Ray Weeks Feted At Wiener Roast On 11th Birthday

Mrs. Jessie Weeks entertained at a gay birthday party and wiener roast Tuesday afternoon in honor of her son Ray on his eleventh birthday. The children gathered at the Weeks home at 5:00 and enjoyed playing basketball and other outdoor games. They then walked down to the Dunn Park and roasted wieners which were served with potato chips, Cokes and Easter candies. Mrs. Louis West assisted Mrs. Weeks with the party. Around 27 boys and girls attended the birthday affair.

J. D. Wests Have Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Jonnie Dale West had around fifty or more guests at their new home at 696 East Pearsall Street on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. West and two children, Timmie D. and Libby, have been living in Hawaii for the past two years. Mr. West has served four years with the U. S. Navy and his rating is Yeoman 3rd Class. He expects his discharge in May and the family will reside in Dunn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon West and Mrs. West is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spell, all of Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon West have another son, Raymon (Spider) West, who is also serving in the Pacific with the Navy. The new home was decorated throughout with artistic arrangements of mixed spring flowers. Callers during the evening were served delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad and pimiento cheese sandwiches, potato chips, coffee and punch.

Baptist Cherub Choir Has Egg Hunt

Following choir practice Tuesday afternoon, members of the Cherub Choir of the First Baptist Church went to the Dunn Park for an Easter egg hunt. Mrs. Dennis Strickland and Mrs. Joe Gardner, choir mothers, were in charge of the social, and had hidden the candy eggs when the children arrived. Jean Manning found the most eggs. The children were served pop-sicles and enjoyed playing on the swings. Those attending were, Miss Evelyn Straughan, choir director, Harriet Thomas, Catherine Westbrook, Sylvia Ann Strickland, Lynn and Glynn Jerigan, Ella Neal Raynor, Donald Denny, Tommy Hawley, Paulette Drew, Joe Gardner, Gale Ausley, Alexis Parker, Emmett Aldredge Jr., Charles Aycock, Linda Ann Williams, Mary Ruth Williams, Mark Williams, Mary Ruth Williams, Glenn Coats, Billy Turner, Debbie Mixon, Becky Jo Hogard, Ann Henry, Linda Williams, Joyce Roberts, Alma Roberts, Jean Manning, Betty Lou Lee, Paul Mattox and Ralph Dudley.

LEAVING FOR WASHINGTON
Mrs. J. W. Thornton Sr., is leaving Friday for Washington, D. C., to preside over a Board of Management meeting of the Colonial Dames of the XVII Century. While there she will attend a banquet of the Order of First Families of Virginia, also a reception given by the National Society of Sons of the American Revolution, and she will be an honor guest of the opening session of Congress of Daughters of the American Revolution.

RALEIGH — A Statewide apprentice bricklaying contest will be held at the North Carolina State Fair here next fall. H. B. Foster of Greensboro was named chairman of a contest steering committee appointed by Labor Commissioner Forrest H. Shuford. Substantial prizes will be awarded and a cup will be given the employer of the winner, Foster said. Original winners were, first, Mike Lynch; second, John Allen Slocumb; third, Gimny Aycock. The flower show was a big success and 68 adults registered during the day.

Mrs. Johnson Is Hostess To Group

The Ladies Auxiliary of Long Branch Church met on Monday night at the home of Mrs. J. E. Johnson. Mrs. G. J. Jernigan, president, called the meeting to order and the group sang, "The Banner of the Cross."

Mrs. Lula Purchase led a prayer. Mrs. M. M. Tart read scripture and the group sang, "In The Cross of Christ." Mrs. Aleese Hobson gave a reading, "Glory In The Cross." Everyone joined in singing, "The Old Rugged Cross." Many requests for prayer were given and Mrs. J. E. Johnson led in a special prayer for the sick. Mrs. Clara Mae Hawley read "A New Beginning" and Mrs. Sadie Pope closed the program with prayer.

The hostess then served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Clara Mae Hawley, Mrs. Joyce Barnes, Mrs. J. D. Seary, Miss Jean Barnes, Mrs. Aleese Hobson, Mrs. Alvin Tart, Mrs. Lula Purchase, Mrs. S. J. Byrd, Mrs. E. F. Alphin, Mrs. J. K. Adcox, Sr., Mrs. M. S. Hudson, Mrs. R. S. Altman, Mrs. L. A. Jackson, Mrs. M. M. Tart, Mrs. J. C. Alphin, Mrs. Sadie Pope, Mrs. Charles Pope, Mrs. G. J. Jernigan, Mrs. Norman Dorman, Mrs. Leola Barefoot, Mrs. Joe Parrish, Mrs. Dexter Lee and Miss Patricia Johnson.

Fourth Grade Has Flower Show Tues.

As a climax to their study of spring flowers and visits to various gardens in town, the pupils of Miss Ezzell's fourth grade sponsored a delightful flower show on Tuesday from 10:00 a. m. until 3:00 p. m.

The children gathered many species of flowers and formed their own arrangements for the event. Each child had at least one entry and there were 70 very attractive and original arrangements in all. Green crepe paper covered the tables in the grammar school hall where the exhibit was held and four children served as hosts and hostesses in half hour shifts.

Judges for the show were, Mrs. James Davis, Mrs. Billy Wellons and Mrs. William Carroll. Winners in the large mixed division were, first, Kay Waggoner; second, Billy Hale; third, Joanne Allred. Those chosen for the miniature arrangements were first, Sue Wilson; second, Thomas Dupree; third, Jimmy Williams. Joanne Allred and Mike Lynch were first and second winners respectively in the all green division and

WHITE IS BEST SELLER THIS YEAR IN THE PARADE OF EASTER BONNETS

NEW YORK (AP) — Pink shades of bonnet shapes are the two surprise entries in the list of top favorites Easter bonnets. White is the number one seller for Easter hats, manufacturers say but for the first time pink, ranging from pale to deep rose, has climbed to the top three shades. Navy blue is listed second by most experts.

Until quite recently all talk was of small hats. Then something with a high crown and a down-turned brim started catching fancies all over the country.

Now there's a rush to say who thought of the hat first and whether the proper name is Safari Hat, Planter's Hat or World Traveller.

The hat has a noticeable resemblance to a jungle hunter's pith helmet and also to a tobacco planter's straw hat. Greta Garbo has been wearing something similar in role for several weeks. This Easter season television actress Arlene Francis, picked an all white helmet headgear which Emme, the designer, calls a Safari Hat.

PLANTER'S IS SENSATION
Hat manufacturers who turn out thousands of popular styles at medium prices say the Planter's hat, as they call it, is the sensation of the season.

Designer Mr. John says the whole thing is his idea, and it started several years ago when he brought back a planter's hat from North Africa. He's been designing variations every year since, he said. Mrs. Ernest Hemingway even took one of his adaptations with her when she and her husband went on their recent African safari.

Designer Emme says her Safari Hat, introduced for this spring, was the inspiration for all the low-priced copies. She makes hers in Milan straw with chiffon scarf trimmings. Mr. John makes his newest version in Madagascar straw with an iridescent feather band and calls it World Traveller. Lower-priced copies come in all kinds of straw with endless variations of ribbon and scarf bands.

Designers have talked wistfully for months about getting us to wear "more hat." But with the exception of the Planter's Hat and occasional successes like the "Peach Basket" hat featured by a Fifth Avenue Store, the Easter result is "less hat."

HAS MEASLES
Sarah Levon Hartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hartley, is confined to her home with the measles.
