The end of the gallant defense The end of the gallant defense against overwhelming odds was an-nounced officially here and in Paris where Premier Joseph Laniel gave the news to the French public. Only the isolated artillery post, "Position Isabelle," located three miles south of the main fort, still held out, the announcement here said. The end came after a savage 20-hour battle in which the Commun-ist Troops who had been surround-ing it nearly two months overran its central defenses.

Stevens Tells Of "Threats" Made By Cohn

PHU

WASHINGTON (P)- Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens said today he regarded Roy M. Cohn's "this-means-war" statement as a threat against the Army by Sen. Jo-seph McCarthy's investigating subcommittee.

Stevens said he felt also that he was "threatened" by Francis P. Carr, the subcommittee staff direc-tor, in an effort to get special fa-vors for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former McCarthy aide who was drafted last Nov. 3. Stevens said he regarded Cohn as a spokesman for the McCarthy group and his words as "part of a pattern."

RELATES THREATS The "threats," Stevens said, re-volved around the subcommittee's investigation of alleged esplonage at Fort Monmouth, N. J. "Did Mr. Cohn or Mr. Carr ever threaten you?" asked McCarthy. "Well, they talked about resum-ing the hearings (on Fort Mon-mouth) in an unusual way." Ste-vens replied. "When McCarthy insisted on a di-rect answer to his question, Stevens oonferred for a time with his coun-se! Joseph N. Welt. "It was my feeling they ware (continued on page six) RELATES THREATS

Long Scooter Trip Dunn Resident A 36-year-old Dutchman is now completing a 7,000-e trip from New York to Mexico City and back via the trip from New York to Mexico City and back via Mrs. L. J. Best, 306 S. Orange Ave-nue, suffered lacerations of the head and was taken to Dunn Hos-pital for treatment yesterday after-noon when the car she was driving collided with a 1950 Oldsmobile at the corner of W. Broad and Orange Avenue.

Avenue. Hospital authorities reported to-day that Mrs. Best is in good con-dition and may be released over the dition and may be retention weekend. The accident occurred when the 1938 Ford driven by Mrs. Best col-lided with an Oldsmobile driven by an unidentified resident of Coats, Route 1. Officer E. C. Johnson of the Dunn Police Department estimated dam-mile trip from New York to Mexico City and back via scooter, and the trip has convinced him that America is truly the land of opportunity, the place for him and his ly to live. Notice the scooter is loaded with his personal effects, tent and camping utensils. The whole trip will total about 20,000 miles. With him is a young friend he made in Dunn, Brent Adams, age 7, who seems to be enjoying the scooter im-mensely. (Dally Record Phote.)
