Faculty Honored At Supper Party By Codrington's

One of the highlights of the closing commencement exercises of the Harnett County Training School was a party given by Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Codrington at their home honoring the principal of the school F. H. Ledbetter and his wife and members of the faculty.

Arrangements of pretty summer flowers were attractively used throughout the home for the occasion. During the evening several games were played with prizes going to the winners.

The prize winners were Mrs. Francis James, Mr. Boone, Mr. Nathaniel Tucker, Mrs. Samuel Rhode, Mrs. J. M. McEady, Miss Ruby Holland and Miss Neddie Foreman.

The menu for the supper party consisted of pork barbecue, barbecued chicken, stew, olives, potato chips, hush puppies, soft drinks, coffee, peanuts, and mints.

Piano selections were rendered throughout the evening by Mrs. Alice Morgan. Around sixty persons attended.

British Submarine Feared Lost, Found

LONDON (AP) — The British submarine Scorchers, which was feared lost in the English Channel, surfaced today as rescue efforts were being organized.

The submarine, which carries a normal complement of 44 men, 100t contact while on routine training maneuvers off Portland Bill, a lighthouse on the south English coast.

The Royal Navy, fearing the vessel and its men were trapped beneath the sea, ordered immediate emergency rescue efforts. Navy divers had been rushed to the scene in the choppy waters near Weymouth harbor.

Twenty minutes after the vast emergency rescue machinery of the Navy had been sent into motion, the Scorchers pushed its nose above the surface.

It was learned the Scorchers had messaged before losing contact

Dunn Hi Finals Open Tomorrow

Graduating seniors of Dunn High School will begin their final ceremonies tomorrow during chapel when they present their class exercises. The program will begin at 10:10 a.m.

Daley Goff, president of the senior class, will head the exercises. Principal A. B. Johnson said that around 70 students are scheduled to graduate this year.

Seniors will hear Dr. James Sprunt, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Raleigh give the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening, May 23 at 8 o'clock.

Final grades of seniors were being averaged this week for selection of the top honor students.

American Girl Will Shed Her Royal Husband

NEW YORK (AP) — The Marchioness of Milford Haven, an American girl who married into the British Royal family, files to Mexico today for a "quickie" divorce from her playboy husband, the marquess, on grounds of mental cruelty.

The attractive 30-year-old marchioness leaves by American Airlines plane for El Paso, Tex., where she will board another plane for Chihuahua, Mex., site of the divorce proceedings. Her husband, David Michael Mountbatten, has agreed to a divorce settlement and will not contest the suit.

The marchioness was Mrs. Rosaline Dahlen Pierce Simpson when she married the 34-year-old cousin of Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh in 1950. Although the marquess was a favorite of the royal couple, the Queen never received the marchioness at court because of tradition frowning on divorce.

Nicky Hilton Gets Off On Probation

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Playboy hotel heir Nicky Hilton began two years probation today after pleading guilty in municipal court to a common drunk charge, for which he was also fined $25.

Judge Charles J. Griffin in placing Hilton on probation yesterday pointed out the wealthy defendant could be sentenced to a year in jail if he appears in court on a similar charge within the two-year period.

The 26-year-old former husband of film star Elizabeth Taylor paid the fine by forfeiting $25, bail he posted last Thursday after he spent five hours in jail.

Benson Couple Married In S. C.
