

BULLETINS

(Continued from page one)

Latham had been added to the staff. He served as assistant to Finance Chairman Beardsley Ruml during the 1952 presidential campaign of Adlai Stevenson.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Notice to taxpayers: The general has paid up for that $1,200 dog house he built at government expense. This reassuring report was delivered to the House Armed Services Committee. It had expressed a keen interest in the matter.

Maj. Gen. Roderick R. Allen wanted his dogs to have the best possible accommodations when he was at Ft. Dix, N. J. For their comfort he provided a plush kennel and a 90 by 60-foot enclosure for exercise.

NEW BERN (AP) — The second degree murder trial of Pvt. John Frank Tuttle of Havelock was scheduled to go to a Craven County Superior Court jury here today. Tuttle testified yesterday that he killed Pvt. Noah A. Hopkins of Paulding County, Ga., in self-defense after Hopkins attacked him Dec. 12 at a roadside park near Vanceboro.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign Aid Chief Harold E. Stassen was called before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today to explain administration views on easing East-West trade barriers. He was expected to be asked about the agreement between the United States, Britain and France announced in London last month to ease "substantially" the West's embargo on strategic goods to Russia and her European satellites.

CURRITUCK (AP) — Currituck County Sheriff L. L. Dozier today went ahead with plans to sell all movable property at the Moyock dog racing track to pay court costs. Judge Malcolm Paul in Currituck Superior Court here yesterday ordered Dozier to proceed with plans for the sale when the Carolina-Virginia Racing Assn., operator of the track, declined to post a $12,500 bond required to stop the sale.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The first Negroes ever to play baseball with whites here performed before 11,250 fans, who took the breaking of an "unwritten law" in this Dixie city in stride. Negro players Minnie Mino and Bob Boyd became the first Negroes ever to compete with whites here yesterday. They played for the Chicago White Sox in a 6-2 exhibition win over the St. Louis Cardinals.

HANOI, Indo-China (AP) — Communist artillery pounded Dien Bien Phu with a heavy barrage early today in an apparent prelude to a third major onslaught on the battered French fortress. Heavy mortars and 105-millimeter howitzer dropped shells across French bunkers and trenches at point blank range from newly-dug positions.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Police besieging a big slice of this city of 125,000 residents used extra caution today because a harmless cripple mistaken for one of two hunted bandits was almost shot to death. Officials directing nearly 100 city, county and state police in an intensive search of a huge residential area believed both gunmen were still hiding in the area unless one, maddened by pain of a gunshot wound, had slain his fugitive crony.

RALEIGH (AP) — The dispute over ownership of the property of the North Rocky Mount Baptist Church will not be settled until September. The appellants in the case, the faction headed by the Rev. Samuel H. W. Johnston, had asked the court to delay the hearing because the record of the case cannot be completed in time for the spring term.

ALPHARETTA, Ga. (AP) — A power line fell upon another circuit and shot 11,000 volts into a residential area here, setting six structures on fire. Frightened residents began shooting at the wires with shotguns and pistols in near panic as dwelling after dwelling burst into flame from the red hot circuits yesterday, police said.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey says the draft will be stepped up despite the H-bomb and he also doubts "ultra-mechanization" will reduce manpower needs. Hershey said here yesterday that draft quotas during fiscal 1955 probably will exceed this year's by 8,000 to 10,000 men a month. He said mechanization is tending to increase, rather than decrease, manpower needs.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's pared-down foreign aid program for next year calls for sharp cuts in day jet fighters for this nation's allies but a big boost in the number of all-weather jet interceptors, it was disclosed yesterday. Figures presented to the House Foreign Affairs Committee also revealed a cut in jet and conventional fighter bombers and in major combat naval vessels, but an increase in conventional bombers.

ATLANTA (AP) — The Atlanta Women's Chamber of Commerce admitted today it made a resounding mistake in planning a big parade smack in the middle of Noise Abatement Week. The parade with blaring bands, escorts of police cars with wailing sirens and Navy jets roaring overhead was planned for April 14 by a city clean-up committee.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Democratic senators objected strenuously today to using foreign aid to prod Britain and France into supporting an Allied warning against new Red aggression in Southeast Asia. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.) said it would be "playing into the hands of the Soviets." And Sen. J. William Fulbright (Ark.) said aid should be dispensed on its merit, not as part of a bargain.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The cataclysmic tests of the hydrogen bomb turned the United Nations Disarmament Commission's first meeting of the thermonuclear age today into one of urgency aimed at outlawing the awesome weapon. The commission first planned for a routine meeting but India demanded an immediate standstill agreement on atomic and hydrogen weapon tests while the U. N. seeks an agreement to ban entirely their production and use.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson said today the Senate investigating Subcommittee must decide whether to probe the dispute between Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's dispute with the Atomic Energy Commission in forthcoming hearings. Jackson D. Cal. opposes the group to discuss the overall scope of the inquiry at a meeting next week prior to the start of public hearings April 21.

BEAUTIES TALK IT OVER — Miss Becky Lee, left, and Miss Fannie Sue Turnage, right, are pictured here chatting with Harold Grant, chairman of Dunn Jaycees' annual beauty pageant contest. They are among a dozen contestants for the title of "Miss Dunn." Miss Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Lee and Miss Turnage is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Furman Turnage. (Daily Record Photo)

Corbett To Preach Youth Week Sermon

Youth of the First Baptist Church of Dunn will complete their week of management of the church Sunday morning with Clarence (Doc) Corbett Jr., presenting the morning sermon.

Corbett, a ministerial student, will complete work at Campbell College this year. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Corbett of Dunn.

Sunday activities by the young people will open with a breakfast at 7:30 in the church recreation room. Food will be prepared by mothers of the young people.

WOMBLE TO SPEAK
Edgar Womble, youth worker in the Goldsboro Baptist Church, will be guest speaker at the breakfast. Theme for the service will be "Youth Working for a Living Christ."

Sunday School will open at 8:30 with Frank Campbell serving as superintendent. Young people of the church will also assume duties in the opening ceremonies of the various departments, and will teach all Sunday School classes.

Elsie Hodges will serve as church organist, and Linda Aycock will direct the music.

Services Sunday climax a full week in which the young people of the church have directed activities.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's wire-tap bill today faced rough going in the Senate after being drastically overhauled in the House. The bill, which fails to give the administration all the authority it requested, must go before the Senate Judiciary Committee where similar measures have perished in the past. The House bill, approved 378-10 Thursday, would permit the use of some wire-tap evidence in prosecution of subversives.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel accused Egypt today of three new attacks on her tense southern border in "grave complaints" handed to the U. N. Mixed Armistice Commission. The government charged that Israelis were assaulted by troops of the Egyptian regular army.

CORSAGE MAKING — Fifteen out of the county's eighteen home demonstration clubs met a total of 94 women to study corsage making. Mrs. Pauline Gordon, State Extension Service specialist, demonstrated how to make corsages, starting first with the ribbons and foundation layer. She studied fingered pupils were making corsages themselves from the many beautiful flowers the women brought. Only lunch in the day's instruction work was to eat a picnic lunch. Women sat at this table seated left to right were: Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn, Community; Mrs. Jennie Stewart, Ladies; Mrs. E. D. Jones, Goodwill; Mrs. Curtis Stephenson, Angler; and standing were: Mrs. Earl Ballard, Righting; and Mrs. R. C. Cameron, City. (Photo by T. M. Stewart)

Little Things

(Continued from page one)

men . . . He always looks good . . . Fred Garvin is a man with heaps of personality . . . And he sells Oldsmobiles, too . . . Ken Neeter says McLamb Flour Mill is turning out 300 barrels of that good Hot Bluet flour every week.

Buddy Klein and his orchestra from State College will play for the Lillington Junior-Senior Friday night of this week . . . The orchestra for the Dunn Junior-Senior dance hasn't been picked yet . . . Incidentally, the Jaycees' beauty pageant dance tonight is free to the public . . . And you can dance with the pretty contestants, too . . . R. I. (Ford-Mercury) McLean says this is good fishing weather . . . He's getting his tackle in shape . . . Dunn grocery stores report that Holsum bread is selling big since that announcement in Monday's Daily Record . . . You can now buy those Mastercraft paint-by-the-numbers sets at Warren's Dunn Pharmacy . . . An important business announcement for Dunn will be made soon, barring further delay . . . Johnson's Restaurant now "pipes in" a church service every Sunday morning for the benefit of tourists . . . J. D. Barnes said a number of tourists expressed their appreciation last Sunday . . . Jerry Bryant is a stock car racing fan; he's planning to take in the races at Hillsboro Sunday.

SEEN ABOUT TOWN: Herbert Taylor enjoying one of John Herling's jokes . . . John knows some good ones . . . Gloria Barnes getting ready for her appearance on James Thornton's TV program over WNAO Saturday night . . . The program runs from 10 until 11 . . . Governor Kerr Scott may also be on the program . . . Mrs. Ida Hodges of Raleigh, a good friend of Mrs. Dewey Whitenton, in town campaigning for Josh James, for State Treasurer . . . A couple of Dunn's talented young ladies bringing some sheet music at the Town Book Shelf . . . Vice President H. A. McAllister and Locke Campbell of the Durham and Southern paying The Record office a visit . . . McAllister used to be a teletype operator for The Associated Press in New York . . . Mrs. Grovet Henderson is also a former newspaperwoman . . . She worked on the newspaper in Ocala, Florida . . . She was telling us her experiences yesterday morning at the Post Office, where she was mailing a check to her son, Bobby . . . "You have to keep these students in money," she laughed . . . Johnnie Wilbourne of Lillington in town for a visit . . . Said he sold two television sets while here, a very profitable trip, indeed . . . Griffin Hester coming out of the Red Cross office . . . Woody Myers trying to get a Record photographer to take his picture "right in the middle of all these pretty girls" at the beauty pageant banquet last night . . . The photog refused on grounds his wife might not like it . . . Johnnie Welton coming back into town after another long business trip . . . Mrs. Johnnie Ciccone bicycling around town for exercise . . . She's trying to reduce . . . That's doing it the hard way . . . The best way—and just about the only way—is to quit eating . . . Clarence Lee Tart deposting an armful of mail at the Post Office after a hard day's work at Wade . . . Andy Collins back in town campaigning for Sheriff . . . Andy is really going after that job . . . He was all dressed up, too . . . Says his partner, Lamar Simmons, is going to help him . . . That Lamar is a smooth fellow and a good campaigner . . . He can get all the women's votes . . . Lamar's radio station town in Rock Hill, S. C., is booming . . . Parson Bob Insko in town . . . Says his church has several good organists . . . He has a very progressive church . . . Lonnie Baldwin getting ready for the first anniversary celebration of Baldwin and Mattox . . . A load of new Cadillacs going through town . . . Garvin Brothers has 'em . . . A new sign being painted on the side of Crummett Hardware Co. . . Mrs. Patsy Cromarty Coats stroking her baby down town so Grandpappy Raymond could nuzzle the pretty little girl . . . Woody Hill getting his hair trimmed for a very heavy, heavy im-

Baptist To Meet At Buie's Creek

Little River Baptists will meet in Buie's Creek Church on Tuesday, April 13, for the third annual spring inspirational meeting . . . Three years ago the Little River Association voted to replace its long-continued fall meeting with two annual sessions, one in Spring and the usual fall assembly to be devoted strictly to business matters and reports . . . "Forward With Christ" will be the theme of the one-day program which will bring up the countrywide of the outstanding speakers in the Baptist denomination . . . The morning session will begin at 8:30 and the afternoon at 1:45. Lunch will be served to visitors and delegates from 21 churches at 12:30 p.m. . . The honor of deliberating the annual meeting will be given to the Rev. J. W. Jones, pastor of the Buie's Creek Baptist Church, Raleigh, who will speak on "Christian Education Through Worship." Dr. Claude Gaddy of Raleigh will speak on the "Forward Movement in Christian Education." Dr. J. A. Ellis, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, will discuss ways of improving the pastoral ministry. Dr. H. C. McKee, director of Baptist education in Winston-Salem, will speak on "Christian Service Through Ministry to the Sick." . . . Afternoon speakers will include James Morgan, State Secretary of the Baptist Training Union, Dr. Henry Waldon, Jr., secretary of rural church work for the State Convention, L. L. Morgan, State Sunday School director, and Dr. J. C. Turner, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro. Their respective subjects will be church organization, the church in community life, progress in physical equipment, and evangelism. Leslie Campbell, president of Campbell College, and moderator of the Little River Association will preside at the meeting. . . Two other county-wide Baptist meetings are slated for the same week of the spring Association meeting: On Monday, April 12, a Government night featuring scripture reading, memory drills and hymn singing will be conducted at the Buie's Creek Church at 7 p.m. . . A Vacation Bible School Clinic will be held on April 16, from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Lillington Church. Julius Holloway, association missionary, today urged all Baptists in the county to attend the meetings. "It does not matter how well planned the program, or how good the speakers, unless the people are present. It will be of no avail," Holloway said.

ment . . . He always looks good . . . Fred Garvin is a man with heaps of personality . . . And he sells Oldsmobiles, too . . . Ken Neeter says McLamb Flour Mill is turning out 300 barrels of that good Hot Bluet flour every week . . . Buddy Klein and his orchestra from State College will play for the Lillington Junior-Senior Friday night of this week . . . The orchestra for the Dunn Junior-Senior dance hasn't been picked yet . . . Incidentally, the Jaycees' beauty pageant dance tonight is free to the public . . . And you can dance with the pretty contestants, too . . . R. I. (Ford-Mercury) McLean says this is good fishing weather . . . He's getting his tackle in shape . . . Dunn grocery stores report that Holsum bread is selling big since that announcement in Monday's Daily Record . . . You can now buy those Mastercraft paint-by-the-numbers sets at Warren's Dunn Pharmacy . . . An important business announcement for Dunn will be made soon, barring further delay . . . Johnson's Restaurant now "pipes in" a church service every Sunday morning for the benefit of tourists . . . J. D. Barnes said a number of tourists expressed their appreciation last Sunday . . . Jerry Bryant is a stock car racing fan; he's planning to take in the races at Hillsboro Sunday.

Spence Will

Worth Lee Byrd, post advocate, the new adjutant named by the city commander, will be L. Stephenson, and other appointive posts will be announced later by Spence. . . The Lillington V. F. W. meets weekly each Tuesday night. Next week the post will elect officers and alternate to the annual meeting.

Brutus Moultrie Dies In Hospital

Brutus Moultrie, of 517 1/2 South Street, died in Veterans Hospital Durham, on Tuesday evening. A veteran of World War II, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie Lee Smith Moultrie; Mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett, Dunn, stepfather, Sam Barnett, Dunn; three sisters, Mrs. Maria Wright, Mrs. Julia Dixon and Miss Olivia Moultrie, all of Dunn; three brothers, Leroy Moultrie, Dunn, Donnie Moultrie, Norfolk, Va., and Thomas D. Moultrie, Lynchburg, Va.; three aunts and one uncle. . . Funeral services will be conducted from St. John's Baptist Church in Dunn on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. W. Jones, pastor of the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, Raleigh, will officiate, and burial will follow in the Wilkins Cemetery in Dunn.

News Shorts

ANDERSON, S. C. (AP) — A 24-year-old man, who said "I got blood on my hands" was scheduled to be charged here today with the double murder of his mother and father. Claude J. Sumpter Jr., was to be charged with the murder of his father, Claude J. Sumpter Sr., and his mother, Mrs. Lily Sumpter, 53, after he told county police officers "I must have killed them. I don't know why. I can't remember. I got blood on my hands, blood on my pants and blood under my fingernails."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two members of the Senate Armed Services Committee said today a new Pentagon order to rig the military services of security risks may "disturb" some loyal servicemen for life. Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) said they approved of the proposal but feared it would "disturb" some loyal servicemen. "It's a new order which they had no control over," Kefauver said.

LONDON (AP) — Chairman Miles Thomas of the British Overseas Airways Corp. said today a mysterious "death ceiling" apparently reached by Comet jetliners when climbing to full-power cruise six miles high may explain the fatal crash of the powerful aircraft.

CHICAGO (AP) — CIO President Walter Reuther charged last night that Eisenhower administration is following policies which led to the depression of the 1930s. . . A bill authorizing a study of the Dunn Hospital was introduced in the House today.

CORRECTION

The Specials For

LEE'S GROCERY

Should Be Friday and Saturday Only

D. R. LEE'S GROCERY

Phone 2185-2186 E. Broad St.

QUINN'S

Funeral Home

24-HOUR SERVICE

PHONE 2706

HERE HE IS

THE EASTER BUNNY

WAITING TO SERVE YOU

FROM

DAVIS FLOWER SHOP

So. Wilson Ave. Phone 3366 Dunn, N. C.