The Rev. Charles Worth Braswell, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the Hood's Grove Baptist Church near Benson.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Sherrill Williams of Newton Grove, vocalist. He was accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Spain of Goldsboro.

Miss Elizabeth Lewis of Portsmouth Va., was the bride's only attendant. She wore a toast brown silk shantung suit with navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, whose a china blue silk shantung suit. Her accessories were navy, and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Donald Jones was his brother's best man, and the ushers were John Lee and Clark Lee, brothers of the bride.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore navy suits with navy accessories and corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony, the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Newton Grove.

Church Officials Met In Benson

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Medlin entertained members of the official board of the Benson Methodist church and the Elevation church on Sunday evening at their suburban home.

Howard Denning presided and the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Ivey T. Poole. During the business meeting the major discussion revolved around the repairs and painting now in progress on the church property. At the close of the meeting it was decided to hold the June 25th meeting at the Elevation church following the Sunday evening worship service.

Mr. and Mrs. Medlin served sandwiches, cookies and coffee to the large number of church officials attending.
