Hubert Hudson Is In Japan

YOKOSUKA, Japan (FHTNC)—Among those who reported in September to the U. S. Fleet Activities at Yokosuka, Japan was Hubert F. Hudson, Jr., machinery repairman first class, USN, son of Mrs. Ada L. Hudson of 500 S. Broad St., Dunn. He entered the service in 1943. The Yokosuka station is the largest U. S. Naval installation in the Western Pacific.

Coats To Return To California

LONG BEACH, Calif. (FHTNC)—Everette C. Coats, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeb V. Coats of Route 1, Linden, is scheduled to return to Long Beach, California in late October aboard the destroyer USS Trathen. While on a six-month cruise in the Far East, the ship operated with fast carrier Task Force 77. Training exercises included anti-submarine and anti-aircraft exercises, shore bombardment and plane guarding for aircraft carriers. The Trathen visited Pearl Harbor, T. H.; Midway Island; the Philippines; Hong Kong, and ports in Japan and Formosa.

George Bass Takes Course

Warrant Officer George C. Bass, whose wife, Sumiko, and father, Jonah Bass, live on Route 5, Dunn, recently was graduated from the ten-week equipment maintenance officers course at The Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va. The course taught engineer officers maintenance, repairs and operation of heavy construction equipment. Bass, a veteran of more than seven years' Army duty, has received the Army of Occupation Medal for service in Japan and the UN and Korean Service Ribbons.

Asthma Patients Killed By Smog

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Two asthma patients died and more than 200 others were treated at hospitals between midnight and dawn today as atmospheric conditions, including smog, touched off one of the worst conditions for asthma sufferers in many years. A Charity Hospital doctor described the condition of the patients as "unusually severe" and said the rush in the emergency room was "the worst in memory." Dr. George Ramsey said "It's a miracle we didn't lose more."

ALUMNI MEETING—A general meeting of the Pineland-Edwards Military Institute Alumni Association will be held on the campus at Salemburg, N. C., Sunday, October 30, 1955. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Pineland College at twelve o'clock noon and at this meeting a report on Alumni activities will be made. All alumni of Pineland College and Edwards Military Institute and of their associated schools are requested to be sure to attend this meeting and to bring their children with them.

sat down. The couple talked for about 10 minutes. Then he stood up, stepped quickly behind his wife and shot her in the head. Hunt warned about 10 other employees to "stay back," pressed the gun to his heart and pulled the trigger. The gun did not fire. He again pulled the trigger and it discharged. Hunt fell close to his wife's body. He dragged himself closer, lay his head beside her and died.
