

BULLETINS

(Continued From Page One)

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 35-year-old former cafe operator wanted for the robbery-murder of an Iowa farmer was added to the FBI's list of ten most wanted fugitives today. David Daniel Keegan, also known as Burt Williams, is wanted on federal charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder and transportation of stolen property and on an Iowa state charge of murder.

WINSTON-SALEM (AP) — The State Board of Veterinary Medicine Examiners met here today as a prelude to the two-day 53rd annual meeting of the North Carolina Veterinary Medicine Assn. Most of the association's meeting will be devoted to clinical discussions in various fields. The meeting will open tomorrow morning and will continue through Wednesday.

MOSCOW (AP) — A flashy jet fighter believed to be a MIG 17, successor to the MIG 15, and a unique wing-flapping glider featured a parade of 660 planes yesterday in the biggest air show in Soviet history. Some 250,000 cheering Russians and members of the Western diplomatic corps turned out for the display of Soviet air might at Tushino Airport marking the annual Aviation Day. Top officials led by Premier George M. Malenkov watched the show.

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — An unidentified man threw a flat iron through a window of the United Press bureau here last night, narrowly missing a teletype operator. Police said the man was one of a group of half dozen persons who gathered in front of the office and shouted anti-American slogans after a pro-Communist demonstration in downtown Havana had been broken up.

SOUTHPORT (AP) — The Brunswick County Board of Education will meet here tonight to consider charges against H. T. Sanders, principal of Southport High School, brought by several residents.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) — Members of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Assn. have elected W. B. Gurley of Windsor as president for 1955-56. The organization's headquarters announced yesterday that Gurley had been elected in mail balloting to succeed W. L. West of Roseboro. He will be installed at the association's convention next year.

GREENSBORO (AP) — Some 500 delegates were expected to attend the 27th annual institute of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers which began here today. Most of the delegates are presidents of local parent-teacher associations. The institute will continue through Thursday noon. Topics to be discussed include policies and procedures, the state platform and plans for building a state headquarters.

GREENSBORO (AP) — A federal grand jury was expected to consider indictments today against 11 of 15 persons arrested recently in narcotics crackdown in this area. Blaine C. Guyer, 60, arrested here Saturday, was the 15th person to be arrested by federal agents in connection with what was termed a statewide narcotics ring.

RALEIGH (AP) — The state Utilities Commission went into session this afternoon to discuss an increase in Southern Bell Telephone Co. rates. The commission approved new rates for the company last year which would bring it about $1,648, 056 annually in additional gross income.

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — Hundreds of French troops made an amphibious assault on Van Coc Island in the Red River 15 miles west of Hanoi and wiped out an important Communist base for infiltrating the delta. The French high command announced today. The assault began before dawn yesterday and fierce fighting continued today, authorities said. French Union troops reported slaying 38 Reds and capturing 39.

NORTH WILKESBORO (AP) — Authorities still are investigating the deaths of two North Wilkesboro men who died in a well Friday while one tried to save the other. Sheriff Claude E. Billings said today. Howard Maness, 21, and Roe Wayatt, 56, were dead when brought out of a 55-foot well on the property of Paul Clark about four miles north of here.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland today forecast "quite a hassle" but eventual defeat for Democratic efforts to write general income tax relief into the administration's tax reform bill. At today's weekly conference with President Eisenhower Senate GOP leaders were expected to report they believe they have the votes to hold the tax bill in line with administration recommendations.

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — Ellis S. Perlman of Mansfield, Ohio, vice president of the Advertising Federation of America, got his first look at the Atlantic Ocean Sunday during an AFA clam bake here. "It's interesting," he said, "but it looks just like Lake Erie."

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP) — Merchants here were happily taking wooden nickles today. The 10,000 wooden coins were made especially for Kitchener's centennial at the suggestion of a coin collector and are being accepted as legal tender.

CUSHING, Okla. (AP) — Preachers were expected to pour into the municipal swimming pool here today to mark the inauguration of the "Preacher's Hour." The city council set aside one hour each morning for ministers at the pool to enable the clergymen to take a dip without being criticized for appearing in bathing suits.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Demand for cars, stoves, television sets and other durables has fallen off noticeably but overall consumer buying is rolling along at near-record levels. The Commerce Department said today retail sales in April and May, after seasonal adjustments, were "slightly higher" than in the first quarter of the year and only one per cent below last year.

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP) — A national Negro leader said yesterday Southern segregationists "serve the enemies of this country by dividing us within and by holding us up to the world as a nation of bigots." Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told a state NAACP rally that the Supreme Court's recent school ruling had settled the classroom segregation issue once and for all.

Westbrooks Entertain At Buffet Luncheon Friday

One of the loveliest parties of the season was the buffet luncheon given by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Westbrooks in honor of their daughter, Miss Jacquelyn Johnson, of Dunn and Mr. Mack Bissette, Jr. of Wilson.

The party was held at the Dunn Woman's Club, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with numbers of artistic floral arrangements.

Arriving at one o'clock, the guests were served fruit supreme cocktails from a silver bowl by Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr.

In the dining room an all-white color scheme was carried out. The table was covered with a Maderia linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, lilies, carnations, and snap dragons.

Miss Barbara Morefield of Greensboro directed guests to the bride's register where Miss Margaret Cathey presided.

Receiving at the dining room door were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nesher who invited guests into the dining room where Mrs. Harvey Strickland served punch and Mrs. John Holland served the three-tiered wedding cake topped with double wedding rings. The table was beautifully appointed with a centerpiece composed of large white shredded mums and carnations interspersed with fern and flanked by tall white candles in three-branched silver candelabra.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. McLamb.

Reception Follows Wedding Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McLamb entertained at a lovely afternoon reception following the marriage of their daughter, Miss Shirley McLamb to Donald Dyke on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLamb greeted guests at the door and presented them to the receiving line composed of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. McLamb, Mrs. E. W. Dyke, Miss Belra McLamb and Mrs. Franklin Brown and Mrs. Peter Gregerson of Davenport, Iowa, sisters of the groom.

Miss Barbara Morefield of Greensboro directed guests to the bride's register where Miss Margaret Cathey presided.

Receiving at the dining room door were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nesher who invited guests into the dining room where Mrs. Harvey Strickland served punch and Mrs. John Holland served the three-tiered wedding cake topped with double wedding rings. The table was beautifully appointed with a centerpiece composed of large white shredded mums and carnations interspersed with fern and flanked by tall white candles in three-branched silver candelabra.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. McLamb.

Wedding Breakfast Fetes Bridal Pair

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Jr. and Mrs. Everette Doffermyre and Mrs. Gale Johnson entertained at a wedding breakfast complimentary to Miss Jacquelyn Johnson and Mack Bissette, prior to their wedding on Saturday.

Guests arrived at 12:00 and were invited into the spacious Woman's Club which was thrown en suite for the affair. Lovely arrangements composed of shasta daisies, gladioli, magnolias and carnations decorated the living rooms and hall.

After fruit juice cocktails were passed, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., served chicken salad and Mrs. J. W. Purdie, Jr., served carrot and pea ring from opposite ends of the dining room table. Tomato apple on green pepper rings was served by Mrs. Gale Johnson and guests served themselves pickled peaches, deviled eggs garnished with cucumbers, hot biscuits and iced tea. Lime bisque for the desert course completed the menu.

Places were found at auxiliary tables which held dainty centerpieces of mixed flowers. The bridal table was centered with an arrangement of all-white flowers. Yellow roses, white carnations and fern composed the unusually pretty dining table centerpiece which was flanked by five-branched silver candelabra holding white candles. An arrangement of magnolias and candles in matching candelabra graced the buffet.

The bride and groom, members of the wedding party and out of town guests attended the pre-nuptial affair.

Open House Given At Snipes Home

Mr. and Mrs. James Snipes and Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Nielsen of Falls Church, Va. entertained at an open house on Saturday afternoon from 4:30 until 6:30 at the Snipes home. Special guests for the affair were Mack Bissette, brother of the hostesses, whose marriage to Miss Jacquelyn Johnson took place on Saturday evening, members of the wedding party and out of town guests here for the wedding.

The hosts and hostesses were at the door and invited guests into the home which was thrown open for the informal affair. Throughout the house, lovely flower arrangements added to the surroundings. Pink and red roses were outstanding in the living room and elsewhere shasta daisies, magnolia blooms and feverfew were arranged effectively.

An Italian cut work cloth on the dining room table was enhanced with a lovely bridal bouquet of calla lilies showered with satin ribbons. Mrs. John Snipes served lime fruit punch and guests helped themselves to bridal cakes, party sandwiches cheese biscuits, and green white mints.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

In addition to the honoree, guests included Miss Ruby Peede of Lillington, Miss Sylvia Turner of Greer, South Carolina, Miss Betty Cathey, Mrs. Bruce Byrd and Mrs. Everette Doffermyre, the bride's attendants; Mrs. Henry Whittington and Mrs. L. L. Coats, Jr., musicians for the wedding; Mrs. N. M. Johnson, mother of the bride; Mrs. James Snipes and Mrs. Edward Nielsen of Falls Church, Virginia, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Myres Tilghman, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., Mrs. John Snipes, Mrs. J. W. Lineberger, and Mrs. Horace Freeman of Martinsville, Va.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

Jernigan Gets

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church will meet Tuesday night at 8:00 at the home of Mrs. Locke Campbell with Mrs. George Warren joint hostess.

James Crawford, public drunk 30 days in jail, suspended for 12 months on payment of court cost.

Elmo B. Johnson, stop sign violation, prayer for judgment continued for six months on payment of $10 and court cost.

Mrs. Wm. C. Lee Gives Luncheon For Miss Johnson

Honoring Miss Jacquelyn Johnson, bride-elect of Saturday, Mrs. William C. Lee was hostess for the bridesmaid luncheon Thursday at one o'clock in the General Lee Room of Johnson's Restaurant.

Miniature white nosegays marked the places of the guests, with a white-orchid corsage designating that of the honoree. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a large arrangement of bridal lilies, white chrysanthemums and white buds.

The luncheon menu included half grapefruit with mint sauce; broiled breast of chicken with broccoli, stuffed potatoes, tossed salad, clover leaf rolls and iced tea; followed by strawberry parfait and after-dinner mints.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

In addition to the honoree, guests included Miss Ruby Peede of Lillington, Miss Sylvia Turner of Greer, South Carolina, Miss Betty Cathey, Mrs. Bruce Byrd and Mrs. Everette Doffermyre, the bride's attendants; Mrs. Henry Whittington and Mrs. L. L. Coats, Jr., musicians for the wedding; Mrs. N. M. Johnson, mother of the bride; Mrs. James Snipes and Mrs. Edward Nielsen of Falls Church, Virginia, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Myres Tilghman, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., Mrs. John Snipes, Mrs. J. W. Lineberger, and Mrs. Horace Freeman of Martinsville, Va.

Rehearsal Party At Prince Home

Following the Byrd-Strickland wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, Mrs. L. B. Prince entertained the bridal couple, wedding party and out of town guests at a lovely cake cutting at her home on S. Magnolia Ave. Miss Jeanette Strickland and Hal Byrd were wed in a formal ceremony in the Second Baptist Church on Sunday.

The traditional green and white bridal motif was used entirely in the living room and dining room. The mantle held a large gold wedding ring entwined with magnolias and gladioli, balanced by three-branched silver candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

In the dining room, a handsome white cloth adorned the table which held a centerpiece of white gladioli and fern flanked by white candles in silver candelabra. The three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was cut by the bridal couple after which it was served by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lucille Byrd.

Mrs. Matthew Strickland, mother of the bride, poured fruit punch. Mrs. W. J. Byrd and Mrs. Chester Brown of Lillington and Mrs. Louise Rhodes of Fayetteville assisted in serving mints and nuts.

Pretty bouquets of dahlias and hydrangeas were effective in the gift room where Mrs. Jim Parker presided at the bride's book.

Around 35 guests attended the bridal affair.

Mrs. J. H. Willis Honored Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Willis entertained at a family picnic on Saturday evening at 6:30 at their home in honor of Mrs. J. H. Willis of Benson on the occasion of her 74th birthday.

Tables were set up on the lawn and held a large decorated birthday cake. A delicious picnic supper was enjoyed and Mrs. Willis received many birthday greetings.

Attending were, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Willis and Anne Willis of Raleigh, Mrs. W. A. Stone, Edward, Ray and Marilyn Stone of Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stone, Joyce Stone, Johnny Stone, Mrs. Robert Phelps and son, Bobby, all of Lillington, Mrs. Percy C. Willis of Goldsboro, Miss Virginia Reed of Kinston, Mrs. H. H. Lucas, Mary Anne and James Lucas of Four Oaks, Mrs. Jack Ferrell and son Jackie of Biles Creek and Henry and Charles Willis of Dunn.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

In addition to the honoree, guests included Miss Ruby Peede of Lillington, Miss Sylvia Turner of Greer, South Carolina, Miss Betty Cathey, Mrs. Bruce Byrd and Mrs. Everette Doffermyre, the bride's attendants; Mrs. Henry Whittington and Mrs. L. L. Coats, Jr., musicians for the wedding; Mrs. N. M. Johnson, mother of the bride; Mrs. James Snipes and Mrs. Edward Nielsen of Falls Church, Virginia, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Myres Tilghman, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., Mrs. John Snipes, Mrs. J. W. Lineberger, and Mrs. Horace Freeman of Martinsville, Va.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

EASTERN STAR PICNIC

The Eastern Star Chapter, Dunn 59 will hold their annual picnic on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Duncan at White Lake. All members and their families are invited to attend and a picnic supper will be spread at 6:00.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Lee presented the honoree a gift of crystal. Miss Johnson remembered each of her attendants with a gift of white gloves.

In addition to the honoree, guests included Miss Ruby Peede of Lillington, Miss Sylvia Turner of Greer, South Carolina, Miss Betty Cathey, Mrs. Bruce Byrd and Mrs. Everette Doffermyre, the bride's attendants; Mrs. Henry Whittington and Mrs. L. L. Coats, Jr., musicians for the wedding; Mrs. N. M. Johnson, mother of the bride; Mrs. James Snipes and Mrs. Edward Nielsen of Falls Church, Virginia, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Myres Tilghman, Mrs. Marvin Wade, Jr., Mrs. John Snipes, Mrs. J. W. Lineberger, and Mrs. Horace Freeman of Martinsville, Va.

QUINN'S Funeral Home

24-HOUR SERVICE
PHONE 3306
211 W. HARNETT ST.
DUNN, N. C.

Mrs. R. E. Palmer Hostess To Council On Friday Night

Mrs. R. E. Palmer was hostess Friday night to members of the ladies' missionary council of the Glad Tidings Church. Mrs. E. M. Whittenton was named new president of the group.

Lovely arrangements of gladioli, roses and hydrangeas were used throughout the home.

During the business meeting, officers for the coming year were elected. In addition to Mrs. Whittenton, other officers named were Mrs. Robert Page, vice president, and Mrs. Bill Stanley, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Gardner Altman gave the devotional.

During the social hour the hostess served party sandwiches, cookies, mixed nuts, and punch.

Guests for the meeting were Robert Palmer, pastor of the church, Mrs. Ruby Frix, Mrs. Vergie Hobbs, and Mrs. Gardner Altman. Members present were Mrs. Silas Alphin, Mrs. Dick Maynard, Mrs. Almon D. Jackson, Mrs. Shelton Norris, Mrs. Willard Tyndall, Mrs. Cleon Wilson, Mrs. Rex Watson, Mrs. Walton Lee, Mrs. Neta Hartley, Mrs. Bill Stanley, and the hostess, Mrs. Palmer.

WILLIAMS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Willis have returned to Springfield, Missouri after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Ayer, in Erwin. The Willises are former Dunn residents.

HAS TONSILS OUT
Miss Alice (Beanie) Strickland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Strickland, Sr., underwent a tonsillectomy in the Dunn Hospital Friday. She is at home now.

RETURN TO DUNN
Preston Parker, Bobby Parker, Ray Brewer, and Bill Joyner have returned to Dunn after a week's cruise in Connecticut. They spent several days in New York, N. Y., and Mrs. Henry Sandlin, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brewer, and Mrs. Preston Parker met them in Raleigh Sunday morning.

VISIT MOUNTAINS
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Patrick spent the week end in the mountains.

Moms Brothers Home

Richard Monds, California, is home on a thirty day leave. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Monds, his wife, and other friends and relatives, Billy Monds, his brother, is also home on a thirty day leave prior to being sent overseas. Billy is stationed in Oklahoma.

FROM HOUSTON, TEXAS
Fred W. Jones of Houston, Texas arrived in Dunn Saturday to spend the week end with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Westbrooks.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of Fred Ivy wish to express their appreciation for the many kindnesses shown them during the recent death of their loved one.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mary E. Ivy,
children, brothers and sisters.

Store eggs large end up to help keep the yolks centered.

Know the SCORE and you'll get a FORD

FORD WINS ON ENGINES		FORD WINS ON RIDE		FORD WINS ON DRIVES
FORD	Only V-8 in its field	FORD	Only Ford has new Ball-Joint Suspension	DRIVE	CONVENTIONAL	OVERDRIVE	AUTOMATIC
CAR C	Outmoded Sixes only	CAR C	Old-fashioned kingpin type	FORD	YES	YES	YES
CAR P	Outmoded Sixes only	CAR P	Old-fashioned kingpin type	FORD	YES	YES	YES

FORD WINS ON STYLING
With... Clean, crisp, trend-setting lines.
• A truly modern, long, low, sleek silhouette.
• Smooth, graceful fender line.
• Low, subtly-curved, modern hoodline.
• Fashion-tailored interior fabrics and trim.
... WHICH NO OTHER CAR IN FORD'S RILD CAN MATCH!

Ford's new V-8 block V-8 is the most modern engine in the industry! And it's the only V-8 in the low-price field! It has deep-block, low-friction design for smooth, gas-saving "GO."

This advanced new suspension makes all handling easier... all riding smoother. The magic's in the sealed Ball-joints which replace old-fashioned kingpins and hinge-like joints.

FORD wins on choice... 28 models, 14 body styles!

Ford wins on the "deal," too!
Come in and get the score Today!

AUTO SALES & SERVICE

S. Fayetteville Ave. Dunn, N. C.