ANGIER SCHOOL PICTURES SHOWN IN ASSEMBLY

Mr. R. G. Banks, principal of Angier High School showed pictures in color of various phases of work in the Angier school during the scholastic year 1953-54 at the regular assembly Monday morning.

The pictures were made for the Kellogg Project, which was under the supervision of Dr. Arnold A. Perry of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The making of the pictures was under the direction of Miss Frances Abbott and Miss Louise Pender.

ANGIER STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS INSTALLED

Mr. R. G. Banks, principal of Angier High School, installed the officers of the Student Council for the scholastic year 1954-1955 in an assembly program Tuesday morning. Mr. Banks explained the duties and privileges of the office-holders, and congratulated them for the honor which has been bestowed on them.

The officers installed included: Johnny Johnson, president; Jean Johnson, vice-president; Marjorie Dorman, treasurer; and Minetta Hart, secretary.

After the installation, Mr. John L. Strickland, of Dunn talked about the Morehead Scholarship which is offered each year by the Morehead Foundation of the University

ANGIER PTA PRIZE MONEY TO FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Mary Wime Sutton's first grade of Angier School has been awarded $25.00 for having the highest percentage of parents present at PTA meetings for the scholastic year 1953-1954. The students decided to use the $25.00 to take a train ride and a trip to Raleigh.

On Thursday, March 13, the entire class went by automobile from Angier to Apex to take a train ride on a Seaboard train. Mrs. Lee Wayne Tudor, Mrs. Layton Dupree, Mrs. Dorsey C. Mangum, and Mrs. Julian Mabry took the children to Apex by automobile, and later picked them up at the Seaboard Station in Raleigh. Only three of the children had ever been on a train before. Each child bought his own ticket. A special train was furnished, and the trip was an event which will be long remembered by those who went.

After the train ride the class went to Pullen Park where they had lunch at the community center. While at the park everyone had a ride on the Merry-Go-Round.

The following students went on the trip: May Adams, Jerry Byrd, Johnny Dupree, Tommy Gardner, Wayne Gregory, Gerl Mangum, Michael Pleasant, Larry Talton, Caulton Tu-

Give Piano In Mothers Memory

Church services are slated to be held in the new Trinity Missionary Baptist Church at Meadow within the next few weeks. A new piano given in memory of Mrs. Randal D. Overby will be used for the first time at this service.

It all began about two years ago when Mr. O. H. Barefoot went to see Joe R. Overby of Smithfield for a donation on the new Trinity Church. Mr. Overby told him that he had always had a warm spot in his heart for Trinity Church because it was his Mother's old neighborhood. "You may put me down for the piano in honor of my Mother," said Mr. Overby, "but I would like to get the approval of my two brothers and add their names in the gift."

About two weeks ago the piano, a beautiful Lester Model, was placed in the new church.

Mrs. Overby was the former Minnie Lillian Smith, daughter of Joel G. & J. Martha Britt Smith of Meadow township. Mrs. Overby's Mother died when Mrs. Overby was only nine years old and she cared for her father, sister, and brothers. She had two brothers Jim and Crosby Smith and one sister Moody Smith. She was married to Randal D. Overby of Angier in 1905. Mrs. Overby was a great church worker. She was a Sunday School teacher for many years until her death in 1936 at the age of 54. The Overbys were residing in Smithfield at the time of Mrs. Overby's death.

Mrs. Overby attended Trinity Church as long as she lived in the community. Old-timers in the community say that she was most active in all phases of church work there.

Her three sons, Mack D. Overby of Benson, Joseph R. Overby, and W. Craig Overby of Smithfield gave the piano in honor of their beloved Mother.

Each Sunday Morning as the music sounds forth it will serve as a lasting tribute to one who served faithfully.

a son, Eugene Kelly O'Quinn, Jr. on May 18 at Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro. Mrs. O'Quinn is the former Miss Virginia Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bishop of Lillington.

Miss Dees Feted At Bridal Party

Miss Gladys Dees, member of the Lillington school faculty, whose marriage to Coyte Lanier of Bule's Creek will take place on June 19 in Pikeville was honored at a co-cocoon party given on Monday night at the Lillington teachersage by Mrs. Betty T. Hill and Miss Margaret Ray.

Roses decorated the reception rooms and dining room where refreshments were served buffet style from a long table. Open faced cheese sandwiches, mixed nuts, and bridal mints were served with coconuts.

The bride-elect was presented a corsage of white roses and a gift of silver from the two hostesses. Around 25 guests, largely members of the school faculty, attended.

TO CHAPEL HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kelly went to Chapel Hill on Sunday to return to the University of North Carolina their son, Lee, Jr. and remained to attend the Carolina Playmakers production of "Dark of the Moon," a recent Broadway theatrical hit written by Howard Richardson, a North Carolinian, and a former member of the Playmakers.

SCOTT URGES NEW TAXES, BUT We've Had Enough of This

SCOTT PROPOSALS FOR NEW TAXES TO 1949 LEGISLATURE

1. A one-cent tax on bottle and fountain soft drinks, which would raise an estimated $4,000,000 a year.
2. A ten per cent tax on all amusements, which would net an estimated $1,700,000 a year.
3. The present personal income tax rates range from three per cent to a maximum of seven per cent. A change to a range of from four to eight per cent would produce an estimated $5,000,000 a year.
4. A tax of from one to three cents on cigars, pending on price, which would raise an estimated $1,200,000 a year.
5. A one-cent tax on cigarettes which would produce an estimated $3,000,000 a year.
6. An increase in the tax on liquor from 8.5 to 15 per cent which would raise an estimated $2,500,000 a year.

"There may be other and better methods," he observed, "that you will develop in your deliberations."

Other Methods.

The other methods, he pointed out, could involve "disallowing present exemption on stocks of certain corporations, a gross receipts tax on hotels, a stock transfer, a motor vehicles title transfer tax, an excise tax on banks, an unincorporated business franchise tax, an insurance premium tax and collection of taxes by payroll deductions."

Scott Advocated TAX ON LAND!

From a letter dated Aug. 26, 1949, written to Governor Scott by the late Kerr Craige Ramsay of Salisbury, Speaker of the 1949 House of Representatives when Scott urged drastic new taxes:

"On the night of February 9, 1949 at the executive mansion, almost everybody present was astounded to learn of your proposed address to the legislature on the following evening. In that address you recommended spending an additional 23 1/2 million dollars per year for general fund purposes, and you made no positive recommendations about how to raise the money except to levy a tax on land under the so-called Foundation Plan. I could not support you in this reversal of policy and told you so, as you very well know."

This Scott proposal would have put a 15 per cent ad valorem tax on not only land, but on stocks of merchandise and personal property of every description.
