

HONEYCUTTS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING AT BENSON SUNDAY

To celebrate the fiftieth year of their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Honeycutt were honored at a reception given by their children on Sunday afternoon, February 28 from 3 until 6 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Honeycutt of Fayetteville and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lucas of Erwin invited about five hundred friends to call by the Mason Hotel in Benson and greet their parents on the happy occasion.

Greeting guests on arrival were Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Strickland with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rose making the presentations to the receiving line which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Honeycutt and Mr. and Mrs. Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore of Raleigh directed guests from the receiving line to the guest registration book where Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Porter of Benson and Fayetteville presided. The hall desk on which the registration book rested was attractively decorated with jonquils and yellow mums with a soft glow from the golden colored candles in the background. Of interest on the desk was the 50-year-old miniature of the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt, on their wedding day. Decorations in the hall were entirely in gold. The elaborate gilded chandeliers, originally styled to hold candles, held golden tapers in quantities. Suspended underneath the chandeliers were massive double wedding rings of simulated gold with showers of gold ribbons extending from nosegays. The center stairway and newels were decorated with a profusion of gold colored chrysanthemums in jardiniere standing before a background of palms.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis, proprietors of the hotel, stood under

Legion Auxiliary Has March Meet

The American Legion Auxiliary held its March meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. R. A. Duncan Sr., with Mrs. C. L. Guy, Sr., serving as associate hostess.

The Duncan home was thrown ensuite for the meeting and beautifully decorated with a profusion of jonquils, Japanese quince and camellias.

The meeting was opened with the flag salute, the preamble and the national anthem. Mrs. Duncan led in the meditation.

General business was discussed with Mrs. V. L. Stephens presiding. Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. George Cuthrell, who inspired the group with his message on "Back To God Through Community Service."

During the social hour, guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Guy poured Russian tea and Mrs. Rodney Chestnut assisted in serving dainty ham sandwiches, canapes, hors d'oeuvres and cookies. A lovely bowl of red Camellias flanked by red tapers in silver candelabra graced the table.

Those attending were, Mrs. George Upchurch, Mrs. C. T. McGugan, Mrs. Mae Draughton, Mrs. Keith Finch, Mrs. W. S. Mason, Mrs. Mack Hodges, Mrs. Lillian Surles, Miss Louise McGugan, Mrs. Rodney Chestnut, Mrs. V. L. Stephens, Mrs. Allen Lee, Mrs. Sam Dowd, Mrs. John Bain and Dr. Cuthrell.
