

Two Brides-elect Honored Saturday

Complimenting Miss Betsy Campbell of Bules Creek, and Miss Evelyn Straghan, brides-elect of the early summer, Mrs. H. Paul Strickland, Miss Margaret Strickland and Miss Mary Louise Strickland entertained at an informal Come and Sit Tea on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Strickland which was tastefully decorated for the occasion with arrangements of white lilies and magnolias.

Following the arrival of the guests who were greeted by the hostesses, the honorees were presented with corsages of tuberoses. The guests were then invited into the dining room where Mrs. Leslie H. Campbell served punch. The hostesses, assisted by Miss Fannie Belle Smith, served assorted party sandwiches, cheese biscuits, cookies, nuts and mints.

The table was overlaid with a lace out-work cloth. The central decoration was a crystal bowl of white carnations, daisies and baby's breath flanked with crystal candelabra holding white tapers.

Miss Campbell's gifts from the hostesses were a beautifully framed handpainted wedding invitation, crystal, and an oil painted floral print. Miss Straghan was remembered with gifts of silver from each of the hostesses.

Included among the guests were Miss Campbell and Miss Straghan, the honor guests, Mrs. Leslie H. Campbell, Miss Catherine Campbell, Mrs. A. E. Lynch, Mrs. Carl Lloyd and Mrs. S. ### MRS. PRESTON BENTON JOHNSON Johnson-McLamb Vows Solemnized

A candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Benson Friday night united in marriage Miss June Dale McLamb and Preston Benton Johnson. The Rev. H. Otis Lanning officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland McLamb, and Mr. Johnson is the son of Judge and Mrs. J. Ed Johnson, all of Benson.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. R. Leslie Smith, organist, and Miss Mary Alice Ryals, soloist. Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Doris Jean McLamb. She wore a gown of orchid net, fashioned with a bouffant skirt with a front triangular overskirt of orchid Chantilly lace. Her bouquet was of miniature yellow blooms and a purple orchid tied with yellow satin ribbons.

The bridesmaids Miss Linda Johnson, Miss Jackie Blackman, Miss Betty Lou Bell, all of Benson and Miss Sarah Andrews of Jacksonville, Florida wore dresses of maize nylon net styled like that of the maid of honor. Their bouquets were similar and were tied with reverse shades of maize and orchid ribbons. All of the attendants wore up-standing half-bonnets of net and ribbon matching their dresses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of pale ivory Alencon lace over tulle and satin of the same shade ivory. The bodice featured a portrait neckline with a wide border of seed pearls sewn into the scalloped lace design. An accordion-pleated panel of tulle formed the front of the skirt, and the scalloped full-skirt of Alencon lace extended into a chapel train. A Juliet cap of Alencon lace adorned with seed pearls held the two-tier veil of French illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis and French maline centered with a single white orchid.

Pulley Is Leaving East Erwin Church

The Rev. O. W. Pulley, pastor of the East Erwin Baptist Church at Hiddenite Church for the past nine years, has resigned to take.

His resignation was announced today by W. C. Stone, chairman of the board of deacons, who said members of the church were unanimous in expressing regret at his leaving.

A successor has not yet been called. Mr. Pulley will begin his new pastorate on the first Sunday in July.

He is a native of Wake County, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Pulley of Youngsville, Route 1. He graduated from Campbell College and it was while at Campbell that he began serving the East Erwin Church.

CHURCH MAKES PROGRESS
Following his graduation from Campbell, he became fulltime pastor of the church, which has shown much growth and progress under his leadership.

When he took over the pastorate, the Sunday School had only about 50 members. Today it has more than 180. The church membership has grown accordingly.

The church has also been enlarged. A new baptismal pool was added and 11 new Sunday School rooms were built. Every phase of the church's program of activity has been expanded.

On Friday night, the church held a farewell picnic supper in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Pulley. At the conclusion, Mr. Stone presented them gifts on behalf of the church and William Davis presented them a gift on behalf of the Young Married Couples' Class.

On behalf of the church membership, Mr. Stone expressed regret at the pastor's departure but wished him Godspeed in his new pastorate.

The Rev. Mr. Pulley likewise expressed his personal regret at leaving, but said he felt the new church offered him greater opportunity to serve.

Mr. Pulley married the former Miss Retha Holden, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Holden of Commerce, Ga. They have two children, Barbara, 17, and Barry, age 6.
