Effective immediately, all classified ads must be paid for in advance unless the advertiser is a business firm and has an established account with this newspaper. We regret the necessity for adopting this policy, but the extra bookkeeping problems involved and the very low cost of our classified ads makes it essential. May we remind you that advertising in The Record's classified columns is absolutely the cheapest - and most effective - medium of advertising in this trade area.

Dog Goes

Later, the other officers helped Moore destroy the still. In addition to the sleeping dog, McGee had 300 to 400 gallons of liquor. He was tried in Recorder's Court today and given 12 months in jail, suspended for five years on payment of $350 and court cost. Assisting in the raid were Sturgill, Wade Stewart, A. W. O'Quinn, J. S. Byrd, and Moore.

Also arrested Saturday were Martha Hickman, white woman of near Olivia, charged with possession of one gallon of white liquor; and Maggie McDougald, Negro woman of Barbecue Township. Maggie had only a small amount of liquor. Officer Sturgill stated that Martha Hickman has a long record for dealing in liquor.

In addition to the Saturday arrests, Carson Adams, white man of Coats, was arrested Friday with half gallon jar of white liquor. Besides the liquor, Adams also had his still equipment in his garden Sturgill said.
