Jaycees Defeat Legion's Team

The Jaycees handed the American Legion a 21-10 defeat last night to pull themselves out of a tie for the sixth position with the National Guard. The defeat was the heaviest suffered by the Legion during the entire season. The Legion slaughtered Skinny last week by a 16-2 score and then came back in their next game and let the cellar riding Jaycees defeat them by an eleven run margin.

The Jaycees opened the ball game up in the very first inning by scoring 12 runs on 8 hits against the Legion. Bill Signor started on the mound for the Legion but he gave up 3 hits and 4 walks and was replaced by Harry Thompson. Thompson gave up 5 hits and one walk before he was able to retire the team. Jimmy Bayles pitched the remaining innings of the ball game and gave up 14 hits to the Jaycees.

Floyd Furr with five for five including two home runs and Bill Stanley with four for four with one home run were the leading hitters for the Jaycees in their 22 hit attack. Ralph Sechrest and Gene Jackson with three for four each were the other leading hitters for the Jaycees.

The Legion collected 12 hits off the Jaycees' Sechrest and leading the attack were Ed Boyette with three for four, George Blalock with two for three and Ken West with two for four.

The loss for the Legion put them in fourth place in the league standings with four wins and seven defeats.

Famed Sports Writer Dead

NEW YORK (UP) — Champions of the "Golden Decade" of American sports, many of them owing part of their fame to his writings, led the sports world today in mourning the death of Grantland Rice at the age of 73.

Rice, dean of the nation's syndicated sports columnist, died at Roosevelt Hospital Tuesday night. He had been taken to the hospital after suffering a stroke while working in his mid-town office.

Although he had been in failing health in recent years, the 60-year veteran of sports writing remained active virtually until the moment of his death. His syndicated column, distributed by the North American Newspaper Alliance, had been carried by more than 100 newspapers for the past 23 years.

Dempsey, Jones Pay Tribute

Former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey and golf champion Bobby Jones, who were at the peak of their fame in the "Golden Decade" of the 1920's when Rice penned many of his most famous stories, were among the prominent sports figures who paid tribute to the columnist.

Dempsey, who recalled that "Grantland covered most of my important fights," called him "one of the greatest sports writers of all time and a close personal friend." Jones, partner of Rice on many a friendly golfing holiday, called Rice's death a shock and said, "The thing which made him a great writer was that he was but could not turn any of the base blows into any extra base hits."

Four Horsemen Saddened

Also expressing sorrow were members of that famous Notre Dame backfield of 1924, who achieved undying football fame when Rice wrote of them, "Across a grey October sky, the 'Four Horsemen' rode again today." Jimmy Crowley of the "Four Horsemen" called Rice "a true friend and a master craftsman."

Harry Struhldreher said the four stars and the columnist had been warm personal friends and held yearly reunions.

Many of the phrases which Rice wrote became bywords in the world of sports and perhaps the most famous of these came from his brief poem which ended: "For when the One Great Scorer comes 'To write against your name 'He'll write not that you won or lost 'But how you played the game."

Canady's Store Has Close Win

Canady's Store sneaked by the National Guard last night by a 16-15 score. Layton Parker and Harry Phipps with three for three each were the leading hitters for Canady's. Click Beasley started on the mound for Canady's but was replaced in the top of the fourth by Howard Hodges. Hodges gave up five hits and got credit for the victory.

The National guard pulled out front by scoring seven runs in the top of the fourth to lead 10-6 but Canady's came right back with nine runs in the bottom of the fourth to go out front 15-10. Canady's added another run in the fifth and then the Guard scored five in the sixth and had the tying run on second when the third out Roy Stanley, Roy Cardwell and was made.

Carrall each had two hits a piece to be the top hitters for the Guard. The Guard collected eight base hits but could not turn any of the base blows into any extra base hits.
