

Tuesday, partly cloudy and somewhat warmer with a chance of afternoon or evening thundershowers

IN CIRCULATION... NEW! PHOTOS... ADVERTISING COMICS AND FEATURES

VOLUME 4 TELEPHONES 3117 - 3118

DUNN, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 23, 1954

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NO. 187

PLANE WITH 23 CRASHES INTO SEA

BIKE BUILT FOR FAMILY - The A. B. Johnsons of Dunn took a ride at White Lake over the weekend on a bike built for a family. Pictured on the bike is Mrs. Johnson holding their little daughter Sue. Others in the picture include, Mark, seated at left, and Stacy. Standing are Stanley (left) and Mr. Johnson. The bike was built by Dr. J. B. Walker, Jr., of Burlington for his family. The Johnson's cottage at White Lake is directly back of the Walkers. The water bike-boat was the fun of the lake Saturday morning. (Daily Record Photo.)

GOP, Democrats Disagree On 83rd Congress

WASHINGTON (UP)—Republican and Democratic leaders fired sharply conflicting appraisals of the 83rd Congress today to set the stage for a bitter fall campaign for control of the next Congress.

Chairman Homer Ferguson R-Mich. of the Senate GOP Policy Committee said in a statement prepared for the United Press that the Eisenhower administration and the Republican-steered 83rd Congress "worked together for peace, preparedness and prosperity."

But Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said in a parallel statement that a Congress could be judged only by what it does to promote peace and prosperity. The statement reflected his belief that the GOP has nothing to boast about.

President Eisenhower will give the nation his report on the achievements of the 83rd Congress in a radio-television speech to be held from the summer White House in Denver.

House Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn charged the Eisenhower administration with following a "giveaway policy" and being "inept" in domestic and foreign affairs.

The situation is such between the President, who has embraced much of the Democratic legislative program, and the Republicans in Congress, who have resisted it, that the country will be better off if it returns a Democratic Senate and House in the November elections," Rayburn said.

Ferguson credited the GOP congress with cutting taxes $7,500,000,000 a year and providing other tax benefits to create jobs.

To Ferguson, the administration's embattled farm policy provided a long range program to keep farmers independent and self-reliant. But Johnson said the GOP program would drive farm income down and depress the whole country's economy.

On foreign policy, Ferguson said the administration has stopped the fighting in Korea and confronted world Communism with a firm determination to protect freedom. Rayburn charged the administration with indecision and timidity in this field, and said all Asia probably will be lost to Communism.

Tom Chase Fails To Show Up Today

Attorney Everette Doffermire today requested Judge H. Paul Strickland to issue a capias for Tom Chase when Chase failed to come into court to hear the judgement in an assault charge brought by Homer Pat Godwin.

Judge Strickland heard evidence in the case a week ago but delayed passing judgement until this morning. He told Doffermire that he understood some of Chase's people were sick.

"I can show that he is working and doing nothing but trifling with the court," Doffermire told the Judge.

The attorney for Godwin informed the court that Constable Oscar Pearce saw and talked with Chase in town today and that he was at work.

JUDGE IN NO HURRY

The judge said he was willing to wait until Monday and see what happens then. "If he doesn't come into court Monday, I'll have a capias issued for him," Strickland said.

Meantime, Strickland told Doffermire he expects to check on Chase's alibi before passing judgement in the case. "I shall take that into consideration when I pass judgement," he said.

Chase was convicted last week of assaulting Godwin because of a triangle affair involving Chase, Godwin, and Godwin's estranged wife, Mrs. Muriel Tew Godwin. In a related case, Godwin was found not guilty of shooting at his wife and Chase.

Other cases heard in Recorder's Court today included: (Continued on page two)

Dunn Woman Leader In Prison Riot

A Dunn Negro woman, Laddie (Lady Mae) Poe has been identified by State prison officials as one of the ring-leaders in a riot which took place at Woman's Prison Friday afternoon.

The riot was touched off by the death of a young Negro prisoner, Eleanor Rush, 18. The prisoner died of a broken neck after being put in an isolation cell.

The 30-year-old Dunn prisoner and the other ring-leaders, four whites and three Negroes, told authorities they staged the riot to call attention to the woman's death. Prison officials said disciplinary action would be taken against each of them.

The Dunn Negro is serving her third prison term. She was last sentenced for shop-lifting at Smithfield. Dunn police describe her as "a professional shop-lifter."

Carroll To Appear On TV Thursday

Chamber of Commerce Manager Ed Carroll will appear over WNAO-TV Thursday evening at 8 o'clock to discuss the progress of the local tobacco market, it was announced today.

Carroll, who also serves as sales supervisor of the local market, will be on the Joe Foster—Mike Silva Show.

The appearance is part of a public information program to inform farmers of the high prices being paid on the Dunn tobacco market, Carroll said today.

Man, 90, Says He Is A "Lover Boy"

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Dan B. Raymond, 90, says he owes his old age to being "a lover boy." "I stay young by going to dances, all the time and by falling in and out of love," Raymond said. "I got married for the first time at 75 and got divorced at 84."

MAYOR RALPH HANNA MISS BECKY LEE JAMES THORTON

Big International Caravan Coming To Dunn Wednesday

The International Better Living Motor Truck Caravan featuring more than a half million dollars worth of equipment, will come to Dunn Wednesday under sponsorship of McLamb Machinery Co., Inc., local International Harvester dealer.

There'll be a big parade at 10 a.m., followed by a big one-hour show at McLamb Machinery Co.'s plant on the Benson Highway. The show will feature James Thorton and his Country Style Radio and TV entertainers.

Pretty Miss Becky Lee, the current "Miss Dunn" and runner-up for the title of "Miss North Carolina" will lead the parade.

OFFICIALS IN PARADE

Mayor Ralph E. Hanna city and county officials and other dignitaries will ride the big parade, which will begin promptly at 10 o'clock from McLamb's. The parade will go through town and then return to McLamb's.

The McLamb brothers, A. M., Bill and Clarence, today extended to the public a cordial invitation to attend the parade and the Open House which will follow.

In addition to enjoying the free entertainment, citizens will have an opportunity to see and inspect the entire caravan.

COMPLETE LINE

The Caravan is made up of a cross section of the most complete line of motor trucks and refrigeration equipment in the world. There will be a transcontinental freighter (Continued On Page Two)

Ruby Tart Caught Again With Liquor

Ruby Tart, well-known white woman of E. Pope Street, was arrested again today and charged with possession of non-tax paid and bonded liquor for the purpose of sale. She was already under a 12 months sentence, suspended for five years given her in 1952.

Rural Policeman C. E. Moore said this afternoon that officers finally found the well-known liquor dealer's trap door. Three and a half gallons of white and three pints of bonded liquor were found behind a trap door in a closet, he said.

After searching the house, the officers went into the closet where they began to push and pull sections of the wall. Moore said he finally saw a piece of sawed molding and decided to pull that. And, behind it was a trap door and the storage place for Mrs. Tart's liquor.

Assisting in the raid were Rural Police E. E. Sturgill and A. W. Quinn, in addition to Moore.

FINED ONLY $200

Mrs. Tart was tried in Dunn Recorder's Court in January, 1952 and given 12 months in jail, suspended for five years on payment of -200 & cost, and on condition, that she not have in her possession any legal or illegal liquor, & on further condition that she allow officers to search her without securing a search warrant. However, officers today secured a search warrant before raiding the home.

Well known in Dunn for dealing in liquor, Mrs. Tart has been un-

(Continued On Page Two)

Home Destroyed By Blaze Here

Fire destroyed the home of Jessie Jones on the old Fairgrounds Road early Sunday morning according to Howard M. Lee, secretary-treasurer of the local Fire Department.

At the time of the fire, the house was vacant, Lee said.

The fire trucks were called out around 3:15 Sunday morning when the house burst into flames. Several other buildings and a nearby home were also threatened, but firemen kept the flames confined to the one home.

The total loss was covered by insurance, Lee stated. However, cause of the fire was unknown. Twenty men were out for the alarm.

Federal Pay Raise Is Vetoed By Ike

DENVER (UP)—President Eisenhower today vetoed the federal pay raise bill.

In a long memorandum of disapproval, the chief executive at the summer White House labeled as "unwise" the bill which would have put through a five per cent pay raise for about 1.3-4 million federal civilian workers.

He conceded the need for pay increases, but said there were inequities in the bill which he felt should not become law because it "ignores the necessity for revenue to pay for salary increases."

Dolly Jones Gets Six Months Term

Dolly Jones, 52-year-old Dunn woman, has begun serving a six-months prison term for the larceny of chickens.

She was convicted by a jury in Johnston Superior Court. Chris Jones, 49, also of Dunn, was tried with her on the same charge. At the close of the State's evidence, however, a non-suit was taken in the case against Jones and he was freed.

In another case, Aaron Raynor, 37, of Benson, pleaded guilty to charges of drunken driving. He was handed a six-months road sentence, suspended upon payment of $100 fine and costs and was ordered to surrender his driving license for 12 months.

Coats Business Firm Is Robbed

Stewart Seat Cover Company of Coats was broken into sometime over the weekend and approximately $500 worth of material and a number of tools stolen, Rural Police C. E. Moore reported today.

Moore said he was called to the business, which is operated by Mrs. Pearl Stewart, Sunday. However, it appears that the building was entered Saturday, he added.

The officer said indications were that the robbers entered the building by breaking in at the back door. Nothing was missing besides the material for covering seats, and a few tools, Moore said.

State Bureau of Investigation officials have been called and further investigation of the break-in will be continued today, it was stated.

A. W. WOOD DIES

A. W. Wood, well known petroleum dealer of Lillington, died at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill shortly after noon today. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Five Children Die As Home Burns

WATERVILLE, Me. (UP)—A flash fire roared through a two-story home here today and took the lives of five small children despite efforts of neighbors and their father rescue them.

The children, ranging in age from 15 months to seven years, were found huddled on the second floor of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vashon.

The victims were identified by police as: Patricia, 7; Daniel 6; Judith 5; Stephen 3, and Ann, 15 months. The baby died in her crib. The bodies of the four older children were found huddled in a bedroom corner.

Police said the fire apparently started from a chimney backfire. HEARD SCREAMS "We heard them screaming. You could see their faces pushed against

15 Die, 48 Hurt In Other Plane Train Accidents

BULLETIN

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, (UP)—The KLM Royal Dutch Airlines announced today that one of its DC6B airlines, missing for several hours, crashed into the North Sea. The plane carried 23 persons, including from nine to 12 Americans.

Two passengers identified only by the name of O'Riordan, boarded the plane at Shannon and officials said they might be Americans.

MASON CITY, Iowa (UP) Eleven persons were killed and eight were injured Sunday night when a half-battered Braniff Airways plane, searching for a landing, snapped a power line and crashed into an oat-field.

The DC3, flying from Memphis, Tenn., to Minneapolis, Minn., with 19 persons aboard, ran into a violent wind, rain and hail storm near this northern Iowa city.

The pilot, William Ploering, radioed that he would try to skirt the storm and make a landing. But minutes later, the plane smashed to earth, flipping over and strewn wreckage over an area equal to two square blocks.

The plane did not burn, probably preventing a higher death toll. The crash broke a 15-year-old Braniff record of 3,500,000 passenger miles flown without a fatal crash. The last, and only other, time a Braniff crash has claimed lives was at Oklahoma City, Okla., in 1939. Four persons were killed.

PILOT, CO-PILOT KILLED Included among the dead in Sunday night's crash were Pickering, 40, Parkville, Mo., and the co-pilot, W. B. Wilde, 31, Excelsior, Minn. The stewardess, Bettie Ann Truly of Shreveport, La., escaped and was believed to have been one of the two women who stepped from the scene in a daze.

LOMAG, ILL. (UP)—Four persons were killed and 37 were injured when the swank Santa Fe "chief" left the rails and crashed into refrigerator cars on a siding.

The crack Chicago to Los Angeles streamliner was derailed Sunday just east of this Mississippi River town, and 12 of the 13 cars went off the track. Only the diesel engine and the mail car stayed on.

The other cars piled up along the right-of-way, sideswiping refrigerator cars on an adjoining track, and knocked several of them off.

A Santa Fe spokesman said that the first chair car, which contained the dead and most of the injured, received the most damage.

Rescuers used torches to cut into the car to remove the trapped victims.

The spokesman said that one person of the 37 injured was in serious condition, but some who suffered slight injuries were treated and released. Those hospitalized were in Burlington and Ft. Madison, Iowa and Carthage, Ill.

Santa Fe headquarters in Chicago blamed the crash on a broken equalizer on the rear truck of the forward lounge car.

Man Is Injured In Freak Mishap

Junius James Weaver, 59-year-old resident of Bunnlevel, was hospitalized here today with a broken leg following a freak accident on W. Broad Street.

According to observers, Weaver was standing on the sidewalk talking when a car knocked him down, and broke his leg. The car, a 1952 Studebaker, was driven by Miss Joyce Margaret Parker of 403 N. King Avenue, Dunn.

Police Cpl. E. J. Whaley said Miss Parker was just backing and on up on the walk. Assisting with the investigation was E. C. Johnson.

In another accident this morning, Dr. David Leonards Bland, Jr., 28-year-old Negro of 1291 W. Penn Avenue, Southern Pines, ran into the back of a 1948 Chevrolet driven by Theodore Roosevelt Pope, 45, of Dunn, doing $345 damages. Dr. Bland's car, a 1954 Pontiac, was damaged $900 and the Chevrolet was damaged $35.

The accident occurred on N. Ellis Avenue, the officers reported. Johnson and Whaley also investigated this wreck.

No charges were made.

Leaps Off Bridge Just For Thrills

NEW YORK (UP)—A bearded, would-be singer from Brockton, Mass., was in critical condition today after leaping 165 feet from the Manhattan Bridge into the East River "just for the thrill."

The man, tentatively identified as Robert Berthlaume, 22, a former shoe cutter who came here in quest of a singing career, pulled himself from the water and collapsed yesterday.

Suspect Arrested On Kidnap Charge

An unidentified Negro man was being held in Dunn, N. C. today pending investigation of the kidnap and abandonment of a three-month old Negro boy in Dunn sometime Saturday.

Meanwhile, Chief Alton A. Cobb said the infant has been hospitalized here, and doctors report his condition "serious."

Chief Cobb said the boy's mother, Annie Ruth Short, around 16, reported the youth missing Saturday around 1 o'clock. However, she was unable to give any clues as to what might have happened to him at that time, Cobb stated.

Officers K. M. Fall and R. H. Aphin spent considerable time Saturday looking for the missing boy but were unable to locate him, Cobb reported. The search was continued Sunday by officers E. J. Whaley and E. C. Johnson who were also unsuccessful in finding him.

However, around 8 o'clock Sunday, Clarence Washington, Negro man who lives near Harnett County Training School, reported finding the infant in a pea patch while picking peas.

The boy was rushed to the hospital where doctors said exposure had caused his temperature to rise to 103 degrees.

Chief Cobb said today that the suspect was picked up sometime after the infant was found and has been under investigation since. (Continued On Page Two)

+ Record Roundup +

BECKY TO SPEAK - Miss Becky Lee will be guest speaker when the Business and Professional Women's Club meets Tuesday night at seven o'clock at Johnson's Restaurant, it was reported today by Sarah Neighbors, chairman of the News Service committee for the coming year.

D. A. R. BARBECUE—The Cornelius Harnett Chapter D. A. R. is sponsoring a barbecue supper prepared by Griffin's of Goldsboro Tuesday starting at 6:30 p.m. and lasting till 8:00 p.m. at Johnson Cotton Company Farm Implement Building. Barbecue chicken plates will be $1.50 and pork will be $1.25. Plates may be taken out or tables will be provided for those desiring to eat there.