ried, but isn't ready to announce it yet. The town's small fry are all excited about the dance being given tonight by Ginny Anderson and Cliff Butler. Local florist shops had to get in a special order of orchids for the occasion. Their ages run from six to 11. Mighty young for romance. Dunn's American Legion post needs only 17 more members to reach its quota of 247 for the year. And if the membership committee brings in those 17, it's going to prove costly for Major Roy Brown, commander of the post. Last night, Major Brown promised a charcoal steak supper to members of the committee if they reach the goal. On the committee are: Kie Hudson, chairman, Belvin Quisley, A. P. Pouch, Paul White, J. O. West, Hugh Lee, and Lonnie Norris. It'll take a lot of steak to feed that crowd. Kie says they'll make it, too. Father Frederick A. Koch of Raleigh, who's a frequent visitor in Dunn and is well known here, will attend the canonization ceremony of Pope Pius X in Rome on May 29 and after a month and a half of touring Europe with a pilgrimage group will return to Rome for a year's study at the University of Rome.

THINGAMAJIGS: Joe Spivak, son of Charlie Spivak, the famous orchestra leader, is a student at Campbell College, and he's very popular with the student body. There's some talk about the Spivak band giving a concert at Campbell—note we said CONCERT, not dance. Bill Twyman, Dunn's No. 1 Boy Scout leader, is leaving today for Schiff's Scout Reservation at Linden, New Jersey, to take a special course in advanced scouting. And Scout Executive Russell McLean will attend a Boy Scout meeting in Atlanta next month. In case you're interested in popular music, "Secret Love" was the nation's top tune last week. "Make Love To Me" was second, "Oh Mein Papa" third, and "Get So Lonely" fourth. "Stranger In Paradise" fifth. Others in order, "Young At Heart," "Changing Partners," "Cross Over the Bridge," "That's Amore" and "Wanted."

Gregory of Varina, Va., and Betty Horing Stone of Raleigh; and on March 12 to George Washington Beasley of Raleigh and Julia Ruth Norris of Raleigh and Angier.

HALF HOLIDAY — G. T. Profit, county superintendent of schools, says that the holiday teachers in the white schools will enjoy on tomorrow (Friday, March 19) will be a half holiday. Classes will close at 12 noon, in order for teachers to attend the annual meeting of the N. C. Education Association in Raleigh. Harnett County will have around 30 official delegates and many others will attend part of the sessions.

KELLOGG COMMITTEE — The Harnett County Kellogg Committee, which did not meet during February, will resume its monthly sessions on Monday, March 22 at 7:30 p. m. in the Lillington School Library. Meetings are held on the fourth Monday night of every month.

T. Profit, Harnett County Boy Scout commissioner. Men who serve as institutional representatives for local Boy Scout sponsoring organizations in the various localities will attend.

was unable to meet his catfishing companions at a spot agreed upon. His companions told the court that when Jackson didn't show up they figured he had taken off.

MORE TOUGH LUCK — The defendant had another touch of tough luck Monday, when he was originally scheduled to appear for trial. He fell off the top of a house in Dunn and appeared in court yesterday after spending several days in the hospital.

CHARGE HILL — Lt. Gov. Luther Hodges says he would be glad to support the right of young people to vote at the age of 18 "if the young people want that right and are willing to fight to get it." Hodges said he was impressed by Faircloth's stand on the issue. He said he would support an amendment sending dispatches to the Daily Worker had served as a mouthpiece for the North Korean and Chinese Communists during the two talks and prisoner exchanges.

HIS PORTRAIT TO BE HUNG — Pictured here is Dr. Angus R. McQueen, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church of Dunn. A portrait of Dr. McQueen, painted by Connelly Fridgen, will be presented to the church Sunday morning. It is being given by the Fridgen children as a memorial to their parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Fridgen.

the Lillington Clerk of Court's office, Williams pointed out "I just haven't had time to complete the work."

At this point, City Manager A. B. Uzzle turned to members of Council and said, "Now you won't hold me responsible for this after tonight, will you?" Council assured him that it was all up to the Attorney now.

Clio's Banker Makes Return

CLIO, Ala. — Officials of this town whose residents were left almost penniless by their banker's disappearance listened to the suddenly-retained banker's story today of what happened to him—$85,000 in deposits.

The banker, Royal Reynolds, returned to Clio unexpectedly last night after, according to his statement, he read reports that the town was left in economic peril by his disappearance. He had been the object of a widespread search since March 8.

WILL GET SOME BACK — Reynolds had with him on his return deposit records that would permit depositors to get some of their money, at least. Town officials were questioning him today for his account of what happened after he and his wife dropped out of sight the weekend of March 6-8.

Residents gathered in small groups in stores and on rainy street corners to discuss the dramatic return.

Reynolds returned the records of the bank which will enable an $81,800 deposit in Atlanta to be given back to the depositors, and his wife said that "it would all be straightened out today."

In the rush of his sudden reappearance, the financially stricken residents were too excited at first to inquire about the missing money.

Seeks a Pardon

Long before Christ came upon the earth, men were resorting to prayer for divine help.

The people of Israel, we know, realized the power of prayer and prayed often in appeal for God's blessing in gratitude for His favors.

Almost every one instinctively feels the need for prayer in time of danger and emergency.

Many people, unfortunately, do not know how to pray properly. Even the Apostles, watching as Jesus prayed, became conscious for the first time of the mighty power of a proper prayer. They could see on the Savior's face as He prayed, the reflection of a great inner peace and refreshment.

So they said to Jesus: "Lord, teach us to pray."

And Christ replied: "Pray thus... Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

"Give us this day our daily bread.

"And forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

"The words of the 'Lord's Prayer' are enshrined of course, in the hearts of Christians everywhere. And yet Christ, in giving us this most beautiful prayer of all, did not tell us to 'Pray like Him.' He said: 'Pray like I.'

He meant that we must pray with the realization that God is truly our Father... that His Name is to be revered as no other... that His will is to be done here and hereafter... that we are to be truly

C.P. & L. To Honor Former Coats Man

George T. "Pete" Watkins, maintenance foreman for Carolina Power & Light Company's general garage in Raleigh, has chalked up 25 years of service with C.P. & L. He has been invited to join the Pioneer Club, a social group of employees with a quarter-century or more of service with the company.

Watkins will be initiated at the club's annual banquet and will receive a gold pin centered with a diamond. The Pioneer Club now has nearly 300 members.

Born in Durham, Watkins attended public schools in Raleigh and Coats. He joined the company in January, 1929, as auto mechanic at the Raleigh garage, later assuming his present position as maintenance foreman.

Mrs. Watkins is the former Lillian Fowler of Spartanburg, S. C. They have three children—Charles, Bearden, of Clayton, and Mrs. Paul Montgomery and Thomas Watkins, both of Raleigh. Watkins devotes his spare time to his hobbies of baseball, bowling and gardening.

INDUSTRY PIONEER — Pete Watkins is one of several C.P. & L. employees who actually pioneered in the electric industry in North Carolina. In the years just before World War I, his father owned a small hosiery mill at Coats. Watkins recalls that his father and partners "bought a 50-horsepower dynamo, installed it at the mill, and pulled it with the mill engine, which was 20-horsepower."

"We had a 100-horsepower boiler," Watson said. "We needed the extra steam to dye the hosiery. My father hired a helper for $1.25 per day, and he bought a plug mule and wagon to haul sawdust and albs for the boiler. We also had a standby pile of coal. With this equipment and fuel supply we furnished electricity to the stores, the church and some of the homes in Coats, which then had a population of about 500."

Watkins recalls that Coats' main street was lighted with a string of bulbs on each side about three feet apart. The church was one-half mile away from the well, and lights were very dim at that distance.

"We shut off the electric service at 11 o'clock on week nights and at midnight on Saturday," he said. "It was my job to fire the boiler after school hours. I remember quotations on coal at 90 cents per ton, the freight cost more than the coal."

"LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY"

Long before Christ came upon the earth, men were resorting to prayer for divine help.

The people of Israel, we know, realized the power of prayer and prayed often in appeal for God's blessing in gratitude for His favors.

Almost every one instinctively feels the need for prayer in time of danger and emergency.

Many people, unfortunately, do not know how to pray properly. Even the Apostles, watching as Jesus prayed, became conscious for the first time of the mighty power of a proper prayer. They could see on the Savior's face as He prayed, the reflection of a great inner peace and refreshment.

So they said to Jesus: "Lord, teach us to pray."

And Christ replied: "Pray thus... Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

"Give us this day our daily bread.

"And forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

"The words of the 'Lord's Prayer' are enshrined of course, in the hearts of Christians everywhere. And yet Christ, in giving us this most beautiful prayer of all, did not tell us to 'Pray like Him.' He said: 'Pray like I.'

He meant that we must pray with the realization that God is truly our Father... that His Name is to be revered as no other... that His will is to be done here and hereafter... that we are to be truly sorry for our injustices to others, and forgive those who injure us... and that we are to avoid sin.

People who question the value of prayer usually say they have tried it and "it didn't work." They mean by this, of course, that God did not grant the things for which they prayed. A better understanding of proper prayer would make clear to them that petition for God's favor is only one kind of prayer... and that God does not grant every favor which we may want or think we need.

Proper prayer is not merely a petition for blessings; but also an expression of our love, our devotion and our gratitude to God... a declaration of our acceptance of God as our Father... a submission of our wishes and our will to the wishes and the Will of God.

Every day... in every land and every tongue... a mighty chorus of prayer rises from the hearts of Catholics to honor God—to implore His blessing—to pay Him grateful thanks. For the Church teaches... and Catholics know... that there is no power in the hands of men so great as the power of prayer.

The most famous collection of prayers known to history is the Book of Psalms... prayers in which God Himself teaches us clearly the dispositions with which we should pray.

To help you in your prayers, we will send you a beautifully illustrated edition of the Book of Psalms free of charge. Write today and ask for your copy of Book of Psalms No. 11—KC.
