

Debbie Warren Is Guest Of Honor At Birthday Party

Miss Debbie Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Warren, was the guest of honor at a birthday party Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at Tyler Park. Debbie was four years old.

On the refreshment table was a lovely basket of mixed summer flowers sent by Debbie's grandmother, Mrs. Gardner. The children were served ice cream and cake in colorful party plates and were given favors of balloons and suckers.

During the afternoon the children enjoyed playing on the swings and a special treat was a ride on the miniature train for each child.

Mrs. Frank Steele of Lillington, Mrs. Luby Warren, and Mrs. Ralph Johnson assisted Mrs. Warren with the party.

Miss Katy Tyler, who is soon leaving to make her home in Richmond, was remembered by Debbie with a going-away gift.

Invited guests included Marty Exum, Nancy Galbreath, Dollie Peay, John Wellons, Becky Jernigan, Mick Mixon, Kathy Matthews, Chuck Thomas, Katy Tyler, Wayland Jones, Susan Campbell, Rebecca Jernigan, Bubba Doffermyre, John Johnson, Bubba Johnson, Susan Campbell, Sally Smith, Jack Byrd, Robie Butler, Mike Hertzig, Kay Corbin, Jimmy Lawrence, Ann West, Betty West, Phoebe Johnson, Camilla Snipes, David Moff, Bob Suttles, Karen Tart, Cornelia Ann Monroe, Betty Jo Welborn, Vivian Tart, Rosalyn Godwin, Phyllis and Linda Warren, Charles Whittenton, Cherry Johnson, Vicki Hyman, Gloria Phipps, Virginia Godwin, Mark Johnson, Phyllis Hood, and Martha Thornton.

PUBLIC INVITATION

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Strickland request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Jeanette to Hal Lloyd Byrd on Sunday evening the twentieth of June, at seven o'clock, Second Baptist Church, Dunn, North Carolina.

IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrelson and son, Ronnie left Sunday for a weeks vacation in New York.

with white accessories and a corsage of pink orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception at the Dunn Woman's Club.

For her wedding trip to unannounced points, Mrs. Waggoner chose an indigo blue silk shantung dress. The neckline was embroidered with white lace medallions and seed pearls and she wore a matching duster with the dress. Her accessories were white and she wore the orchids from her bouquet.

The couple were both graduated from Dunn High School. Mrs. Waggoner attended Queen's College in Charlotte and is a 1954 graduate of Duke University in Durham. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Mr. Waggoner attended Wake Forest College where he was a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is now serving in the United States Coast Guard.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES THOMAS JOHNSON

Johnson - Hudson Wedding Solemnized

In an impressive ceremony on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the parsonage of the First Baptist church, Miss Susan Kay Hudson, daughter of Mrs. Herbert P. Hodges of Dunn and Mr. William L. Hudson of Biscoe, became the bride of Charles Thomas Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses M. Johnson of Dunn.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Lynnwood Sills, pianist, and Miss Rita McLean, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. The couple entered together and the Rev. Ernest P. Russell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

For her marriage, the bride chose a white organdy dress fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Immediately following the wedding the couple left for a trip to the western part of the state. Mr. & Mrs. Johnson will be at home at 901 West Broad Street in Dunn.

CHILDRESS-KELLY

Mr. and Mrs. Otis A. Kelly of Stanford have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Joan Vivian Kelly to Boyd O'Brant Childress, son of Mrs. G. C. Childress of Olivia and the late Mr. Childress. The wedding took place June 6 in Shallow Well Christian Church, Sanford.

HAVE CHICKEN POX

Linda and David Williams, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, are confined to their home with chicken pox.

Bridge Club Met Friday Night

Mrs. J. B. Rouse Jr. was hostess Friday night to members and guests of the Novus bridge club. Gardenias and a lovely arrangement of salmon gladioli and yellow mums decorated the den of the Rouse home.

Between progressions the hostess served ham and chicken salad sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, spiced crabapples, sandtarts and iced drinks.

At the end of the evening when scores were tallied, Mrs. Gerald Mann was presented a waste basket for high score among the club members. Novel sets of ash trays were given to Mrs. Eugene Huggins for guest high and Mrs. R. A. Duncan Jr. for being the winner in a game of bingo.

Members playing were Mrs. Gerald Mann, Mrs. R. A. Duncan Jr., Mrs. Hoover Adams, and Mrs. Paul Hester. Guests for the evening of bridge were Mrs. John Ciccone, Mrs. Marvin Godwin, Mrs. Eugene Huggins, and Mrs. Lloyd Strickland.

RETURNS HOME

Miss Anna Merle Daniel has returned to her home here to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Daniel. She has been employed in Charlotte for the past year. The Daniels had as their weekend guest, Jesse Bridges of Spartanburg, S. C.

WOMAN'S CLUB

On Monday evening the Woman's Club of Erwin enjoyed a very interesting exhibition at the De. lovely Beauty Shop in Dunn.

About twenty-one members were present for the demonstration of the Merle Norman line of cosmetics. Mrs. Tye Stewart and Mrs. J. M. Williams were chosen as two different types on which Mrs. Hilda Webb gave her illustrations.

Mrs. Virginia Evans of Leder Bros. and Mrs. Lina Nussbaum of Robin's Specialty Shop attended the fall merchandise show in Charlotte last week.

THIS OLD DOG MUST GO!

'41 DODGE GOOD RUNNING CONDITION $200 W & S MOTOR COMPANY Your DeSoto-Plymouth Dealer USED CAR LOT ON BENSON HIGHWAY

Luncheon At Johnson's Honors June Bride-Elect

Beautiful summer flowers created a lovely setting for the luncheon given at Johnson's Restaurant Saturday at one o'clock for bride-elect of the month, Miss Jacquelyn Johnson. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. J. R. Young, Mrs. Lloyd Coats, Jr., and Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr.

Miss Johnson received a corsage of small green orchids and a tea bell in her silver from the hostesses.

The luncheon table was handsomely appointed with white cloth and a centerpiece of early summer flowers in pastel shades. On each end of the table were similar smaller arrangements.

After a cocktail of melon balls with lime sherbet was served, the guests enjoyed broiled breast of chicken, French beans, congealed fruit salad, glazed apples, hot rolls, iced tea, and ribbon cake.

Those attending the affair were Miss Jacquelyn Johnson, Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Sr., Mrs. M. D. Bissette, Sr. of Wilson, Mrs. Ed Neilsen of Wilson, Mrs. Everette Doffermyre, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., Mrs. Myres Tilghman, Mrs. James Snipes, Miss Ruby Peede of Lillington, Mrs. Bruce Byrd, Miss Betty Cathey, Mrs. Mary Libby Fowler, Mrs. Reta Whittenton, Mrs. Glen Hooper, Jr., Miss Bruce Dickey, Miss Martha Ann Neighbors, Mrs. Henry Hutaff, and the three hostesses.

At Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barfield and son Cary, Mrs. Bill Grove and son Billy of Springfield, Missouri and Mrs. Mae Day of San Diego, California, spent the week end at Carolina Beach.

AT BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bales, Anne Aldredge and Ginny Aycock left Saturday for Morehead City and Atlantic Beach where they will spend several days.

MRS. J. I. PIPKIN, the former Miss Letha Mae Bryant, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bryant of Dunn, who announce her marriage to Mr. Pipkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pipkin of Erwin. The wedding took place on June 8 in Dillon, S. C. Accompanying the couple to South Carolina were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pollard of Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stephenson and family spent some time last week at Myrtle Beach.

Start Your Savings At COMMERCIAL BANK Dunn, N. C.

Waggoner-Johnson Vows Spoken Sunday At Four wedding of Miss Shirley Johnson of Dunn to Mr. James Mayo Waggoner, also of Dunn, took place Sunday afternoon, June 13, at four o'clock in the Divine Street Methodist Church here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wallace Johnson of Dunn and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ingle Waggoner, also of Dunn.

The Rev. J. W. Lineberger officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. Reta Whittenton, organist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Mrs. Whittenton's numbers included "Panis Angelicus" by Franck, "Evening Star" from Tannhauser by Wagner, "Evening Prayer" by Humperdinck, "Heavenly Rida" by Verdi, "Kamenei Ostrow" by Rubenstein, and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod.

The church was decorated with an open Bible on the pulpit with a white and gold marker in it. Backing this were candelabra in the shape of an inverted V. On the altar table was a large arrangement of Regal lilies. Brass vases on each side of the organ also contained Regal lilies. Single candles were on each side of the prelude.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white silk taffeta with an empire waistline. The scalloped neckline and the sleeves were outlined and embroidered with seed pearls. Her veil of illusion was attached to a cap of white silk taffeta with seed pearl design. She carried a cascade of white phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Charles H. Smith of Arlington, Virginia was matron-of-honor. She wore a waltz-length dress of pink silk shantung with scalloped neckline and sleeves outlined and embroidered in crystal beads. She wore matching cap and mitts and carried a bouquet of green phalaenopsis orchids.

Tom Waggoner of Dunn was his brother's best man. Ushers were Edward Stevens of Only, Virginia, John Oates of Fayetteville, Mack Bissette of Wilson, Thad Pope, Bill Barefoot, and Bill Thompson, all of Dunn.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue silk shantung dress with white cowl collar and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink orchids. The groom's mother was attired in a mint green silk shantung dress

SEARS why sleep? in an oven? cool...your rooms with Homart home cooler $49.95 $5.00 Down - 5.00 Monthly Automatic Timer $54.50

"We're miles away now but it will cost only a few pennies to call the folks LONG DISTANCE and let them know we're OK!" JUST MARRIED CAROLINA TELEPHONE and TELEGRAPH COMPANY

GOING GREAT AT JOHNSON'S CHICKEN IN THE ROUGH Packed Individually HOT FOR HOURS Picnics, Parties, Unexpected Company Football Games, Trips, Late Snacks. "THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS CHICKEN DISH" Just The Thing When Late Company Drops In. A WHOLE HALF CHICKEN $1.25 In The Box - $1.35 Served In The Restaurant - Special Discounts For Churches And Other Groups JOHNSON'S RESTAURANT