HARNETT'S

PICKS UP HIS CHECK - Five hundred and six pounds of tobacco brought in by J. A. Ennis of Coats, Route 1, went into the hands of buyers this morning. He is shown as he gets his cheek shortly after the sale. Part of his tobacco went at 64 cents a pound. Ennis has ten acres in tobacco, says he plans to bring the rest in here, too; hopes he will make enough to compensate for tobacco torn down by hall. Handing him the check is Mrs. L. H. Barnes, Jr., wife of the Plant-er Warehouse auctioneer. (Daily Record Photo.)

Dick Didn't Have Enuf Hay For Rita

HOLLYWOOD - Rita Hayworth and Dick Haymes split up because the crooner, broke and harassed by Un-cle Sam, could not support her in the luxury she learned to love as a movie queen and Indian princess, friends said

Yearning to settle her feud with Columbia Pictures and go back to work and earn her own money, Rita finally had a spat Saturday with Dick and walked out "to think things out."

She had stuck with him through his long battle with the Immigration Service, which tried unsuccessfully to deport him to his native Argentina. Now that Dick can stay in America, Rita was de-termined to make up with her studio at all costs.

No Movie Since "Sadie" She had not been in a movie since "Miss Sadie Thompson" in 1953 and could not work because of her legal troubles.

Dick opposed her peace move. He insisted that any settlement of Columbia's contract squabble with Rita must include a pact for him as producer of the siren's films.

"I'm still very, very bitter about Columbia," Dick told me recently.

"I'm sure studio officals are behind the Immigration Service's campaign to haunt me."

"Bad Business Advice"

Friends said the 37-year-old Ritaput up with Dick's "bad business advice" until proverty got lardown and she announced their separation yestedray.

Dick explained the rift this way:

DETROIT (P) American Motors and CIO United Auto Workers Union today agreed on a new three-year contract which extended the guaranteed wage to the auto industry's "Little Three."

settlement automatically signaled the end of an eight-hour strike by 24,000 American Motors employes at seven plants in Mich-

They went on strike when a midnight deadline passed without an agreement.

With only slight variations, the new American Motors contract follows the Chrysler contract negotiated vesterday and those negotiated earlier this summer with Ford and General Motors. American Motors matched the Chrysler contract by including office and salaried workers in the plan which guarantees workers up to 65 per cent of their normal take-home pay during a half-year of layoff.

American Motors workers received the same economic package grasted by the "Big Three" producers. It includes six-cent hourly pay increases during each of the next three years, improved pen-sion, hospital and medical plans and an extra day's vocation. One teature of the new AMC pact was to provide for 3,000 workers who were "displaced" after American Motors was formed last year through the merger last year of Nash and Hudson.The workers, who had lived in Detroit most of their lives, gult rather than move to Wisconsin when certain Hudson operations were transferred there. Today's settlement left only two aute companies still not counted on guaranteed wage contracts. They are Studebaker-Packard and Kaiser-Willis, which along with AMC make up the "Little Three."
