MEMORY LANE—Living her life over again, Mrs. C. W. Massey, Jr., of Ft. Worth, Tex., visits daughter, Deberah, in third grade. Mrs. Massey attended third grade in the same room 19 years ago. But there is much change, at that. Blackboards are green, furniture has been revolutionized. Other things change, too. "They used to call me 'cat-soup' and I had to beat their heads in," says mother. Says Deberah: "We don't do things like that." Mother's whispered comment: "I think we had more fun than they do."

IN HOSPITAL Mrs. Blanche Barefoot is in the Dunn Hospital following a fall Monday night in which she broke her shoulder bones.

ALTMANS VISITED Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Altman and daughter Becky visited his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crawford in High Point, Sunday.

ISRAELI RULE JERUSALEM (AP)—Something not required for a cabinet minister in Israel is demanded of the lowest buck private in its army. A soldier is the only person on the government payroll who must be legally married if his wife is to qualify for pension after his death. The regulation for all other persons drawing government pay says "or woman generally regarded as his wife."

Softwood type trees in Vermont forests are in great commercial demand, but softwood forest types occupy less than one-third of the states commercial forest acreage.
