SPECIAL NOTICE Effective immediately, all classified ads must be paid for in advance unless the advertiser is a business firm and has an established account with this newspaper. We regret the necessity for adopting this policy, but the extra bookkeeping problems involved and the very low cost of our classified ads makes it essential. May we remind you that advertising in The Record's classified columns is absolutely the cheapest — and most effective — medium of advertising in this trade area.

RALEIGH — Some 2,500 public school teachers from all parts of the state attended divisional and departmental meetings here today as the 1954 convention of the North Carolina Education Assn. began a full day of activities.

NEW ORLEANS — Mrs. Virginia Durr, sister-in-law of Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black, denied today she was a Communist or was ever under party discipline, but a former Communist accused her of "going with the Reds." The accusation came at a hearing of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee investigating alleged "Communist influence" in the Southern Conference Educational Fund. Mrs. Durr refused to answer questions except to say she was not a Communist.

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens struck out at "irresponsible criticism" of the Army today and said he intends to defend the army's "policies and integrity." Stevens appeared to be referring to the Army's angry fight with Sen. Joseph W. Bradley in the Senate at Gen. Mark Clark's inauguration as president of The Citadel.

MRS. ROBIN-EDWARDS ROOSEVELT, recently divorced from Curtis "Buzzie" Roosevelt, grandson of the late President, applies for a marriage license in New York with Marion L. Hargrove Jr., author of "See Here, Private Hargrove." The pair did not reveal the wedding date.

IN WAKE OF GEORGIA TORNADO

WRECKED BY THE TORNADO that swept through central and western Georgia, a drive-in grocery in Macon (bottom) is protected from possible looters by National Guardsmen. At top, Clarence Hill stands in the splintered remains of his home, thankful that his wife and baby escaped death. Seven persons were killed and at least 70 injured. Damage is estimated at $25,000,000. (International Soundphoto)
