

SUSPECT ENDS LIFE AT GOLDSTON

STATE'S HANDSOME JUNIOR SENATOR — Pictured here doing a little campaigning is United States Senator Alton A. Lennon, greeting Mrs. Kenneth Sprunt and her daughter, Libby, at Orton Plantation in Wilmington. Senator Lennon is a handsome, distinguished and eloquent official

who makes a splendid appearance in Congress and has represented the State well, and with dignity. He can hold his own in debate with other distinguished members of the Senate. He's a good campaigner, too. (Daily Record Photo by Seth Muse.)

Brownell Denied Full Authority On Wire-Tapping

By UNITED PRESS

The battle over the administration's wire-tap bill shifted to the Senate today after the House refused to vote Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., all the authority he wanted.

And there were signs that even the revised measure which would permit the use of some wire-tap evidence in prosecution of subversives-faced trouble in the Senate. It will go to the judiciary committee which has buried similar bills in the past.

Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.), former chairman of the judiciary committee, announced he would offer an alternate plan to restrict rather than relax present wire-tap authority and forbid the use of wiretaps as evidence in courts.

OTHER CONGRESSIONAL NEWS
Buildings Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) has warned that a federal building bill now before the Senate contains "opportunity for a lot of graft, a lot of fraud." The measure would authorize the government to purchase new buildings on the lease-purchase or "time payments" plan.

Trade: Foreign Aid Chief Harold E. Stassen was called before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to explain the administration's views on easing East-West trade barriers.

Far East: Two Democratic senators — Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.) and J. William Fulbright (Ark.) — took sharp issue with the idea of using foreign aid to prod France and Britain into agreeing to an Allied warning against new Red aggression in Southeast Asia.

McCarthy: Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) said the Senate investigating Subcommittee must decide soon how much of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's air in the hearings slated to begin April 21.

Military Security: Two members of the Senate Armed Services Committee — Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) — said a new Pentagon order to rid the military services of security risks may "stigmatize" some loyal servicemen for life.

Risks: McCarran has introduced a bill today to require all government departments to tell Congress and the public how many security risks they have fired and why.

GIs To Receive New Type Uniform

WASHINGTON (U) — GI Joe is going to get a dashing "new look" uniform—but not until he wears out his present olive drab pants.

It will be the fall of 1955 at the earliest before the lowly private can be a "man of distinction."

(Continued On Page Five)

Great Granny, With A Beard Lands In Jail

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (U) — Mrs. Hazel Ehrhard, a gray-haired great-grandmother and the nemesis of the Indianapolis police department, rubbed the stubble on her chin today and allowed as how she wasn't fixed very well for blades.

Mrs. Ehrhard, 58, whose trial on a series of traffic charges was scheduled for next Tuesday, was concerned about her four-day growth of beard.

"I need a shave bad," she said. "I gotta get out of this hole."

Mrs. Ehrhard, who has two great grandchildren, 11 grandchildren and five children, was jailed Monday for ramming a policeman's motorcycle and trying to flee from him.

(Continued On Page Five)

Joe Adonis Gets Term In Prison

WASHINGTON (U) — Racketeer Joe Adonis, today was sentenced to serve from eight to 24 months in prison on charges of lying to the old Kefauver Senate Crime Committee.

Federal Judge Walter M. Bastian imposed sentence and denied a last ditch defense effort to set aside the verdict.

+ Record Roundup +

TO WINSTON-SALEM — Dr. W. B. Hunter, county health officer, is in Winston-Salem attending a three day refresher course in obstetrics and pediatrics at the Bowman-Gray School of Medicine. General practitioners and public health officers throughout the state are in attendance.

MARRIAGE LICENSES — Three marriage licenses were issued on

DUNN'S BEAUTY ENTRIES — Pictured here are the 12 young beauties who are competing for the title of "Miss Dunn" in the Jaycee Beauty Pageant tonight in the high school auditorium. Left to right are, front row: Ann Gregory, Patricia Woodworth and Martha Lee; second row: Becky Lee, Margaret Godwin and Mary Cheek; third row: Iris Elmore, Shirley Gregory and Mattie Godwin; back row: Nancy Sugg, Betsy Lee and Fannie Sue Turnage. (Daily Record Photo.)

"Miss" Dunn Will Be Picked At Beauty Pageant Tonight

Formal judging will be held tonight for 12 Harnett County beauties entered in the first Jaycee Beauty Pageant. The judging will be held at Dunn High School at 8 o'clock.

With over 1,200 tickets already sold, an over-flowing crowd is expected to attend the event.

Informal judging of social graces of the young ladies was held last night at a banquet for Jaycees, their wives, the judges, and the beauties at the Woman's Club.

Top three winners tonight will be presented trophies and the first place winner will also receive a complete wardrobe to be used when she enters the State Finals in Burlington. Besides the trophies, the 12 beauties will also receive a gift from the Jaycees.

Judges in the contest come from Sanford, Fayetteville, Goldsboro, (Continued on page six)

BULLETINS

RALEIGH (U) — Gov. William B. Umstead believes the recent Democratic rally in Charlotte helped the party's cause in the 10th Congressional District where the state is represented by its only Republican Congressman, Rep. Charles R. Jonas. Umstead told newsmen here yesterday that the rally which featured an address by Adlai E. Stevenson was "one of the best planned and efficiently executed events I have ever attended." He said he thought it helped the party's cause in the district.

RALEIGH (U) — James F. Latham, a Burlington attorney, today assumed his new duties as assistant to Terry Sanford, state campaign manager for the senatorial campaign of W. Kerr Scott.

Scott headquarters announced here last night that

(Continued On page Two)

Once Ruled Dead Man Returns Home

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (U) — Thomas C. Buntin, the man who disappeared from his home here 22 years ago and was declared legally "dead," has returned for a visit with his aging mother.

Buntin was found last fall living in Orange, Tex., with his former secretary, Miss McCuddy, Russellville, Ky. They are known there as Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Palmer and have four children.

Both left prominence and wealth in their home towns to start on nothing together. Buntin also left a wife and three sons here.

However, Mrs. Dan C. Buntin and her son saw each other for the first time since his disappearance yesterday and spent hours talking behind closed doors at her home. Reporters soon got the point they weren't wanted.

Buntin's wife was believed still

(Continued On Page Six)

News Shorts

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (U) — Work will begin shortly on a proposed "tallest structure in the world," a television tower topping the Empire State Building by 400 feet. The Deep South Broadcasting Co. announced yesterday construction of the 1,573.6-foot tower will go ahead as soon as the Federal Communications Commission approves a request for an increase of wattage.

CHICAGO (U) — A stubborn kidney disorder kept Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson in a hospital bed today, but it was thought he would be discharged in time to appear at a $100-a-plate party dinner April 26.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (U) — The case of the four skeletons found in an Onslow County mud pit was no longer a mystery today. Dr. Jeffrey Cox, director of the research laboratory of anthropology at the University of North Carolina here, said yesterday that the remains were those of Indians buried 150 or more years ago.

EDENTON, N. C. (U) — The State Bureau investigation today

(Continued on page six)

Ex-Sweetheart Of Widow Is Found Dead

PITTSBORO, N. C. (U) — A bizarre "booby trap" bomb murder in 1951 was believed solved today with the suicide of a childhood sweetheart of pretty Imogene Cochrane, wife of the bombing victim.

George Henry Smith, 29, of Goldston, N. C., a tiny community near here, was found shot through the heart with a .22 caliber rifle bullet. His body lay in a patch of rainsoaked woods behind his home, a few hundred yards from Mrs. Cochrane's family home.

Chatham County Coroner Dr. W. C. Thomas ruled the death suicide. Sheriff J. W. Emerson said no note was found.

GREW UP TOGETHER — Emerson said Smith and Mrs. Cochrane, the former Imogene Moses of Goldston, "grew up together" in the same neighborhood, and attended the same school.

"He had known her all his life," Emerson said.

This apparently is the answer to the mysterious slaying of popular 24-year-old high school agriculture teacher William H. Cochrane Jr., of Mt. Airy, N. C., on New Year's Eve, 1951, State Bur-

(Continued On Page Six)

Dunn Missed By Cyclone

A mass of cool, crisp air which dwelled over the Midwest for a day moved eastward and spread out Friday over the entire eastern portion of the nation with the exception of Florida.

The Raleigh weather bureau yesterday put out a warning that a cyclone or tornado might strike in the area between Dunn and Fayetteville anytime between 7 and 10 p. m. last night.

At 11 o'clock, the weather bureau issued a warning that danger had past.

There was a hard rain and thunder storm here. The Record office was deluged with calls from anxious citizens.

Sudden temperature drops also

(Continued from page six)

Ex-Convict Seeks To Kill Governor

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (U) — An embittered ex-convict, who could get no clemency from the Wyoming Pardon Board was believed to be gunning for Gov. C. F. Rogers today.

Rogers told newsmen yesterday that the man had purchased "a small arsenal" and apparently "meant business" when he threatened to "fill the governor full of lead."

Capt. William R. Bradley of the Wyoming Highway Patrol was assigned to guard Rogers at all times. Bradley said local police, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and law officers throughout the state had been given a full description of the ex-convict.

Spence Will Head Lillington VFW

James R. Spence, new Lillington attorney, is the new commander of the Ernest Simmons Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Lillington. Spence, a Navy veteran, succeeds H. D. Carson, Jr. in this post.

Spence and other officers chosen in the month of March were officially installed Tuesday night in ceremonies at the V. F. W. Hut. Eight District Commander D. M. Derrick of Fayetteville officiated at the installation ceremonies.

Earlier, a fish fry attracted 75 of the chapter's 143 members and Mayor Joel Layton, Jr. and other members of the Lillington town council were special guests of the post.

Elective officers, in addition to the post commander, include: J. L. Hamilton, senior vice-commander; Jack L. Laster, junior vice-commander; H. D. Carson, Jr., quartermaster; Carl A. Byrd, chaplain.

(Continued on page two)

These Little Things

By ROOVER ADAMS

MRS. GROVER BENDERSON FORMER NEWSPAPERWOMAN

LITTLE NOTES: Among those most pleased with the good news that Preacher Tom Fryer is getting his Doctor's Degree was Paul L. Strickland, local Buick-Pontiac dealer.

He and Fryer are fishing pals, visit each other frequently and are quite a few postcards and rabbits around town.

Charley Maynard says he has killed four or five at his house already.

The fellows at Lee's Truck Terminal killed a big possum the other night.

Mutt Butt says he has lost 20 pounds and doesn't feel a bit better.

But he looks better.

Attorney John Allen McLeod is one of the town's best dressed

(Continued on page two)

46 Are Killed, 21 Missing In Crashes

By UNITED PRESS

At least 46 persons were killed Thursday and 21 others were missing and believed dead in four aviation disasters, two of them involving collisions in the air.

A South African Comet jet airplane with 21 persons aboard, three of them Americans, was believed to have crashed into the Tyrrenian Sea 100 miles south of Naples.

A U. S. Navy search plane found a large oil slick in the area midway between Salerno and the northern shores of Sicily. The pilot reported there was no trace of survivors.

The plane, carrying 14 passengers and seven crewmen, was on the Rome to Cairo leg of a flight from London to Johannesburg.

The three Americans aboard were identified tentatively as O. L.

Anderson, American Fork, Utah; R. L. Wilkinson, Marblehead, Mass.; and F. R. Harbison, no address available.

The plane was on loan to South Africa from the British Overseas Airways Corporation which immediately ordered Comet flights suspended throughout the world.

37 KILLED

Thirty-seven persons were killed at Moose Jaw, Sask., Thursday when a training plane rammed a four-engine airliner of Trans-Canada Airlines. The dead included all persons aboard the airliner.

(Continued on page six)