

Mrs. Surles Is Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. James Surles was hostess to members and guests of the Novus Bridge Club Friday night at her home on N. McKay Ave. Mixed summer flowers were used to decorate the home, and on the television set was an especially attractive arrangement of pale yellow mums and gladioli in a copper container. Iced drinks and potato chips were enjoyed during the games and at the end of the evening the hostess served orange sherbet, cookies, and nuts. After scores had been tabulated, Mrs. Hoover Adams was given a colorful beach towel for the high score award. Mrs. John Ciccone was second high and received a wrought iron server. A carton of soft drinks was the traveling award which went to Mrs. Gerald Mann. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. John Ciccone and Mrs. Ben Hartsfield. Members playing included Mrs. Hoover Adams, Mrs. Gerald Mann, Mrs. J. B. Rouse Jr., Mrs. Alay Johnson, Mrs. Paul L. Strickland Jr. and the hostess.

MRS. HENRY HARDY PATRICK

Patrick-Godwin Wedding Solemnized Here Sunday

In a formal ceremony Sunday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Dunn, Miss Georgia Faye Godwin was united in marriage to Mr. Henry Hardy Patrick. Miss Godwin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey R. Godwin of Dunn and Mr. Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Patrick, also of Dunn. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Ernest P. Russell, pastor of the bride. The church was decorated with baskets of asters, gladioli and mums. Six 7-branched candelabra were used. The vows were spoken under an arch entwined with fern and pom poms. The kneeling bench was covered in white. Prior to the ceremony, a program of organ music was presented by Mrs. Reta Whittenton. Her numbers included "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Sons of Lullaby" by Thome, "Lullaby" by Jocelyn, "Heavenly Aids" by Jerdi, "Song of Ruth," Gounod, "The Rosary," Gounod, and "Clair De Lune" by Debussy. She used the traditional wedding marches. Miss Margaret Cathey of Dunn was soloist. She sang "All For You" by Bertrand-Brown and "Through The Years" by Youmans and as a response to the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of nylon tulle over candlelight satin. The close-fitting, bodice buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons and featured a deep, off-shoulder neckline edged with tiny ruffles and small satin bows. The full length skirt was fashioned with fluted side panels outlined with tiny ruffles and satin bows and extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pearl tiara with iridescent sequins. She carried a satin-covered Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with gypsophila and ribbons. Miss Peggy Ruth Barfield of Dunn attended Miss Godwin as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of white nylon net with a strapless bodice featuring a shirred midriff of aqua taffeta that extended into a panel down the back that fell to the hemline of the skirt. Her shoulders were covered with foulded fishnets of nylon net. She wore a bandeau of nylon tulle and matching mitts. She carried a bouquet of rose asters tied with aqua ribbons. Bridesmaids were Miss June Pittman of Maclefield, former roommate of the bride at Atlantic Christian College and Miss Betsy Lee of Dunn, also a classmate of the bride at Atlantic Christian College. Their dresses were identical to that of the honor attendant except for midriffs of rose taffeta. They also wore nylon tulle bandeaux and mitts. They carried arm bouquets of pink asters with rose streamers. Miss Faye Monds, Miss Anne Byerly, Miss Jewel McLean, Miss Becky Lee, Miss Glenda Bass and Mrs. G. G. Patrick were honorary bridesmaids. Mr. Patrick had as best man, his brother, George Guilford Patrick and ushers were Mayo Smith, Gene Jackson, Tommy Godwin, and Exum Kirby, all of Dunn. The bride's mother wore a dress of pink lace over rose taffeta with matching lace hat and rose accessories. She had a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a gown of blue nylon and orlon with white accessories. Her corsage of white carnations was attached to her blue bag. After receiving guests in the vestibule of the church, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will be at home on South Clinton Avenue.

One O'Clock Luncheon Honors Bride Of Sunday

Cake-Cutting Given For Wedding Party

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Godwin entertained at an informal cake-cutting following the Patrick-Godwin wedding rehearsal on Saturday evening. The affair was held in the recreation rooms of the First Baptist Church which were decorated with lovely flowers in green and white bridal motif. From a beautifully appointed table, Mrs. Bill Barfield served lime ice punch and Mrs. Ralph Maxwell served wedding cake after the couple had cut the traditional first slice. Centering the table was an all-white arrangement flanked by three-branched candelabra holding lighted white candles. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was balanced on the opposite end by the punch bowl. Green and white mints and toasted nuts were also served. Guests included the bridal couple, wedding party, relatives and friends.

One of the many lovely social courtesies extended Miss Faye Godwin who became the bride of Jimmy Patrick on Sunday, was the one o'clock luncheon given by Miss Margaret Cathey and Miss Peggy Ruth Barfield at the Cathy home Saturday. Guests assembled in the living room and were served fruit juice cocktails after which they found their places at the tables designated by attractive bridal cards. A corsage of white carnations marked the bride's place. A delicious luncheon consisting of breasts of chicken, butter beans, new potatoes, congealed vegetable salad, stuffed tomatoes, hot biscuits, bridal cakes lime ice cream and iced tea was enjoyed. The bride's table was covered with a white linen outwork cloth and held an arrangement of white carnations, mums and baby's breath. A similar bouquet centered the auxiliary table. Orchid gladioli in a crystal vase were outstanding in the living room and pastel summer flowers formed other bouquets. The honoree was presented china in her selected pattern by the hosts. Guest list for the pre-nuptial affair included, Miss Godwin, Mrs. Dewey Godwin, Mrs. W. G. Patrick, Mrs. G. G. Patrick, Miss June Pittman, Miss Betsy Lee, Miss Anne Byerly, Miss Faye Monds, Miss Becky Lee, Miss Glenda Bass, Miss Libby Raynor, Miss Jewel McLean and Miss Betty Byrd Crumpler.
