

Miss Bertie Lee Is Wed To Mr. Freeman In Church Ceremony

In an impressive ceremony at Calvary Baptist Church, Route 2, Dunn, on Saturday afternoon, May 15, at three o'clock Miss Bertie Lee and Mr. Roland Ervin were united in marriage. The vows were heard by the Reverend Worth Braswell of Raleigh before a background of greens, white gladioli, and candelabra with cathedral tapers. The nuptial music was presented by Miss Margaret Mitchell of Lillington. The bride and groom entered together and were unattended. The bride was becomingly attired in a princess style white tulle gown with a bandeau headpiece with off the face shoulder length veil. She carried a prayer book topped with

Rouse - Lewis Vows Spoken

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Watson Lewis of Spring Lake have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Shirley Faye Lewis, to Thurman Leslie Rouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Leslie Rouse of Winston. The marriage took place May 15 at the home of the Rev. I. K. Stafford, the officiating minister, in Buies Creek. The couple was unattended. For the ceremony, the bride wore a blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white sash with an arrangement of pink carnations. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rouse are now at home in Spring Lake.

Gradeparents Of Junior Class Give Intermission Party

Gradeparents of the Dunn High Junior class entertained members of the class and their dates Friday night during intermission of the annual Junior-Senior dance. The party was held at the home of gradeparents Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Byrd. Other hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Lanier. Guests entered the Byrd home through a friendship ring which encircled the front door. The ring was covered in blue and lighted with blue and white lights. Greeting the guests after they had come through the ring and made a wish, were Miss Renee Byrd, Miss Patricia Lanier, Bobby Dixon and Woody Hill.

The class colors of pale blue and white were carried out throughout the home which was thrown en suite for the occasion. In the dining room, candlelight illuminated the room. The table, covered with blue and white cutwork cloth, was centered with candelabra holding blue candles and surrounded with white carnations. In the living room and other parts of the home, roses and mixed flowers were used. The grademother and Mrs. D. C. Parker of Fayetteville assisted in serving the callers chicken salad and potato cheese sandwiches brownie, sand tarts, ice box cookies, salted nuts, and punch. Pale blue napkins were monogrammed with Junior Class '53-'54. Approximately one hundred guests attended the party.

Mrs. Billy Pope Fefes Card Club At Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Billy Pope entertained members and guests of the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club at dessert bridge Friday. Covers were laid for dessert when the players arrived. Each of the auxiliary tables was centered with a bouquet of small white roses. Red roses were also used in decoration. The sweet course consisted of lime and orange sherbet, decorated cakes, and toasted pecans. For compiling high score among the club members, Mrs. Lewis Godwin received an attractive hostess apron and for being second high, Mrs. Emmette Aldredge was awarded a set of china ash trays. The guest high prize, also a set of ash trays, went to Mrs. Ed Wade. During the latter part of the afternoon the hostess passed cheese crackers and Coca Colas. Guests attending were Mrs. Graham Prince, Mrs. Ed Wade, and Mrs. Wayne Justesen and members playing included Mrs. Lewis Godwin, Mrs. Johnnie Ciccone, Mrs. Emmette Aldredge, Mrs. Herman Green and Mrs. Mac Watson.

MRS. SUE ALLEN CELEBRATES HER 96th BIRTHDAY HERE ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Sue Allen, Dunn's oldest resident—but one of the youngest of the happiest she has ever spent at heart and in spirit—celebrated and she declared, "Everybody has her 96th birthday here Friday. And friends and relatives said she looked younger and livelier than she had in several years. Mrs. Allen also said she felt better. She was ill on her 95th birthday and had to spend it in bed. There was no birthday party or celebration, but a steady stream of friends came in all day to bring her presents and to extend their best wishes. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Allen confessed, she had forgotten it was her birthday until the first visitor arrived and reminded her. The birthday ended up as one of the happiest she has ever spent and she declared, "Everybody has been just wonderful." A highlight of the day was a visit from Mrs. Jeff Denny, Dunn's "Welcome Wagon Lady," who came bearing gifts from Dunn business firms. She was as happy as a girl on her 16th birthday. Most of those who called on her were friends she had known since they were babies. Mrs. Allen says she's prouder of her family and friends than anything else. She would just beam as she greeted each of them. But she protested a little when a newspaperman called for an interview and picture. "Aw," she said, "I don't want any fuss made over me." Mrs. Allen is a native of Granville County, Va., near old Williamsburg. She's the former Sue Margaret Wiggins, daughter of John Wortham Wiggins and Katherine Bennett Wiggins of Mecklenburg County, Va. Her husband was Howard Allen of Warrenton. Mrs. Allen has resided in Dunn since 1901. She now makes her home with two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Russell and Mrs. Robert L. Warren. Mrs. Warren is manager of the Dunn High School Cafeteria. Her other children are Hugh L. Allen of Cambridge, Md., Mr. W.G. Allen of Emporia, Va., E. H. Allen of Hendersonville, and Miss Kathryn Allen of Kinston. She also has 15 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and eight great great grandchildren.

BYRDS HAVE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Byrd had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Glass of Smithfield. Visiting the Byrds Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Parker of Fayetteville.

SPEND WEEK END HERE

Miss Faye Godwin and Miss Betty Lee, both students at Atlantic Christian College, visited in Dunn over the week end.

HOCKADAY-MANGUM

Mr. and Mrs. John Dee Mangum of Angier have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Willie Ruth Mangum to James Frederick Hockaday Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hockaday, also of Angier. Miss Mangum is a student at Woman's College in Greensboro, majoring in business administration, and Mr. Hockaday is a student at State College in Raleigh, majoring in agriculture. Both expect to graduate in June. The couple will live in Angier after their wedding June 27 in the Angier Baptist Church.
