

THE "KINK" GETS A KISS—Mrs. W. G. H. Latham, Pittsburg, Pa., housewife who hunts in the Peruvian jungles as a hobby, gives a good-night kiss to "Honey Bunch," a kinkajou. The pet likes to be dressed in doll's clothing, responds to affection and quickly adjusts to civilized living.

Buie's Creek Hi School News

By Barbara McLamb
Our school has indeed had a very busy week. On Wednesday, October 12, the entire high school enjoyed a day of fun in Angier at the Centennial Parade. The following day the seventh and eighth grades were in Coats for the parade there.

Thursday the photographer made individual pictures of everyone in school. He returned Friday for all group pictures. These will be featured in The Creek when it is complete. The annual staff has been busy with these pictures, snapshots, and other attractions, including the superlatives elec ed last week.

Clan Meets At Buie's Creek

The Clan Macleod Society of the Carolinas, Inc. had its fall meeting, Friday, October 14, at Buie's Creek. The Clan met in the Buie's Creek at the invitation of Harnett County Centennial, Inc.

The business meeting was held in the Buie's Creek High School Auditorium. The Clan voted to give a $100 scholarship annually to a student at Flora Macdonald College. This scholarship was awarded to Miss Vivian Morrison for the 1955-56 school year.

The most important business discussed was the proposed visit of Dame Flora, Chief of the Clan Macleod, Dunvegan Castle, Isle of Skye, Scotland. Mrs. Flora Macleod is presently visiting in Canada and has been invited to visit with the Clan Macleod of the Carolinas.

Tentative plans are for her to visit South Carolina in January. Definite plans cannot be made until the date of the visit is set, however, general plans are for a luncheon and a reception in Columbia for Dame Flora. All members and friends of the Clan Macleod will be notified of the date.

Miss Vivian Morrison of Flora Macdonald College entertained the group by playing the bagpipes. After a delightful picnic supper served in the cafeteria of Buie's Creek High School, members visited the Centennial Museum in Lillington.

Quite a few of the members of the Clan Macleod remained for the presentation of Paul Green's symphonic drama "The Highland Caid" at Campbell College Friday evening.

NO RIVAL IN HOME
A girl who deliberately stalls upstairs after the front doorbell rings to announce her date is pretty sure of a couple of things. There is no rival in the family living room more formidable than little sister: with the braces on her teeth. And secondly, she knows that relief will overshadow impatience when she finally appears to deliver the unklinson and her two daughters, Mrs. Cora Begester and Mrs. Alice Ince. Officers said the three admitted beating "a woman."

The three were placed under $1,500 bond and released for a hearing in two weeks at Recorder's Court in Hillsboro.

Girls Learn A Lot By Leaving Home

NEW YORK (AP) — A girl must leave home to learn a lot of things — such as how to appreciate home cooking and when not to keep a man waiting.

Second-rate restaurants and third-rate boarding houses do wonders for finicky eaters. But first-rate residences for working girls, especially designed for young girls who have just stepped from the protection of home and college campus into the city workaday world, bring the most amazing transformation.

Here girls are cured in a single evening of a malady their parents long since had decided was hopeless. They arrive in the city victims of chronic tardiness, which has been marked for years by the presence of countless young men in family living rooms, waiting impatiently while their dates dawdle at the dressing tables upstairs.

What turns the girls so abruptly into paragons of social promptness? Well, in a word, competition.

who recently moved into a woman's hotel.

ONCE WAS ENOUGH
"At home I always was a half hour late getting ready for a date," she continued. "But once was enough here. The look on my date's face when I walked across the hotel lobby did it. I've been ready on time ever since."

Was he glowering? No, the young man was wearing an expression of dazed delight.

Quite obviously he hadn't minded the 30 minute wait. With a blissful smile he was engrossed in a favorite male pastime—gazing at pretty girls. The lobby was full of them, our informant noted with alarm, coming in from their jobs or going out for dinner.

This setting, plus the sudden awareness that the free enterprise system exists in the social side of the business world, and each girl must act promptly to protect her own social security, causes the big change.

And the men still are the losers. Just when they were beginning to enjoy waiting.
