

Cake-Cutting Held At Casper Tart Home Saturday

Following the Willoughby-Sorrell wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Tart entertained the bridal couple, wedding party and other guests at a delightful cake-cutting at their home on Erwin Road.

Miss Ann Wheatley greeted guests at the door and invited them into the home which was lovely with floral decorations in the bridal decor.

In the dining room, the table was covered with a handsome handmade white crocheted cloth and held a centerpiece composed of white snapdragons and white stock. Tall white tapers in branched silver candelabra illuminated the lovely appointments. From one end of the table, Mrs. David Wilson, mother of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and at the opposite end, Mrs. John Sorrell, mother of the bride, served the four-tiered bridal cake after Miss Sorrell and Mr. Willoughby had cut the traditional first slice. Miss Margaret Wheatley assisted in serving mints and toasted nuts.

Dr. Ruth O'Neal of Winston-Salem presided at the bride's register.

Approximately eighty attended the pre-nuptial affair.

IN COLUMBIA

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Farthing and Earl Farthing spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Farthing Jr. in Columbia, S. C.

SPRING VACATION

Earl Davis Farthing of Wake Forest is spending the spring holidays here with his parents.

Two pastel dresses with pink camellias in their hair.

The bride's mother was attired in a hyacinth blue gown with which she wore long white kid gloves and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue nylon lace dress with white elbow length gloves. Her corsage was also an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church.

The couple left for a wedding trip to northern points. For traveling, the bride wore a natural linen suit, brown skin shoes and bag, white straw hat and gloves. Her corsage was the orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Willoughby received her education in the Dunn High School and is a graduate of Campbell College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dunn High School and attended Atlantic Christian College for two years prior to entering the U. S. Army. At present he is stationed with the Personnel Section of 80th Infantry at Fort Benning, Ga.

Rebecca Ann Butler W.S.C.S. District Party Honoree

Little Rebecca Ann Butler was complimented on her fifth birthday Saturday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Riley Butler, entertained a group of her friends at a gay party from 3:30 until 5:30 at the home.

The children enjoyed outdoor games and an Easter egg hunt after which they were invited into the house for movies.

After the entertainment, Mrs. Butler, assisted by Mrs. Bill Harrington and Mrs. Robert Page, served the children potato chips, Easter candies, ice cream, cake and punch. Colorful birthday plates and napkins were used and the pretty two-tiered decorated cake with five candles was on the table. A bouquet of pink and white sprays was very attractive and in keeping with the color scheme.

Party hats were given for favors and the little honoree enjoyed opening her pretty gifts.

Extending birthday greetings to Rebecca Ann were, Jo Jo Burnette, Becky Ann Hodges, Marilyn Page, Ann and Allen Klutz, Carol and Benny Barefoot, Ricky Gregory, Ronnie Godwin, Lee Byrd, Karen and Ray Barbour, Wynona Strickland, Pam Tripp, Ann McLeod, Mike Matthews, Brenda Jackson, Buddy Coats, Jean Carol Smith, Janice Strickland, Billy Harrington, Vickie Sue Best and R. W.S.C.S. District Meet To Convene

The Raleigh District meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, August 28th convening at 10 o'clock. This district takes in 93 local societies whose representatives will hear the reports of the work accomplished in the District during the past year. The highlight of the meeting will be a talk by Miss Constance Blackstock of Bound Brook, N. J., a missionary on furlough from India.

Born in India, Miss Blackstock came to the United States for higher education and to begin a career in education. In 1961 she began missionary service as a teacher at Isabella Thoburn College, in Ludlow, India and learned the Urdu language. In 1917 she became principal of the Girl's Middle School, Hardoi, U. P., India. In 1924 Miss Blackstock returned to the United States to teach at Lasell Jr. College, in Auburndale, Mass., where she attended school before entering Goucher College. While at Lasell she did graduate work at Boston University. The missionary returned to the field in 1939 as principal of Lucie Harrison Girls High School in Lahore, Pakistan. The enrollment was 173 students then which has grown to 619 at the present time. In October, 1953, the first National Principal was chosen to lead Lucie Harrison School. Each year the Christian sisters are trained to lead in Daily Vacation Bible School work. In 1953 both Moslem and Christians were taught to use the Laubach method to help in the Literacy Campaign.

She plans to return to India in September.

At present there are four district officers in this section: Mrs. P. G. Parker Sr., Southern Sub-District leader; Mrs. J. W. Lineberger, Recording Sec.; Mrs. Frank Spruill, Secy. of Youth Week; Mrs. H. C. Turlington, Secy. of Promotion.

MRS. JOHN A. WILLOUGHBY

Willoughby-Sorrell Vows Pledged Sunday Afternoon

Miss Hilda Ann Sorrell and John Alvah Willoughby were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at five o'clock in the Divine Street Methodist Church, with the Reverend J. W. Lineberger, pastor of the bride, and Dr. George Cuthrell, pastor of the groom, as officiating ministers in the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd Sorrell, Sr. of Dunn. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. David Wilson of Dunn and George Spicer Willoughby of Norfolk, Virginia.

The candlelight ceremony was performed before a background of artistic palms and Southern smilax. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Reta Whitenton, organist, and Mrs. Lloyd L. Coats, Jr., soloist. Mrs. Whitenton played "Bless This House" by Brachy, "Bachelors' Flower" by Worell; "Air Is It" by Bach; "Entr'acte Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod. The traditional wedding marches were used and during the ceremony, Mrs. Whitenton softly played, "Through The Years."

Mrs. Coats sang "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg and "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, John Lloyd Sorrell, Jr., wore a wedding gown of imported chantilly lace over bridal satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. The bertha collar and long sleeves were edged with lace medallions. Her two-tiered veil of imported French illusion was attached to a bandeau of waxed orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with camellias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Gordon Townsend was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of white lace over green taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink camellias.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, George Willoughby of Fort Benning, Ga., and ushers were Carl Parrish, Jr., of Wilson Mills, Eugene Massey of Zebulon, Marshall Edward Strickland, of Dunn, cousin of the groom and Richard Sorrell of Dunn, brother of the bride.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Edith Sorrell and Miss Jean Sorrell, sisters of the bride, Miss Sue Wilson, sister of the groom, Miss Jennie Barbour, Miss Polly Pope, Miss Fannie Sue Turnage, Mrs. Ben Goff, Mrs. Howard Hodges, Miss Jeanne Goff, Miss Rogie Tyler, Miss Betty Sue Draughon and Miss Jennie Smith, all of Dunn and Miss Betty Ann Butts of Buies Creek.
