GARDEN CITY, Kan. — The worst dust storm of the year stretched today from the Texas Panhandle to the Nebraska border. It cut visibility to zero for a time here as winds up to 65 miles an hour cracked plate glass windows. City damage was small compared with what was happening in crop lands parched from an intense winter drought.

Last GAR Survivor

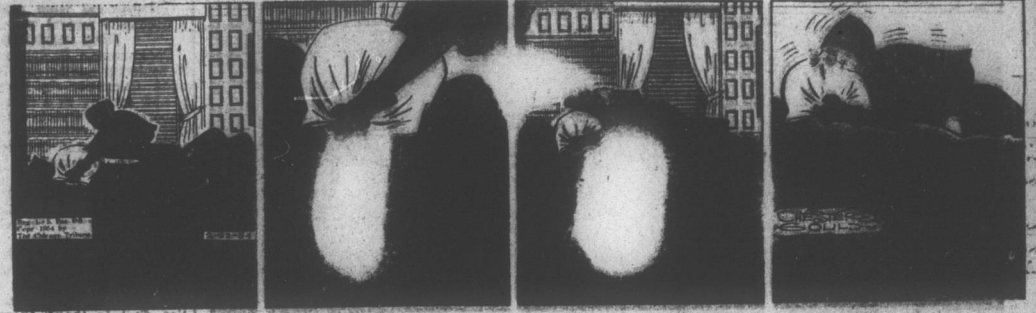

ASBET WOOLSON, last survivor of the Union Army in the Civil War, celebrates his 107th birthday at his home in Duluth, Minn. A letter of congratulations from President Eisenhower was among the more than 2,000 cards and messages that Woolson received from all parts of the nation. He told reporters: "I'm just beginning to feel like I'm not a boy any more." (International)
