

BULLETINS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(P)—Children for the third time are leading the drive for funds for a new memorial to Abraham Lincoln.

In the 1865-74 national fund-raising campaign for the Lincoln tomb here, 60,000 Sunday school children raised $20,000 or 10 per cent of the $200,000 total.

TAMPA, Fla.—(P)—General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox predicted it would require 15 million dollars for two cities to obtain American League franchises as the circuit's Realignment Committee met today to set up a list of requirements for new entries.

WASHINGTON—(P)—The United States and Australia began White House talks today on allied strategy to guard Formosa, Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific against Communist aggression.

FUQUAY SPRINGS, N. C.—(P)—Jerry Williams, star baseballer at Atlantic Christian College, has signed a contract with the Milwaukee Braves organization, his father said last night.

LONDON—(P)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill addresses the House of Commons today in debate over the hydrogen bomb. His speech was regarded as the curtain raiser on a knock-down drag-out fight by rival leaders of the Labor Party.

WASHINGTON—(P)—Democrats and Republicans laid down a fresh barrage of arguments for and against the compromise income tax cut today.

WASHINGTON—(P)—Foreign Operations Administrator Harold E. Stassen is scheduled to report to President Eisenhower today on the economic needs of the Communist-threatened Far East.

DETROIT—(P)—General Motors meets today for the first time with the United Auto Workers Union to talk over union demands for a guaranteed annual wage. The negotiations, unprecedented on any large scale in labor history, pose a possible threat to the labor peace of the last five years in the automotive industry.

ZURICH, Switzerland—(P)—The death of King Tribhuvana of Nepal brought fears today of a new political crisis in his little Himalayan kingdom which shares a 1,000-mile border with Communist-held Tibet. The 48-year old King died Saturday night in a hospital here where he had been under treatment for heart disease.

NEW YORK—(P)—The Museum of Modern Art had this advice for parents whose children smear walls with crayons or watercolor paints. "Let them go ahead, it develops creativeness and free expression."

RALEIGH—(P)—Funeral services were held at Christ Episcopal Church today for Col. John W. Harrelson, chancellor emeritus of North Carolina State College. He was 69.

SANFORD—(P)—Kinston's Red Devils, state Class AA basketball champions, placed two men on the first all-tournament team, but the only unanimous choices were Ted RRoyal of Clinton and Carl Youngkin of North Davidson.

WASHINGTON—(P)—The House Armed Services Committee today put a "must" label on construction of the Navy's controversial super aircraft carriers.

SAIGON, Indochina—(P)—Gov. Tran Van Laam of South Viet Nam narrowly escaped death in a terrorist bomb attack today and the government immediately clamped rigid new security controls on rebellious religious sects.

WAKE FOREST—(P)—All-time great basketball Dick Hemric was honored today at a special campus chapel program. Fellow students, administration and faculty officials and special guests joined in paying tribute to Hemric for his sportsmanship.

TAIPEI, Formosa—(P)—Nationalist newspapers demanded today the Finnish tanker Aruba be sunk if the navy is unable to seize it before it can deliver 13,000 tons of Jet plane fuel to Red China.

TARANTO, Italy—(P)—Twenty-four seamen were feared drowned today in a double disaster in which a Greek trawler sank off southern Italy and a British lifeboat capsized while pulling survivors from the sea. Italian officials said the 448-ton trawler Iason carrying a crew of 20 sank last night.

Little Things

(Continued From Page One)

Thursdays and named it the Thursday Afternoon Book Club. Mrs. Highsmith also told of one of the great disappointments suffered by her the first time it came her turn to serve as hostess. Mrs. Highsmith ordered pink carnations for the occasion. But, as luck would have it, Train No. 89 didn't get to town on time. However, the express man finally got there—long toward the end of the meeting—and Mrs. Highsmith was so proud of her flowers that she stopped right in the middle of the meeting to arrange them. The club was organized by Mrs. Nat Townsend, now a resident of Washington, D. C. and the late Mrs. Granville Tilghman of Dunn, mother of Myres Tilghman. With a few exceptions, membership in the club is still limited to one daughter from the family of each of the original members. A large number of the original members are still in the club. It's now official. Woodrow Turlington, assistant manager at Belk's, is reported as much improved after undergoing an operation at the Dunn Hospital Saturday.

BIRTHDAYS: Today is the birthday of Herman Barnes.

LITTLE NOTES: If you want to know anything about the pulling power of Daily Record advertising, just ask Crafon Tart out at the Open-Air Market. He advertised bananas at 3 cents a pound in a Friday afternoon issue of The Record. By 1 o'clock the next afternoon, he had sold out—5,000 pounds of them. Mr. and Mrs. George Owen are getting ready to celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary. Roger Mann of Lillington, popular banker and chairman of the county board of elections, was a visitor at the Dunn Rotary meeting Friday night. Pete Bealer, chief of the A. and P. Tea Co. in the two Carolinas, stopped at the company's new Super Market for a few minutes the other day. He's scheduled to be back for the grand opening. John Spears, prominent Lillington banker and member of the State Banking Commission, presided over a meeting of the Fourth District Bankers Association at Durham Saturday night, attended by 250 bankers. The Harnett banker made an outstanding record as a member of the big group. Dunn's new Optimism Club has changed its meeting place to the Woodman Hall, over Johnson Cotton Co. The next meeting will be Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Defense Attorneys Everett Dofferny and D. K. Stewart believe Sherwood Barefoot's sex crime conviction will be thrown out by the State Supreme Court on the basis of statements made to the jury by Solicitor Jack Hooks even if the court doesn't hold the 90-pound youth was put on trial in second jeopardy. In arguing the case to the high tribunal Tuesday, Dofferny and Stewart objected to the Hooks statement to the jurors that Barefoot is "underdeveloped in size and overdeveloped in passion." They claim this statement was prejudicial to Barefoot. Assistant Attorney General Wade Brantox argued the case for the State.

Roundup

(Continued From Page One)

Ennis has notified the 280 members to be present.

SPECIAL SERMONS—The Rev. C. M. Wilson, pastor of the Advent Christian Church at Erwin, last night delivered the first of two special sermons on the theme, "The Lost World Empire." The second will be delivered next Sunday night and will be illustrated with slides.

WOODMAN MEETING—Dunn Woodmen will hold a special meeting tonight at 7 o'clock at the lodge hall over Johnson Cotton Company. Commander Charles Core announced today. He said it would be an important session.

Sen. Morgan

(Continued From Page One)

expects to end hearings this week on all tax bills and Morgan's measure probably will be introduced tonight or tomorrow. The Finance Committee has scheduled hearings tomorrow and Wednesday on about 10 bills and Rep. William B. Rodman Jr. of Beaufort County, House finance chairman, said last week he hoped the hearings would end Wednesday. Rodman also said revenue officials expect to have accurate estimates ready by Thursday on state income for the coming biennium. The information will leave committee members in a better position to determine how many new taxes will be needed.

AT GM SCHOOL—Paul L. Strickland, Jr. of Dunn, official of Strickland Motor Co., local Buick-Pontiac dealer, is in Flint, Michigan taking a special eight-week training course at the big General Motors School. Selection to attend this school is regarded as a high honor.

SCHOOL BOARD—Principal A. B. Johnson announced today that the Dunn district school board will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock. Just as always, it will be a public meeting and open to all citizens who care to attend.

Area Phones

(Continued From Page One)

tion by Carolina Company operators, the number of calls delayed would be minimized. About 70 per cent of the local Company's long distance calls are completed to many parts of the nation by operator long distance dialing methods. Only those cases in which calls made from the Carolina Company territory or through Southern Bell territory in which operator long distance dialing procedures cannot be utilized, will Carolina Company subscribers experience any delay in completing long distance calls. The public is invited to attend.

EDDIE COLVILLE

CHARLES JONES

Pine State Now Has Retail, Wholesale Service In Area

Eddie Colville of Erwin and Charles Jones of Dunn have been appointed as local representatives of Pine State Creamery and are handling the dairy firm's wholesale and retail sales and service in the Dunn-Erwin section. Pine State has been in the whole sale business in Dunn-Erwin area for several months and last week began home delivery of its milk products. The decision to begin home delivery service came by popular demand of citizens of the area who have been enjoying the milk bought in stores and wanted it delivered to their homes. Pine State milk is delivered in refrigerated trucks. It is part of the same milk delivered each day to its customers in Raleigh.

SPLENDID ACCEPTANCE—Grady Ferrell of Raleigh, sales manager of the company's wholesale division, and Bill Allen, sales manager of the retail department, said today that the company is well pleased with the wonderful response they have received in the Dunn-Erwin section. "We are proud of the acceptance given our products and appreciate the support of citizens," they said. Both Mr. Colville and Mr. Jones are well-known throughout this section. For the past four years, Mr. Colville has held a position here with Bell Bakeries. He is a native of Erwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Colville. He married the former Miss Agnes Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell of Bunnville. They have two children, Donald, age 5, and Sharon, age 3. Mr. Jones, who resides at 408 East Divine Street in Dunn, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jones of Benson. He was born between Benson and Coats, and attended school at Benson. He has had several years previous experience in the milk business. Mr. Jones married the former Miss Pat Royal, daughter of Mrs. Roxie Royal and the late Mr. Royal. Mr. Colville is in charge of wholesale distribution in Dunn-Erwin and Mr. Jones is in charge of retail sales and distribution in the same area.

Decent Girls

(Continued From Page One)

11 jurors seated by Wednesday afternoon, when the original panel of 225 was exhausted. Herz was referring to Assistant District Attorney Anthony J. Liebler's peremptory challenges disqualifying six of the 10 women questioned as prospective jurors the first three days of the trial. One woman was disqualified with a peremptory challenge from the defense. It was learned that if Judge Valente consents, one of the jurors already accepted may be recalled to the stand for further questioning Monday.

JUROR FIGURED IN SUIT—It was learned also that Juror No. 9, Kay Brunell, 277 Park Ave., a securities saleswoman and former magazine editor, figured in a defamation suit in 1952. Miss Brunell was the plaintiff, suing a neighbor, Mrs. Raymond Schoonover, for $100,000 on charges of defamation of character. Miss Brunell, charged, in papers filed in Manhattan Supreme Court, that Mrs. Schoonover had accused her of being overfriendly with Mr. Schoonover. The case never went to trial. Last Sept. 21 a stipulation was entered in Supreme Court discontinuing the action.

Thomas Drives

(Continued From Page One)

ed asphalt track here opened the season for late model stock car racing in North Carolina. Thomas drove a 1955 Chevrolet to win $600. He had just purchased the Chevrolet from Brock Chevrolet Co. in Lillington. The victor took the lead after Weiborn, leading since the 99th lap, blew a tire on the 123rd. Thomas went the distance without a pit stop. Lee Petty of Randleman, N. C., was third and Johnny Dadd of Baltimore fourth.

Darden

(Continued From Page One)

Sacred Heart Catholic Church and active in the lay activities of the church and also took part in other affairs of the town and community. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Helen Sneeringer Darden of Dunn; one daughter, Mrs. Malcolm M. (Mary Helen) Driver of Miami; three brothers, Paul E. Darden of Siler City; Hade Darden of Annapolis, Md.; and George Darden of St. Paul; five sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Clayton of Greensboro, Mrs. Margaret Vaughn of Troy, Pa., Mrs. Lizzie Shipp of Clinton, Mrs. James Bowden and Mrs. William Monk of Newton Grove; also two grandchildren.

Committee For Chamber Named

(Continued From Page One)

President Ralph Delano of the Benson Chamber of Commerce today announced the appointment of committees to serve during the coming year. At the same time, he announced that the board of directors had selected Rick Johnson to serve as second vice president of the chamber to fill a vacancy. Following is a list of the committees: Agriculture: C. M. Blackmon, chairman and R. B. Whittington, advisor; publicity and advertising, Mrs. Margaret Smith, chairman, and Z. V. Stephenson, advisor; public and civic affairs, C. C. Casaday, chairman and Roy Medlin, advisor; membership and classification, Howard Benton, chairman, and Brantley McLamb, advisor; budget, finance, and auditing, Robert Derrington, chairman, and Walter Strickland, advisor; highway and transportation, D. W. Parrish, chairman, and J. Greenhalgh,

Morgan

(Continued From Page One)

Each district, as now set up, would still be entitled to one commissioner under the new proposal. The idea did not originate with the county board, however, but was originated by a political faction in the county. Senator Morgan said today that since getting the expression from the county board, he has heard some protests to the proposed change. The present system enables the county to have the best men available in each district since it removes the office from county-wide political entanglements. Those who oppose electing district commissioners by a county-wide vote point out that township officials are not elected by a county-wide vote and see no reason why commissioners should be. Members of the board of education are also elected by districts.

PRESENT PLAN FOPULAR

Senator Morgan said today that as far as he has been able to determine citizens are well satisfied with having the county divided into districts, with one commissioner elected from each. The county is divided on the basis of population. Those who oppose electing commissioners on a county-wide basis point out that this would keep many good men from seeking a position on the board. "The office pays a very small salary," they point out, "and the kind of business men needed on the board are not going to seek the office if they have to spend all over the county."

Only citizens of the county who could possibly benefit by the change would be political workers who offer their services for the top-dollar newspapers and printing firms of the county, which would benefit from increased advertising and printing. "The people of a district," point out the opponents, "are in a better position than anybody else to know a man's fitness and qualifications to represent them on the board." They pointed out that it is almost impossible for a person living in one end of the county to know a candidate as well as the people of his community in the other end of the county.

Senator Morgan said he felt there were some good arguments; on both sides. He said he wanted to do what most people of the county feel should be done and is anxious to hear views of the people.

SISTER DIES

Funeral services for Miss Dina L. Ashley, 49, who died in a Long Island, N. Y., hospital Thursday were held Monday at 3 p. m. at Sandy Grove Baptist Church, Lumberton. She was a sister of the Rev. J. A. Ashley of Lillington.

Sen. Morgan

New Armory For Benson Is Assured

The Town of Benson today was assured a new armory building to house its National Guard battery. C. M. Blackman, chairman of the chamber of commerce armory committee, announced that an armory site has been selected and that the necessary funds to purchase the property have been pledged by the Town of Benson and the County of Johnston. The S. P. Honeycutt property on which will be the new Highway 301, has been selected for the site. The county board has voted to match any funds provided by the town for purchase of the lot and the town board has voted to put up $2,500. The lot will cost $5,000. STATE, U. S. TO BUILD

When purchased, the lot will be deeded to the State, with the provision that an armory can be erected on it within a five-year period. The State and federal government will pay for actual construction of the armory, estimated to cost $175,000.

Mayor Roscoe Barefoot and Harold Medlin of Benson appeared before the Johnston County board of commissioners to ask for the money for the land. They pointed out that the county had paid $75 a month to the Smithfield guard unit since it was organized two years ago while the Benson unit had received no financial aid from the county. Benson's guard unit has 85 officers and men.

Townsend

(Continued From Page One)

"This is only one thing that in view of the statement swells the number of other fictitious things alleged to have been said by me. I shall now be forced to seek escape from meeting reporters." Townsend returns to work today as air attache at the British Embassy after a two-week leave. After reading his statement he entered his car then turned as if to add something but said simply, "Goodbye, thank you," and drove off.

London's latest sensation appeared in the London Sunday newspaper, The People. Dr. Alfred Blunt, bishop of Bradford, the bishop who stripped official silence from the love affair of King Edward VIII, suggested that Townsend and the Princess call off any romance. "The legitimate church attitude would be against such a marriage," he said. He pointed out that Townsend is a divorced man and that the Church of England does not sanction such marriages if both of the divorced persons are alive.

See DUNN FURNITURE COMPANY for FRIGIDAIRE

AMBULANCE SERVICE Phone 2077 CROMARTIE FUNERAL HOME DUNN, N. C.

MAKE OUR PHONE LINE!!

YOUR CLOTHES LINE!!

CALL 3449 MODERN LAUNDRY & CLEANERS Dunn, N. C.

MAKE IT COME TRUE

No Down Payment Low Monthly Payments LET US ARRANGE YOUR IMPROVEMENT LOAN We can make your wishes come true for that New Room—A New Bath Room—or any Home Repair. PHONE 4141 TODAY GODWIN BUILDING SUPPLY, Inc. N. Fayetteville St. - DUNN

LEE'S Truck Terminal ESSO 24 Hour Road And Wrecker Service PHONES 2727 2052 DUNN, N. C. FAYETTEVILLE HWY.