FRANCE AGREES TO JOIN DEFENSE

These Little Things

G. AND FLORENCE WERENT DO FOND OF LIFE IN JAPAN couple of years ago, two pretty Hollywood starlets came to Dunn on the local promotion of the "Movies are better than..."

Both lived up to their reputations as movie stars while here. They're pretty, they're glamorous, and they know what it takes to get ahead. They were very cooperative with the photographers, Penny didn't hesitate when Bill Biggs asked for a hug, and she caressed Bruce Byrd and some of the other fellows very willingly—and, it seemed—a little avidly. It's just part of the business.

Aly's Valet Asserts He's Not A Playboy

HOLLYWOOD (U) - Aly Khan's valet says "it makes me boil" when his boss is called a playboy. Valet Emris Williams thinks the prince is a "marvelous" person and serious businessman.

Ward Is Presented Firemen's Trophy

James E. Ward, manager of the Mobil Service Center of Dunn, was presented a gold badge last night at Dunn's firemen's banquet for perfect attendance at all fires, drills, and other firemen activities. The presentation was made by Chief Ralph Hanna.

Velde Scores Easy Win In Illinois Race

CHICAGO (U) - Rep. Harold Velde, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, was nominated for a fourth term in Congress and political novice Joseph T. Meek won the GOP nomination for U. S. senator, returns from the first primary election of 1954 showed today.

Republican Velde easily stood off a challenge by one-armed state legislator Robert H. Allison, despite criticism of some churchmen in Velde's own district of the congressman's suggestion last year that the clergy be investigated for subversion.

MEEK ELIMINATES Meek, a lobbyist pledged to "keep our government to the right," outdistanced a bulky field of eight other candidates to win the right to oppose Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in next fall's general election.

Eight teen-age boys who allegedly set off dynamite in front of a Coats church during services Sunday night, blew up big holes in the Coats Cemetery and fired explosives in front of private homes were placed under arrest today by Harnett Rural Policeman C. E. Moore. Policeman Moore, who has been working on the case ever since the occurrence, said today the boys set off a total of 16 sticks of dynamite.

BULLETINS

BEAUFORT (U) - Senatorial candidate W. Kerr Scott urged anew last night the development of inland waterways of the state through dredging and establishment of small feeder ports. The former governor told the Rotary Club's annual get-together meeting that those steps are vital if the area and the state are to secure the full benefits of the state-owned deep sea terminals here and at Morehead City.

RALEIGH (U) - A sharp drop in North Carolina wheat production this year was forecast today in a report by the State Crop Reporting Service. The agency said reports from producers on April 1 indicate a crop of 5,652,000.
