

Lillington Social Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Tomasino Extended Social Courtesies

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tomasino arrived in Lillington on the week end following a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and Tennessee. Before their marriage on July 3, Mrs. Tomasino was Miss Patricia O'Quinn of Lillington.

The Tomasinos will be the guest of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. O'Quinn for several days before moving to Gainesville, Fla. to make their home.

In addition to the reception which followed their formal wedding at Lillington's Baptist Church a variety of social courtesies centered about the couple, prior to the wedding.

CAKE - CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. Stion Wilborn, aunt and uncle of the bride, gave a cake cutting at their home for the wedding party and out of town guests on Friday night before the ceremony. A green and white decorative theme was used throughout the house.

All crystal appointments were used on the refreshment table where white gladioli, fern and arbutus sprays formed the centerpiece. This arrangement was bordered by white candles in crystal holders. At one end of the table was a tiered wedding cake topped by bridal figurines, and at the other a crystal punch bowl.

After the honored couple cut the first piece of cake it was sliced and served by Mrs. Antonina Tomasino, mother of the bridegroom, of Tampa, Fla., Mrs. T. D. O'Quinn, mother of the bride, served fresh fruit punch and mints and nuts were served by Mrs. Buddy Warren and Mrs. George Rives, daughter of the host and hostesses.

Throughout the home, magnolia foliage and blossoms, and white candles were used as decorations. The bride's book, placed on a drop leaf table on the sun porch was marked by an unusual arrangement of white gladioli and a magnolia bloom. Around 40 guests registered.

BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON

The bride honored her attendants at a luncheon given on Friday before the wedding at her home. In compliment to the Florida visitors from the bridegroom's family, the hostess served fresh Florida orange juice mixed with pineapple sherbet, a chicken salad plate, and orange sherbet and cake for dessert. Bridesmaids and musicians received silver ear rings from the bride.

AT TURLINGTON HOME

On Saturday Miss Sharon Turlington, an honorary bridesmaid, and her mother, Mrs. R. M. Turlington served a buffet luncheon at their home for the members of the wedding party. Ham biscuits, party sandwiches, pickles and cakes were served.

OTHER PARTIES

Other parties for the same bride were given by Miss Reba John White and Miss Mary George Kelly who had a dessert bridge at the White home for Miss O'Quinn. An ice course was served to 18 guests and the bride was presented gifts by the hostesses.

A clever costume party was the courtesy extended by Mrs. M. P. Crews, Jr. Mrs. Grady Johnson and Miss Mamie Haighwood to the same bride. The party was given at the Haighwood home.

Mrs. A. J. Barnhill and Mrs. C. E. Ammons gave an informal tea at the Barnhill home for three, including Miss O'Quinn. Other honorees were Miss Dorothy Secret and Miss Pat Prince of Fuquay Springs.
