TOBACCO MARKET OPENS TOMORROW

MINISTERS WON'T HAVE TIME FOR MUCH LUNCH — Despite the evidence of ketchup in the foreground, these ministers of the Pentecostal Holiness Church are not going to have much time for eating this weekend. A full schedule of activities was slated as the conference at Falcon which has drawn ministers and laymen from throughout the area approached a climax. Shown in the photo are (Back row, left to right), the Reverends

Odell Howard of Raleigh; S. A. Fann, Falcon; Jerome Hodges, Rocky Mount; Ralph R. Johnson, Whiteville; (Front row), Bishop J. A. Synan, Hopewell, Va.; W. Eddie Morris, Goldsboro; Lee Hargis of Checotah, Okla.; and H. Ray Stewart, Washington, D. C. Reverend Morris is superintendent of the North Carolina conference and manager of the Camp Meet. ## Ammons Cites Gain In Value Of Our Crops

By C. R. AMMONS
Harnett Farm Agent

Harnett County is fortunate in having that quality of human and natural resources that go to make a great agricultural county.

The agriculture activities of farmers in Harnett County are broken down into the following enterprises: Tobacco — 20,000 acres, cotton — 18,000 acres, corn — 44,000 acres, small grain — 12,000 acres, soybeans and hay crops — 2,000 acres, truck crops — 2,000 acres, and improved pastures — 5,000 acres.

The tobacco yields in Harnett County have practically doubled in the past 20 years. The cotton yields have increased by 75%. The corn yield has more than doubled along with small grain having increased by 30%. Soybean and hay crops have materially increased in acres and some improved pastures have been utilized to the extent of 5,000 acres during the past few years to a good advantage, particularly to the livestock program.

TRUCK CROPS INCREASE

Truck crops have increased in the county, being led principally by sweet potatoes, peppers, cucumbers, snap beans and some lima beans.

The livestock industry in the county for the past 15 years has grown by leaps and bounds. An illustration of this is the fact that there were no beef cattle in the county 15 years ago. Today there are about 10,000 head, some of Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus breeds. The production of hogs have grown tremendously with the availability of three daily hog markets.

Biggest Year In History Expected Here

Happy days are here again!

Dunn's Tobacco Market will swing open Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and Dunn warehousemen are ready to give out those big fat checks in exchange for the golden leaf.

Warehouses here were filled almost to the point of overflowing today and the town has taken on a carnival-like spirit as excitement mounts for the grand opening tomorrow morning.

All indications point to the biggest and most successful season in the market's six-year history.

Both the Big-4 Warehouse and the Planters Warehouse are filled for Thursday, Friday and Monday sales.

Traffic Cases Disposed Of

Harnett Recorder's Court, true to its plan to dispose of traffic cases on Tuesday, yesterday handled a dockets' session chiefly out of violations of the new regulations.

Victor Carlyle Hayes, Fuquay Springs, submitted to the charge of driving a car without an operator's license. He was taxed court costs.

Ted Wayne Godwin, Apex, Route 3, entered a guilty plea to speeding 65 miles an hour. He was fined five dollars and costs.

Jack Randolph Ragland, Buie's Creek, pled guilty to careless and reckless driving. Judgment was continued on payment of costs.

John W. Buie, Sanford, Route 6, Negro, entered guilty plea to driving with insufficient brakes. (Continued On Page Five)

Falcon Camp Meet Draws Big Crowds

One gospel tent and fifty small army tents were large enough for the Camp Meet when it started at Falcon more than a half-century ago, but the turnout this year will never get by with these facilities.

Two dormitories, housing about 600, take care of many members of the Pentecostal Holiness Church who have come here for the meeting. Others can be found with friends throughout this area.

This is the 56th annual session of the Camp Meet and conference, founded around 1900 by the late J. A. Culbreth, whose other activities included the founding of Falcon itself.

BIG WEEKEND AHEAD
Over 4000 are expected this weekend as the Camp Meet and conference of ministers and officials in the church swings into its final phase.

The Camp Meet itself, a 10-day assembly, began on Thursday, August 18. The conference, which is the professional part of the meeting and ends with the appointment of ministers to their posts, will convene Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

A report on the Holy Land, which Bishop J. A. Synan of Hopewell, Va., visited earlier this year, is looked forward to by those planning to attend the weekend activities. Bishop Synan returned from the Holy Land, where he visited Egypt and other eastern countries as well as Palestine, in April.

The Pentecostal Holiness Church of eastern North Carolina (there is a western conference as well) has 185 ministers and about 6,000 members.

ON DAD'S ACCOUNT
DES MOINES, Ia. (U-P) — Don Garson, 8, took a bottle to the grocery of Robert Hooper who was accustomed to small boys bringing in bottles to exchange for money with which to buy candy. But the boy refused the two cents, saying, "Please credit that to my dad's account."

Judge Burney Dies At Age 59

WILMINGTON (U-P) — Retired Superior Court Judge John J. Burney died in James Walker Memorial Hospital here last night after a brief illness. He was 59 years old.

Burney had retired from the bench about two years ago because of a heart condition. He was admitted to the hospital here last Sunday.

A native of Baden County, Burney had lived here since 1914 and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, the former Effie Male Barefoot of Hallsboro, and two sons, John J. Burney Jr., district solicitor, and Lewis A. Burney of the U. S. Army, stationed in Austria.

Funeral arrangements are in complete.

Plans Are Complete For Fashion Show

Everything was in readiness for the big Fall Fashion Show to be held here Thursday night at eight o'clock in Leder Brothers Department Store.

The event is the talk of the town and a capacity crowd is expected. Albert Dockery, manager of the store, said that another new entertainment feature has been added to the already-elaborate program arranged for the occasion.

A. E. Heafner, talented artist, has been added to the program and will do a skit known as "Chalk Talks," an illustrated art feature which will be of particular interest to the ladies. Tonight, the more than a dozen beautiful models will hold a dress rehearsal for the event. Arrangements and preparations for the fashion extravaganza have been underway for several weeks.

Negroes Try To Enter White School

OLD FORT, N. C. (U-P) — A crowd of 500 white citizens gathered in the elementary school yard here today as five Negro children led by a Negro man applied for entrance at the opening day's classes.

The Negroes waited on the steps as Melvin H. Taylor, McDowell County school superintendent, told them they would not be admitted.

Highway patrolmen, members of the sheriff's department and deputized voluntary firemen stood ready. The crowd gathered as word of the Negroes' appearance spread. No Negroes were reported in the crowd.

Albert Joyner, spokesman for the five elementary colored students, came to the school asking at the entrance where he might find the office of registration.

The consolidated school for white is the only one in Old Fort.

Surprise Service
ROCKVILLE Conn. (U-P) — Returning to his car after doing a few errands, Clarence A. Chapman found it ran better than ever. It seems that another car almost identical to his was parked behind him. The other motorist called a garage and ordered a grease job, oil change and other work. The garagemen serviced Chapman's car by mistake.

YES AND NO
JOHNSON, Va. (U-P) — Voters enthusiastically endorsed construction of a new school here, then turned down the bond issue proposed by aldermen to pay for the project.

FIRST OF THREE
The Daily Record today is publishing the first of three special sections devoted to the opening of the Dunn Tobacco Market and the harvesting of other crops.

Another special section will be published on Thursday and another on Friday. In these issues, business firms are extending greetings to their farmer friends.

Bela Lugosi, 73, Will Wed Tonight

HOLLYWOOD (U-P) — Actor Bela Lugosi, 73, tonight will marry a motion picture studio cutting room clerk who wrote him daily letters during his recent 90-day confinement at a state hospital where he was treated for narcotics addiction.

The actor, famed for his horror portrayals on the screen will marry Hope Lininger, 40, at the home of writer-publisher Manley P. Hall in a private ceremony.

Lugosi surrendered to authorities and asked that he be committed to the metropolitan state hospital after admitting he had used barbiturates for 20 years. He was released this month after announcing he had won his fight.

SON OF FAMED SCOTLAND YARD EXPERT

Man Kills Wife, Baby Goes To Nude Show

BROMLEY, England (U-P) — A "depressed" schoolmaster beat his wife and baby to death with a hammer and then went off to watch a nude show at London's risqué Windmill Theater, police charged today at his arraignment.

The schoolmaster is Frederick James Chapman, 32, son of the late William Chapman, former chief of Scotland Yard's famed murder squad.

Chapman pleaded innocent and was ordered to stand trial in November. Less than two weeks after his father's death, Chapman allegedly walked in from putting in the garden of his Brighton bungalow and beat his wife and 13-month-old baby to death.

"I killed the baby because I did not want her to know what I had done to her mother," Chapman (Continued On Page Two)

FOURTH SUNDAY SING — The regular Fourth Sunday Sing will be held Sunday at 2:00 p. m. at Barbour's Chapel Advent Christian Church of Four Oaks. This is combined with the Church's Home Coming Day with a dinner on the grounds. All singers are cordially invited to attend.

MIDGET FOOTBALL TO BEGIN PRACTICE — All boys who are interested in playing Midget Football this fall are asked to meet at the Armory, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The age limit for midget players is from 8-13, and weight limit is 110 pounds. The announcement was made today by City recreation manager, Gene Driver.

Deranged Airman Kills 3

BROADSTAIRS, England — A deranged Negro airman ran amok at a U. S. airbase today and shot to death two Americans and a British flier. He wounded nine other persons and finally was hunted down and died in a wild shooting spree across a crowded beach resort.

It was not clear immediately whether he was shot by his pursuers or turned a gun on himself. British police reported he shot himself fatally after being wounded by American Air Police.

British police said the wounded were four American service personnel and three British women employed at the Manston air base.

One of the dead was identified as Nelson Gresham, 20, of Philadelphia, an employee of the American Express Co. One was an American master sergeant.

The killer was identified by British police as Napoleon Green, (Continued On Page Two)

Gloria Spells Her Winnings To $16,000

NEW YORK (U-P) — Little Glorinda Lockerman, the 12-year-old Negro spelling champ who ran her winnings to $16,000 on a TV giveaway show, rides back home to Baltimore today for some boning up with the dictionary and family conferences about her TV future.

Mrs. Ennis Will Head Curb Market

Sellers on the Dunn Curb Market conferred Tuesday afternoon with Miss Lola Frichard, food conservation and marketing specialist from the State Extension Service, and Murphy Cannady, county sanitarian.

Gloria, smiling and pert in a new navy blue organdy dress, confidently spelled her way through a nonsense sentence on CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question" to earn a possible shot next Tuesday at $32,000.

Indications were that Gloria would go for bigger money. Her divorced parents, James Lockerman and Vivian Singleton, both of Philadelphia, seemed to favor a go-ahead.

"The important thing is Gloria's future," said her father. "We don't want the publicity to affect her life in any way."

button in connection with Harnett's Centennial Celebration. The Rev. Mr. Cole is holding evangelistic services in a huge tent on North Clinton Avenue. The revival is attracting increasingly-large crowds each night and the evangelists' sermons are popular with the people. (Daily Record Photo.)
