REHEARSAL PARTY IS HELD FOR DETWEILER-KELLY BRIDAL GROUP

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kelly received around 50 guests at their home Wednesday night at an after rehearsal party for the members of the Detweiler-Kelly wedding party. The marriage of Miss Mary George Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Carl Kelly of Lillington, and James Detweiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Detweiler of Baltimore, Md. was to be solemnized Thursday, August 18th at 5 p. m. at the Lillington Methodist Church. The bride is the niece of Mr. Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly greeted the guests in the vestibule and the bridal couple received with them.

Leo Kelly, Jr., student at the pharmacy school at the University of North Carolina, assisted his parents in receiving.

For the occasion the Kelly home was decorated throughout in a pink color scheme. Pink roses were used in an antique crystal tumbler on a pie crust table in the living room.

In the dining room the refreshment table was covered with nylon net over pink taffeta. The cloth which was floor length, was gathered at all sides and decorated as each corner with tiny hearts of pink tulle, interspersed with pink sweet heart roses and pink ribbons.

All crystal appointments were used on the table. Pink asters and white carnations formed the centerpiece, bordered with pink candles in crystal candelabra. The small maline hearts and sweet heart roses also trimmed the base of the candles.

Lime punch, bridal cakes decorated in lilies of the valley, and homemade green and white mints were served. Mrs. Vance Detweiler, mother of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Carl Kelly, mother of the bride, served the cakes. They were assisted in serving by Miss Ann Hodges of Greensboro, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janice Harrington.

Guests included the members of the wedding party, the two families, and all who were to assist with the reception to be given Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Dean spent Sunday in Farmville as guests of Mr. Dean's brother, Hilman Dean and Mrs. Dean. Other members of the Dean family who also were there for the day were Miss Vergie Dean and George Dean of Fuquay Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Betts and two children of

Laura Sexton Honored On Third Birthday

Little Miss Laura Ann Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sexton, celebrated her third birthday with a party on Monday afternoon.

Guests were treated with pink lemonade upon their arrival. Favors were little horns. After Laura Ann had opened her gifts and blown out the three candles on her decorated cake, guests enjoyed ice cream and individual cakes, each of which was "centered" with one candle.

Those present for the party were Brenda Murray, Rita Simmons, Mary Sue Carson, Donna Ann Womble, Beverly Carson, David Temple, Sallie Shaw, Paul Shaw, Faison Shaw, Jerry Webb, Elaine Webb, Kay Batten, Wayne Batten, John Paschal, Jane Paschal, and Lee Byrd all of Lillington and Hendrix Edgerton, Jimmy, Neil and Elaine Gregory of Buie's Creek. Special guests were Mrs. Herndon Edgerton and Miss Martha Carol Gregory, aunts of Laura Ann, and Miss Virginia Johnson.

Miss Kelly Paid Many Courtesies At Lillington

Miss Mary George Kelly, whose marriage to Mr. Jimmy Detweiler of Baltimore, Md. will take place Thursday August 16, was complimented at a Coke party on Saturday morning. Hostess was Mrs. John Spears, who presented Miss Kelly a corsage of Mammie Eisenhower carnations and a silver pie server.

Miss Glenda Kelly, Miss Emily Kelly and Master Johnny Spears assisted Mrs. Spears in serving Cokes - or - coffee, potato puffs, cheese biscuits, and scones to sixteen guests.

Miss Kelly was entertained on Sunday, August 14 at a luncheon at the Reinlyn House in Raleigh. The luncheon was given by an aunt and uncle of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bethune of Fuquay. They presented Miss Kelly with a yellow orchid corsage and a gift of china.

Those present were members of the Bethune family of Fuquay, Miss Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kelly and Misses Sarah and Glenda

Kelly of Lillington.

On Monday evening, August 15 Miss Kelly was honor guest at the regular meeting of the Ace of Clubs held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Walker. Summer flowers, primarily asters and roses, were used throughout the home. Upon her arrival Miss Kelly was presented a wrist corsage of pink carnations and yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. Walker's gift to her was a wrought iron fruit bowl.

Mrs. Sidney Howell won the club high prize, while Miss Kelly was guest high. Miss Laura Mae Edwards was low scorer. Lime ice punch was served during progressions.

At the conclusion of play ice cream, topped with green maraschino cherries, individual bridal cakes iced in green, and salted nuts were served. Those present other than club members were Miss Kelly, her mother, Mrs. G. C. Kelly, Mrs. Caviness Brown, Miss Barbara Ann Howell, Miss Laura Mae Edwards, and Mrs. Gentry Johnson.

Miss Irene Lassiter and Miss May Marshbanks of Buie's Creek and Chapel Hill are vacationing in Nova Scotia. They plan to be there around two weeks.

Woman's Society Hears Pinnix At Lillington

Rev. L. C. Pinnix, pastor of the Lillington Baptist Church, was the guest speaker when the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Lillington Methodist Church held its monthly meeting Tuesday night at the church.

The Rev. Mr. Pinnix spoke on the topic, "Community Missions." He was introduced by Mrs. John W. Spears and Mrs. H. G. Aiken, society president, presided. The devotional was led by Mrs. J. C. Croome.

Around ten members of the executive board were present for a call meeting prior to the program when quarterly reports were compiled. At the business session announcement also was made of the conference School of Missions to be held next week at Duke University. Mrs. Walter Lee Johnson has been designated to represent the Lillington Society.

Douglas Schafran will arrive home Friday after the close of the summer school session at East Carolina College in Greenville.

Haywood Hamilton returned to Carolina Beach on Wednesday after visiting several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hamilton.
