

Mrs. Surles Entertains Class Tuesday Afternoon

Tommy Jones, who is moving to Lewiston, N. C. soon, was honored at a party Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock when Mrs. James Surles entertained members of her Sunday School class. Tommy was remembered by the hostess with a boy's scout canteen as a going-away gift.

During the afternoon games were played with Mike Lynch, Bessie Prescott, and Glenn Pope as the winners.

Mrs. Surles later served delicious ice cream, mixed cookies, and peanuts to the guests. Each guest was also given a favor.

Those attending the party were: Tommy Jones, Mike Lynch, Bessie Prescott, Carolyn Jordan, Sue Wilson, Glenna Pope, Jimmy Surles, Jan Dykema and Sandy Dykema.

Three Dunn Girls Attend Meet At Purdue University

Misses Alice Prince, Janice Fowler and Virginia Turlington, three Dunn girls, will leave here Sunday, August 21 to attend the National Convocation of Methodist Youth at Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana. The girls were three of the eight delegates chosen to attend from the Raleigh district and therefore consider it quite an honor to attend the national meeting.

The Dunn girls will leave Greensboro on Sunday by train and will arrive Monday at Lafayette, Indiana for the five-day convocation, which meet every four years.

The Methodist Youth Convocation will include: Worship, Drama, Prayer, Discussion groups, Music, interest groups, recreation, vocational counseling, and speakers.

Four of the most outstanding speakers will be Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, Dr. James Thomas and Bishop Gerald Kennedy.

Approximately 5,000 will attend the convocation including young people, adult workers, missionaries, and exchange students.

The three Dunn girls will return home Saturday, August 27th.

VISITED SUMMERLINS
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sloan of Raleigh visited Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Summerlin over the weekend.

Mrs. Dawson Is Hostess To Winsome Class

The Winsome Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Joe Mack Dawson with Mrs. Albert Watkins as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened with prayer offered by Mrs. Ernest Russell, after which Mrs. Frank Porter read the 126th Psalm. Mrs. Porter then gave a selected reading, entitled "Day of Beginning Again".

Following the program Mrs. Porter presided over the business session.

Later the hostesses served delectable angel food cake topped with lime sherbert, cocoanut and salted nuts.

Beautiful arrangements of roses were on the coffee table and summer poinsettias and other summer flowers also decorated the house for the occasion.

Members attending were: Mrs. Bill Barfield, Mrs. Davis Catlett, Mrs. Herman Green, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Ralph Snipes, Mrs. Jessie Weeks, Mrs. Leck Coats, and the hostesses.

Margaret's

On Saturday, Townsend, an enthusiastic horseman, will take part in a gentleman's race at the Belgian port of Ostend and then remain to watch the races at the same course on Sunday. He returns to England Sept. 4 for the Farnborough Air Show.

On Sunday Princess Margaret becomes eligible to marry without the formal consent of her sister, Queen Elizabeth II, who could never give her consent for Margaret to marry a man who has been divorced.

In the land of Romeo and Juliet the Italian press was faithfully counting the days up to the birthday.

"In four days Margaret has the right to marry Townsend," Rome's Memento Sara said on its front page.

"Is this the conclusion of the love story of the century?" asked Il Messaggero, a conservative Rome newspaper. "In a few days Margaret could announce her decision to marry Townsend."

Margaret's dilemma also aroused sympathetic comments in France where the mass circulation weekly Paris magazine Jours de France said the biggest gift she will receive

Friendly Dozen Met At Harrall Home Wednesday

Mrs. Tommy Harrall was hostess to the Friendly Dozen bridge club Wednesday night at her home on General Lee Avenue at eight o'clock. Attractive arrangements of mixed flowers were used in the living room and dining room of the Harrall home.

Mrs. Paul L. Strickland, Jr. and Mrs. William Manning of Secane, Pennsylvania were guests for the evening of bridge. Mrs. Manning is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. T. Maynard, here.

Mrs. Graham Prince won club high honors, with Mrs. Wayne Justesen winning second high. Guest high was won by Mrs. Manning while Mrs. Billy Pearsall won in a game of bingo.

During progressions the hostess served delicate assorted sandwiches and Cokes to the players.

Members playing were: Mrs. John Ciccone, Mrs. Justesen, Mrs. James Yates, Mary Libby Fowler, Mrs. Pearsall, Mrs. Grover Mitchell, Mrs. Hubert Peay, Mrs. Graham Prince, Mrs. Vic Anderson, and Mrs. Everett Dofferyme.
