IN CIRCULATION ... NEWS PHOTOS ... ADVERTISING COMICS AND FEATURES

VOLUME 5

TELEPHONES 3117 - 3118

DUNN, N C., WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 19, 1955

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NO. 227

E, DULLES HOPEFUL O

POLICE PROTECTION FOR PETER-RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend is protected by London police as a crowd crushes around him as he attempts to enter his car after leaving his apartment in Lowndes Square. Popular in his own right as the pilot who shot down the first enemy plane in the Battle of Britain, the 40-year-old divorced father of two children has become the center of speculation after two visits with Princess Margaret.

GRIEF - STRICKEN PARENTS - THEIR HOUR OF SUPREME SORROW

Their Sons Slain, No Reason

CHICAGO (P) - What do parents do when the news comes that their young boys have been murdered?

The Petersons' home is only

And the murdered boys' neigh-

One thing was sure—there was

were, indeed, good boys.

bors

and teachers agree. They

These They cry, of course. And they raised in Germany, returning in remember. And they sit in their his teens to become a tailor. He chairs, staring at the walls won-dering how it could have hap-dren. Little pened wondering what they have left to live for. left to live for.

All these things, and more, were going on today in two modest three smaller children, aged 3 to Jhings

By HOOVER ADAMS

up in old-fashioned clothing, Ge-store just a little more closely.

walked into his store and said,

"Good morning," replied Unele

George, very casually.
"I'd like to buy a box of Tube

Rose snuff." said the lady.
"Yes, Ma'am," replied the Dunn

and the lady gave him the money

'Which kind did you want,

LITTLE NOTES ABOUT

PEOPLE AND THINGS

He thinks he'd better.

'Good morning,'

or plain?'

mouth.

over herself.

going on today in two modest brick bungalow homes os the rorthwest side of Chicago.

Last Sunday two brothers, John, 13, and Anton Jr., 11, left the Anton Schuessler home. Their friend, And the wordered hours. ton Schuessler home. Their friend, Robert, 13. said goodbye to his pa-The next time a celebration rents at the Malcolm Peterson rolls around and the women dress

About six hours later all three orge Upchurch is going to look at boys were murdered. Their naked each lady who comes into his bodies were found Tuesday, dumped in a forest preserve ditch five miles from their homes. They had On Saturday morning, a lady wearing a bonnet and long dress been strangled.

The parents heard the news ober the radio and from newspaper re-

Hours later, the mothers sat numbly in their chairs. The fathers paced about, trying at the same time to soothe their wives and voice their own bitterness.

There was Mrs. Schuessler, 37, noaning "My life . . . my arms . . "Sweet, of course," replied the customer, who had a tooth brush sticking out the corner of her sticking out the corner of her

Her 41-year-old husband returns Uncle George gave her the snuf: from the morgue, pulling on a and started to walk out, smiling all fore his wife, sobbing "Mother, over herself."

WAS COMBAT MEDIC

Pruett was on the lines for over (Continued On Page Four)

She turned around as she start- It was not always Schuessler's (Continued On Page Two) land. Born in Chicago, he was

City-Wide Revivals Big Success

The exciting days of Centennial Week have been succeeded by large - scale rellgious observances in Dunn Churches. Simultaneous re vival services are being held in the several congregations.

For this "Church Loyalty Week —the first in Dunn's history—visit-ing ministers have been invited here to conduct regular daily and evening services RECEPTION HELD Last evening there was a recepion at the home of the Rev. E. P. Russell, pastor of the First Baptist Church. This was attended by all visiting ministers, and by local ministers and their wives.

A luncheon will be held at Hood Memorial Christian Church

Each morning of this week, radio station WCKB has featured a 15minute talk by one or another of the visiting speakers. On Monday and Tuesday, the speakers were Rev. J. Glenn Blackburn, visiting the First Baptist Church, Rev. J E. Carlington, visiting Divine St

Today's radio message was deivered by Rev. Don Carroll, who is at the Glad Tidings Assembly of God church. Thursday the speak-er will be Rev. Claude MacDonald, visiting Hood Memorial Christian, and Friday Rev. O. N. Todd, speaker at Gospel Tabern de.
Divine Street Methodist has been

(Continued On Page Seven)

1956 Plymouth

Plymouths new aerodynamic 1956 cars will be displayed by dealers in thousands of dollars has been de-Dunn and Coats beginning Friday morning and huge crowds are expected to see this wonderful new nothing of the juvenile delisfuent in any of the boys. They played It will be shown at Dickey Moclose to home and their parents tors and at W. and S. Motor Comgenerally knew what they were pany in Dunn and at Coats Motor doing. Until Sunday. (Continued On Page Four)

REV. ED McGEE

REV. EARL SHOTWELL

EVANGELIST AND SINGER Revival services are now in progres at the East Erwin Baptist Church. Rev. Ed McGee, pastor of Calvary is the evangelist and Rev. Earl Shotwell, student at Campbell College, is leading the singing. Rev. Blly Fox is pastor of

New Chemical Controls Weeds RIVERSIDE, Calif. (P) - A new

weed control technique expected to save commercial rose growers veloped on the University of California campus here.

A single application of the new chemical has been found to provide effective control of weeds during the spring months when grow-

Conference Is Held At Denver Today

DENVER (P) - Secretary of State John Foster Dulles reported after a conference with President Eisenhower today that he and the chief executive shared a "measured hope" for concrete achievements from the forthcoming Big Four foreign ministers meeting in

Dulles, following a 25-minute session at the President's bedside at Fitzsimons Army Hospital, said re expected no "spec:acuiar results" from Geneva but that "any results at all would mark an advance on most if not all of our prior conferences with the Soviet Union."

Dulles covered the Geneva agenda again with the President and reported the chief executive was pleased that he, Dulles, planned to stop in Rome for brief conferences with top Italian leaders before going on to the foreign ministers conference

CERTAIN RESULTS EXPECTED

"I go to Geneva with the assurance that I have behind me President who fully knows the is sues and who has given me a full and comprehensive mandate to speak for our nation at that conference," Dulles said at a news conference

He said he thought the Genev eting promised to bring forth (Continued On Page Three)

Harnett Hogs

RALEIGH P-Double Z Ranch of Durham won blue ribbons today for the open champion bull and North Carolina champion bull in the Hertford class of beef cattle judging at the 88th North Carolina State Fair.

Harnett and Johnston County farms almost swept honors in the ers normally are forced to weed by Duroc class of the senior swine hand. (Continued on Page Two)

LITTLE MAN, BIG NOISE — Drummer for the Dunn High School band is Joseph Campbell. He's shown here marching with the band during the Centennial Celebration parade here Saturday. Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Campbelly. (Daily Record

"STOLEN LOVE WILL BRING YOU SORROW"

Romance Ends In Murder,

MIAMI (IP) - A soldier's suicide note today told the story of his love for a major's wife that began with their headlined flight across Germany and ended in blazing gunfire, suicide and murder at a busy Miami intersection.

George D. Bryson, Jr., 32-yearold combat veteran of two wars,

"This ends what was once a beautiful romance," the note sald. and fell dead across her body.

. Witnesses said Bryson met Mrs. Hess at an intersection near where wrote the note Tuesday a few hours she worked as a waitress. They before he pumped two bullets into quarreled violently and slapped at his mistress Mrs. Sylvia Dahl Hess, each other. Then Bryson took a gun (Continued On Page Seven)

John Hodiak Dies

HOLLYWOOD (P) - Actor John Hodiak died of a heart attack today at his home in the San Fernando Valley.

native of Pittsburgh.

Hodiak was the son of Ukranian immigrants Walter and Ann Pagorzelliec. The family moved to began his acting career three years Abner" in a Chicago show. Two later in Russian and Ukranian years later MGM signed him. plays in a parish there.

extent he won a scholarship in

The stage and screen star, who dramatics at Northwestern Univera "Bell for Adono," was 41 and a baseball offer in preference to acting.

His professional career actually began with radio parts and, in Detroit when he was eight, and he 1940 he originated the part of "Li'l

He was married in 1946 to ac-The young actor, taiented to the tress Anne Baxter, They later were (Continued On Page Seven)

Shivers Tells Adlai; Quit Playing Coy

POINT CLEAR, Ala. (P) - Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, who led his state into the Eisenhower column in 1952, said today Adlai Stevenson "cannot lie behind the log and be coy if he hopes to be nominated" for President by the Democrats next year.
Shivers made his comment at the Southern Governors Conference 1952 presidential campaign, said he conference agenda today was a panel discussion on water conser-vation, but Shivers held a news fine men." conference at which political sub-

The only official business on the onference agenda today was a man in 1956 he can support. He said the party has "a world of very

He said he personally does not ects were mentioned.

The Texas governor, who confer believe that Stevenson, "one of the (Continued On Page Seven)

The Marilyn Monroe Story

Marilyn Monroe has been a restless, hungry dreamer most of her life. Many of her dreams have been summoned to drive away old sadnesses. Her youth was not a happy one Born Norma Jean Mortenson, she never knew her father, and a long ilness kept her mother away from her Until she was 1 1-2, she was a public ward. She lived at 12 different foste homes in Los Angeles. Shy, puzzled, skinny; the kids at one school called her "Norma Jean the Human Bean." Her first foster parents told her dancing, card-playing and movies were "works of the devil." At her next home, where she lived with a pair of movie extras, she was taken to the picture shows and taught to do a little-girl "Hula" Her childhood is a memory of oing to a new school alone, of sitting aione at long afternoon movies, of a foster mother who asked a teacher to take Norma out of a class Christmas play be-cause she was afraid this bashful, stuttering girl would forget her

It was the sort of life to drive child to dreams - and to seif-orphan invented solitary games. On a reading spree she acquired a crush on Abraham Lin-("He's like a father to me"), and her dreaming brought her her first artistic recognition i nthe form of a (Continued on Page Two)

Pruett Joins Staff OfThomasWalgreen

IRVIN PRUETT