

Lillington Social Happenings

John Aaron Senter Heads Lillington PTA

John Aaron Senter was elected president of the Lillington Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday night at the school house.

Other new officers chosen at the same time were G. M. Norwood, Jr. vice-president, Miss Ella Turner Atkins, secretary and Mrs. Neill Kelly, treasurer.

Names of the new officers were recommended by a nominating committee composed of Mrs. T. D. O'Quinn, Mrs. F. W. Farrell, and D. B. Dean. Members voted unanimously to accept the committee report.

This will mark the second consecutive year the Lillington Parent-Teacher Association has had a man as president. W. K. Sexton is completing a very successful term in office. Others who have assisted him have been J. A. Senter, vice-president, Miss Belle Hockaday, secretary, and Mrs. F. M. Puryear, as treasurer.

All officers chosen for a one year term will be installed at the May meeting, but for the school term, and will serve for one year.

The program featured an attractive play, "An Italian Tragedy," presented by the freshman class pupils of Mrs. J. A. Walker. Attendance prize also went to Mrs. Walker's room on the high school and to Miss Mary Lanier's room in the elementary grades.

TO DISTRICT MEET

Mrs. J. J. Lanier, Mrs. Carl Kelly and Mrs. Kenneth McGraw attended the annual meeting of the Raleigh District of the Woman's Society of Christian Service which was held last Thursday at Edenton Street Methodist Church in Raleigh. Mrs. Lanier, retiring president of the Lillington society, reported for that group.

TO MUSICAL

Mrs. Slon Wilborn attended the matinee performance of "South Pacific" in Raleigh last Monday.

FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. J. A. Redfern returned on Saturday from Watts Hospital in Durham where she underwent an operation earlier. She is reported to be improving rapidly.

Woman's Club Elects Officers In Lillington

Two new officers have been elected to serve the Lillington Senior Woman's Club for the year 1954-55, but an election of a president has been delayed until the May meeting.

The new club secretary is Mrs. F. M. Puryear who will succeed to the duties formerly filled by Mrs. J. N. Fruey. Since the illness of Mrs. Fruey several months ago, Mrs. W. B. Hunter had been acting as secretary.

Mrs. Leon Kelly will succeed Mrs. Harry Schafraun as treasurer. Both officers were unanimously selected by club members at the meeting on April 2, following their recommendation by the nominating committee.

Mrs. Hunter, chairman, submitted the nominating committee report and others on the committee were Mrs. Leo Kelly and Mrs. Neill McLaughlin.

During the past year Mrs. J. Grady Johnson has served as president and presided at the election meeting. Program feature was talk by Miss Virginia Gregory of the N. C. Recreation Commission.

Miss Gregory, a native of Winchester, Va., and former recreational worker for the Red Cross and other agencies, brought a thoughtful and entertaining talk on the organization of a community recreation program.

"First thing to remember," she said, "is that the program will bring enduring satisfaction for persons of all ages. Plan it for the romper set, the hoister set five to six years old, the between agers, the teen agers, young adults, older adults and the aged, our superior citizens."

Leadership, paid and volunteer, is the heart and core of any recreational program and the most important phase of it," Miss Gregory said. "As for qualification for recreational leadership, she added I think they must be loving, limber, and a bit lunny."

By this, I mean, they should know how to deal with people, be skilled in games of all types, and full of fun."

In planning a community program, Miss Gregory suggested that it is important to cooperate with what's already there. In way of a center and its grounds. She suggested that there should be a policy for the use of a center, and a dignified well worth while program offered.

"Frankly, she said I think it is best to pay a director, either with funds supplied by the contributors from various civic groups, or the source. Let the director help trap volunteers and direct them."

Plans for setting up a recreation commission have been drawn by the N. C. Recreation Commission and bulletins are available she reported. On any legal commission she noted schools, churches, and the town council are always represented. This is usually supplemented by an advisory council which she suggested should include representatives from all clubs which contribute funds, plus a few good young people.

Miss Gregory warned not to make a recreation center the exclusive property of teen agers. It is better to have two good events a week rather than a highly week program and she suggested that teen agers of a club should help pay their proportionate share in small dues.

"But nothing is any good unless folks have fun," she said. If they do, they will come back. Many centers in this state have been in operation for over ten years."

Mrs. S. G. Wilborn and Mrs. J. A. Redfern were hostesses for the social hour when refreshments with an Easter motif were served. Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Shoaf were special guests.

No action was taken by club on staging a recreation program but plans are underway to suggest program for the summer months, making use of the community center.

TO CONCORD

Miss Veve Caviness was in Concord last week end to attend the wedding of her chasmite, Miss Alice Ketter and "Barb" Smith of Clover, S.C. which took place there Saturday at the First Methodist Church. Miss Caviness also attended the rehearsal dinner at the Concord Country Club and the wedding breakfast for the wedding party and out of town friends at the Barringer Hotel in Charlotte on Saturday morning. While in Concord, Miss Caviness was the guest of Miss Dottie Horton, another Duke classmate. The Lillington student returned to school Sunday following the spring holiday.
