Stephenson - Beard Vows Spoken In Erwin Ceremony Sunday At Four

The marriage of Miss Julie Beard and Mr. Ulys Glendel Stephenson was solemnized on Sunday afternoon August 1st at 4 o'clock in St. Stephens Episcopal Church in Erwin. The Rev. Charles Hein, Rector of St. Pauls Episcopal Church in Smithfield officiated, using the impressive double ring ceremony. Mike Beard, brother of the bride, served as Crucifer and lit the candles. A vested choir used as a processional, "Lord, Who at Cannes Wedding Feast." Miss Carolyn Brady of Raleigh, soloist, sang, "Entreat Not to Leave Thee," and "Oh, Perfect Love." The choir used as a benediction "May the Grace of Christ Our Saviour." Mrs. Kenneth Bruton, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Her selections included, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," by Matthews, "Musette" by Bach, "Romance" by Dubussy, "Interlude" by Larson, "Prayer" by Shubert and "Cantilene Nuptiale" by Dubois. Traditional wedding marches were used. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Beard of Erwin, was given in marriage by her father. She wore an original gown of Chantilly lace over satin, designed and fashioned by her mother. The gown featured a portrait neckline embroidered with seed pearls, fitted bodice pointed in the front, long sleeves with Calla Lily points at the hands and a full bouffant skirt ending in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a crown of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a 16th Century, Church of England Prayer Book covered with white satin and topped with a bouquet of Sweetheart roses and Stephanotis centered with three purple throated white orchids. Mrs. Joan Strickland, cousin of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pink organza over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and full skirt with pin tucks at the neckline. She wore a picture hat of the same material as her dress. Her arm bouquet was of red roses matching the velvet band on her hat. Miss Barbara Woodworth, Miss Martha Lee and Miss June Ruth Tew of Erwin and Mrs. Delmas Core of Greensboro were bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant, matching picture hats and arm bouquets of red roses. Their gowns were also designed and fashioned by the mother of the bride. Little Miss Becky Barnes of Erwin was flower girl. She wore a gown and hat fashioned like those of the bridesmaids and carried a basket of red rose petals. Honorary bridesmaids were, Miss Brenda Tart and Miss Delorah Tart, cousins of the bride, of Lillington. Mrs. Jerry Ashley, Mrs. Bob Froyditt and Miss Nancy Glover of Erwin, Miss Clara Burton, Miss Sarah Simmons and Miss Pat Faucette of Chapel Hill. Little Frederick Thomas carried the ring on a satin pillow. Mr. Ulys Green Stephenson attended his son as best man. Ushers were, Mr. Roy Lee Earp of Angier, Mr. Able Maxwell of Erwin, Mr. Arthur Lee Seabolt of Erwin and Chapel Hill and Mr. Delmas Core of Greensboro, cousin of the bride. The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of navy nylon lace, with pink flower hat and pink nylon gloves. Her corsage was of feathered pink carnations. The bride's maternal grandmother wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of feathered carnations. The mother of the groom wore a navy lace dress with accessories and her corsage was of feathered white carnations. RECEPTION Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the Church parish house. Guests were greeted at the front of the parish house by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas of Erwin. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cameron received up stairs and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams introduced the guests to the receiving line which was composed of the parents of the bride and groom and the wedding party. Mrs. Haywood Barnes and Miss Carolyn Brady presided at the guest register, where the brides grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tart of Lillington greeted the guests also. Mr.
