Miss Mary Lou Core Exchanged Vows With John Blackman, Jr. In Church Rites

On Sunday, January 16, at 5:30 in the afternoon Miss Mary Lou Core, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Core of Dunn, Rt. 1, became the bride of John Edwin Blackman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Blackman Sr. of Newton Grove, Rt. 2 at Spring Branch Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Richard D. Smith, pastor of the bride. The couple stood under an arch trimmed in ivy before a background of pines, gladioli in floor baskets and seven branched candelabra.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. Mrs. Earl Core, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and she wore an ice blue waltz-length evening dress with matching net mitts and hat and carried a nosegay of pink carnations with streamers.

Miss Core chose for her wedding a white satin bridal gown styled with rounded neckline, detachable net yoke, long sleeves coming to a point over the wrist and gathered skirt with train. The bodice and yoke were trimmed with pearls. The tiara was of net adorned with lilies. The bride carried a white prayer book topped with a white, purple-throated orchid with streamers surrounded by white carnations.

Charles Blackman, brother of the groom, served as best man. Mrs. Core wore a blue suit with a corsage of pink carnations and Mrs. Blackman wore a navy blue dress with a yellow carnation corsage.

The ushers were Earl Core, brother of the bride, David Herring Jr., Hartwell Tart, nephew of the bride, and Junior Bass of Newton Grove.

Miss Betty Sue Dawson sang "Because," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "I Love You Truly," and "The Wedding Benediction." Miss Olive Graham Herring rendered the music. Her selections were "My Hero," "Indian Love Call," "Melody of Love," "Thine Own," "Flower Song," "Nocturne," "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice," and the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Blackman is a graduate of Mingo High School. Mr. Blackman attended Herring School and has just returned from Germany where he was serving with the United States Air Force.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Blackman wore a pink suit with navy
