

BULLETINS

HANOI, Indochina (U) — French air and ground forces today destroyed two large Communist troop and supply bases so near Hanoi that smoke rising from the rubble could be seen from the city. Warplanes furnished by the WEST POINT, N. Y. (U) — Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens may make references today to his dispute with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) when he addresses 634 cadets at commissioning ceremonies here. More than 700 alumni returned to the Military Academy for the colorful ceremonies. Highlights for the returning officers included a corps parade, lunch and memorial services.

WASHINGTON (U) — President Eisenhower's chief economic aide had two favorable business reports to bolster his defense today of the administration's anti-recession policies. The government reported Monday that unemployment dropped 160,000 and employment climbed 521,000 last month. The latest survey also showed that plant and equipment expenditures will continue at a high rate in the third quarter of this year.

WASHINGTON (U) — Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass) said today he plans to investigate the "disturbing" failure of the Navy to commission three Naval Academy graduates pending security checks. As chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Saltonstall is the most important congressional figure so far to raise his voice in protest against the Navy's last-minute denial of commissions to the three midshipmen.

NEW YORK (U) — American chess experts puzzled today over the mystery of the missing Russian chess master. The president of the United States Chess Federation learned that Mikhail Botvinnik, considered for many years to be the world's leading chess player, was not among the Russians scheduled to arrive here Thursday for a tournament next week.

NEW DELHI, India (U) — Sir Edmund Hillary, conqueror of Mt. Everest, sent word today that he is in "excellent health" on the monsoon-lashed slopes of another Himalayan mountain. A brief message from the 34-year-old New Zealand beekeeper ended two weeks of uncertainty since he was reported suffering from pneumonia on 27,790-foot Mt. Makalu.

BERLIN (U) — West German police reported today that 18 young converts from Communism fled from a Red youth rally to sanctuary in the West. They were among 12,000 who crosses the city's Iron Curtain into West Berlin Monday while the Red youth rally was being held in the eastern sector of the city.

NEW YORK (U) — The "Voice Of Firestone" musical program will be aired simultaneously on radio and television via the networks of the American Broadcasting Co. beginning June 14, it was announced Monday night. The program, departing facilities of the National Broadcasting Co. after a 25-year association, will not miss a broadcast. The time on ABC will be the same as always, 8:30 p. m. EDT Mondays.

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. (U) — Douglas Aircraft set the stage today for flight testing its new A4D1 "Mighty Midget" Skyhawk, the smallest and lightest jet combat plane ever built. The Navy unveiled the swept-winged plane yesterday, saying it was capable of carrying an atomic bomb in spite of the fact it is less than half the size of most current operational jet fighters.

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (U) — Sen. Lester C. Hunt announced to shocked Wyoming Democrats, none of whom had thought to oppose him in the primary this summer, that he is so worried about his health he may not stand again for the Senate. Only six weeks ago, Hunt had said he would seek a second term. No other Democrat chose to challenge his nomination.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (U) — Maury Maverick, Sr., colorful former congressman who coined the phrase "Gobblerdygook," died yesterday of a heart ailment. He was 57. Maverick was a member of the pioneer Texas family which put the word "maverick" for an unbranded calf, in the American language.

ELKO, Nev. (U) — John Alfred Hopkins, a limping escaped convict and one of the FBI's "10 most wanted" criminals, was captured last night in a mining area near Elko. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who announced the capture in Washington, said Hopkins had three knives on him when arrested.

ROXBORO (U) — George Atkins, 33, Negro tenant farmer, was held here today on a murder charge in connection with the fatal shooting of his sister's husband. The father of six children was held without bond pending a hearing into the shotgun slaying yesterday of Woodard Parker, 42, also a tenant farmer.

United States wiped out a Red base only seven miles from this imperiled city by dropping 50 tons of bombs, the French high command announced in disclosing for the first time how near the Reds had advanced.

WASHINGTON (U) — The House unanimously passed yesterday a bill to boost by 25 per cent the penalty tax for marketing tobacco grown in excess of government planting allotments. It would set the penalty at 50 per cent of the previous season's average marketing price instead of the present 40 per cent. The bill, previously passed by the Senate, now goes back to the Senate for action on a minor House amendment.

WASHINGTON (U) — Ray Jenkins, special counsel for the Army-McCarthy hearings, refuses to say if he will be a candidate for the Senate from Tennessee. At the moment, he told newsmen, "my inclinations are against seeking political office." But he said he would not "definitely close the door, lock it and throw away the key."

COLUMBIA, S. C. (U) — South Carolina Democrats today chose a new standard bearer to succeed Gov. James F. Byrnes next January and carry on the state's fight to continue segregated public schools. Voters had a choice of only two candidates for governor in the Democratic primary which is equal to election in this state. Columbia insurance executive Lester L. Bates was opposed by George Bell Timmerman, Jr., Batesburg attorney who is completing his eighth year as lieutenant governor.
