

MR. AND MRS. RAY McARTAN

Ray McCartan, Thelma Bonkemeyer Wed In Presbyterian Church In Chadbourn

The First Presbyterian Church in Chadbourn was the scene, October 23rd, at 4:30 p. m. for the double ring ceremony uniting Thelma W. Bonkemeyer and Ray Mundy McCartan. The Rev. Leslie Tucker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Dunn, officiated. Mrs. Shelby Billard, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mr. Chris Spivey, soloist, sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction. The vows were spoken before a background of floor baskets holding white mums, and white tapers in seven branched candelabra illuminated the church. Ushers were William A. and Robert C. McCartan, brothers of the groom. The bride and groom entered the church together and were unattended. She was attired in an original waltz-length two-piece dress of ice blue wool and satin with a lace trim on the skirt. She wore a matching hat and shoes and carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid. For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a jet brown suit with matching hat and purple throated orchid. The groom's mother wore a royal blue costume suit with black accessories and white orchid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Derrick received friends and out-of-town guests at a reception at their home. For traveling the bride changed to a two-piece navy blue suit with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her prayer book. After a northern wedding trip, the couple will soon make their home in Dunn. On Saturday evening there was a dinner party at the Anchorage Club at Lake Waccamaw. Mrs. McCartan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hathaway of Goldsboro and is a graduate of the Chadbourn schools. Mr. McCartan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John William McCartan of Dunn and graduated from Dunn high school. He is employed as an Eastern North Carolina salesman for the Dixie Cup Company.
