

Miss Hale Weds in Raleigh Chapel

Miss Billye Jean Hale, daughter of Mrs. Christine Barefoot Hale of Dunn and the late E. M. Hale, was married to Robert Edward Wallace July 30 in an afternoon ceremony. Mr. Wallace is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wallace of Raleigh.

The Rev. D. K. Appleton officiated at the double ring ceremony in the Hayes Barton Baptist Church Chapel in Raleigh.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Joan Barnett and Miss Peggy Holland.

Miss Yvonne Hale, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Miss Regina Winfree was the bridesmaid. They wore dresses of embroidered green organza and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Given in marriage by her uncle, W. Hale, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered organza and carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid.

Charles Hodges served as best man, and the ushers were Gilbert Winfree and Bobby Hunter.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a dress of navy with white trim.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the bride's home by her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Hilton.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Wilmington, the bride was wearing a baby blue linen suit with white accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are graduates of the Hugh Morgan High School in Raleigh, and both are now employed in that city.

Christian Group Met Monday Night

Members of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Hood Monday night at eight o'clock in the local Christian Church met Monday evening in the church.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Wilson Stanley. A unique program was presented concerning urban living. Mrs. Woodrow Hill, a roving reporter, interviewed Mrs. J. W. Temple, Mrs. Hugh Wilford, Mrs. Oscar Strickland, Mrs. Mamie Jeffries, Mrs. Mary Hinton, Miss Frances Surles, and Mrs. Bill Carroll. The interviews in a very ingenious way, stressed the importance of social agencies and the church in the lives of the urban dweller.

Mrs. Pat Lynch, president of the group, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Paul Barefoot, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and brought recommendations from the executive board. The meeting closed with the usual ritual.

Brenda Black Has Party On Fourth Birthday Monday

Little Miss Brenda Black was delightfully entertained on her fourth birthday with a party given Monday afternoon by her mother, Mrs. J. E. Black, Jr.

Pastel streamers and balloons provided a colorful setting for the party.

The refreshment table, covered in white, was centered with a unique birthday cake. The cake was centered with a doll and the decorations formed a pretty old-fashioned ruffled ball dress on the doll. Colors used in the dress were pink, blue and white.

In addition to the birthday cake, pink lemonade and candies were served. Mrs. Al Hawley assisted Mrs. Black with the serving.

Miss Susan Koshoff of Wadesboro and Master Pate Turnage were winners in the contests. They both received prizes.

Brenda received a lovely assortment of gifts from her guests.

Those attending the party were Glenda Barbour, Emmie Thomas, Lynn and Charles Hawley, Bessie Smith, Pate Turnage, Susan Koshoff, and Jennifer Black, sister of the honoree.
