part of the Harnett County organization, under the supervision of Mrs. G. T. Proffit. In turn Harnett Co. clubs are in integral part of the state and national organization. The next local meeting will be held March 8, in the commercial department.

THANKS TO EVERYONE FOR HELPING MAKE OUR GRAND OPENING SUCH A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

I wish that it were possible for me to personally thank each and every visitor and extend to each a warm invitation to come back many times.

Had I had any idea there would be so many ladies present, I would have ordered more than 300 orchids. I'm very sorry all the ladies could not have one. We will make up for this oversight in our service to you.

If you have not paid us a visit yet, come down and see our many grand opening specials and the wonderful new line of '54 General Electric Appliances. We will continue to have new merchandise arriving and invite you to visit us often.

J. W. PURDIE

AWARDED PRIZES — Those pictured above were the winners of the big prizes awarded Saturday night. They are left to right, Mrs. Adeline Buffkin, Mrs. Jessie Weeks, J. W. Purdie, owner of Purdie's, Joe Bailey, winner of the television set and Jeff Denny, Elvira Elliott, standing in front of the group, drew the names of the lucky winners. (Daily Record Photo.)

IF YOU WEREN'T AMONG THE THOUSANDS WHO ATTENDED OUR GRAND OPENING SATURDAY, WE URGE YOU TO COME IN AND TAKE A LOOK AT OUR SPACIOUS NEW HOME AND SEE THE WONDERFUL NEW '54 GENERAL ELECTRIC APPLIANCES AND OUR COMPLETE NEW STOCK OF FURNITURE FOR THE HOME.

PURDIE EQUIPMENT CO.

W. Broad St. Dunn, N. C.