

Wade Girl Is Married In A Garden Ceremony

The garden of the bride's was the setting for the evening wedding June 8 when Miss Clara Helen Dall and Larry Grady Dew Jr., were married in a double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dall of Wade, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Dew of Fayetteville.

The vows were spoken to the Rev. J. F. Menius under an arch entwined with English ivy and illuminated with Japanese lanterns. The area was banked with palms and decorated with baskets of white gladioli and mixed garden flowers.

Mrs. James Maxwell, pianist, and Mrs. Robert McNeill, soloist, presented the wedding music. Mrs. Maxwell played "Moonlight Sonata," "Tramperu," "The Rosary," and during the ceremony, softly played "To A Wild Rose." The traditional wedding marches were used. Mrs. McNeill's numbers included "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Through The Years," and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Cathleen Dall, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of purple lace over satin with matching mits and a matching bandeau in her hair. Miss Daphne Dew, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Hazel Owen were the bridesmaids. Miss Dew wore green organdy over satin, and Miss Owen wore yellow organdy over satin. They wore matching mits and bandeau in their hair. The three attendants carried colonial baskets of mixed summer flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Duvall Dall chose a white-length gown of white cotton lace over satin. The gown featured a V-neckline with short sleeves and matching lace mits. A circlet of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white ivory book topped with a white ruffled throat and showered with white satin streamers, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The bridegroom's brother, Alvis Dew of Greensboro was the best man. Serving as groomsmen were Curtis Dall, brother of the bride, and Cecil Dew, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Dall chose a sweet-length dress of grey bemburg crepe for her daughter's wedding. She wore white accessories and a purple orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue lace street-length dress with white accessories and a purple orchid.

RECEPTION
Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding party was honored with a reception in the garden of the bride's home. Sgt. and Mrs. John Keeling introduced the guests to the receiving line.

Miss Alma Cuthbert and Miss Ruby McLaurin presided at the brides table.

The brides table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a four-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Hurricane lamps surrounded by southern smilax, shasta daisies, and fern completed the table decorations. After the first slice had been cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Duvall Dall served the guests.

A second table, with decorations similar to those used on the bride's table, held the two punch bowls presided over by Mrs. William Schaeffer and Miss Margaret McMillan. One punch bowl was crystal and the other was a block of ice with a frozen spray of pink gladioli.

When the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Florida later in the evening, the bride was wearing aqua Palm Beach suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Central High School and is now employed in Fayetteville. Mr. Dew graduated from the Fayetteville High School, and attended Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C. He is also employed in Fayetteville.

MRS. DONALD GRADY BAISE

Daughter Of Benson Minister Wed In Raleigh

Miss Dorothy Magdalene Blackman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Roscoe Graden Blackman of Benson, was married to Donald Grady Baise Saturday afternoon in the Hayes Barton Baptist Church, Raleigh. Mr. Baise is the son of Mrs. W. Vance Baise of Raleigh and Dr. John W. Kincheol officiated at the double-ring ceremony at five thirty o'clock.

Donald Dawson, organist and Jimmy Ringgold, vocalist, presented the wedding music.

Mrs. Bill Currin of Oxford and Raleigh attended as matron of honor. Her gown of azure blue nylon net over taffeta was floor-length and was styled with a pleated bodice, and a matching taffeta bow at the back with streamers cascading down the bouffant skirt which had triple scalloped ruffles. She wore a matching picture hat and mits. Her cascade bouquet was composed of blue hybrid delphinium, pink asters, Briarcliffe roses and wine snapdragons tied with burgundy net and satin ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Baise, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Alice Joyce Peacock of Benson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lucy Mitchell of Youngsville, cousin of the bridegroom. They wore azure blue gowns and picture hats styled like that of the honor attendant and carried cascade bouquets of blue delphinium, Briarcliffe roses and pink asters tied with pink satin and nylon net ribbons.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Connie Hill, Miss Mary Ann Conner, Mrs. Wiley Mitchell Jr., Miss Mary Elizabeth Blackman, Miss Nancy Mitchell, and Miss Elsie Malcom. They wore gowns of pastel colors.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of imported hand-clipped chantilly lace over gossamer nylon tulle and satin. Seed pearls, sequins, and embroidered lace medallions bordered the portrait neckline edged with a fold of tulle. A scalloped lace overskirt merged into a back fan effect over a nylon cathedral train applied with lace medallions. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was draped to a calot of lace and satin accentuated with seed pearls and sequins. Her cascade bouquet was of stephanotis, fleur d' amour and white phalaenopsis orchids centered with a white hybrid orchid corsage. The bouquet was tied with white satin and nylon net ribbons.

Ringsbearer was Johnnie Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Mitchell of Youngsville and cousin of the bridegroom.

W. Vance Baise Jr. of Burlington was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Graden Blackman, brother of the bride, Wiley Mitchell Jr. and Toby Holding, cousins of the bridegroom, and Donald Desern.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Blackman wore a floor-length dinner gown of pink Chantilly lace over taffeta with a matching hat and mits. She wore a lavender hybrid orchid corsage.
