ERWIN STRIKERS TO RETURN TO WORK

Offers Vote Today To Allow Union To Settle Grievances

Two thousand Erwin Mill workers are going back to work, probably on Monday. Forty-two striking doffers offered a concession by the company, were talked into letting the union handle the dispute from here out.

Boyd Payton, Southern Director of the Textile Workers of America, CIO, came in from Charlotte this morning, met with the doffers at nine o'clock, and brought a vote on terms he worked out with Erwin Mill officials.

WEEKLY PATROLL $90,000

The strike began a week ago Wednesday in the two big plants in Erwin. Workers at the mill, who take home $90,000 a week in their paychecks, lost salaries as the stoppage continued. Early conferences between the mill and the cloth doffers seemed to lead nowhere.

Before the doffers voted to come to terms this morning, a pre-vote was taken and the doffers agreed that, whatever the outcome, they would abide by the results.

SETTLEMENT TERMS

Lacy Dawkins, general manager of the local at Erwin, told The Daily Record shortly before noon today that the doffers voted to settle the unauthorized (by the union) strike on these terms:

- (1) That the company rescinds its recent order for a change in duties of the cloth doffers.
- (2) That all employees return to their jobs as promptly as possible beginning Monday, under same conditions and status as existed prior to the order for change.
- (3) That a conference be held at 10:30 a. m. on Monday in the company's office at Durham to consider all problems.

TWO WEEKS GRACE

The settlement provided that if the company and doffers don't come to an agreement on Monday, the company will serve notice of proposed changes and will allow two weeks without prejudice or effect on paragraph 9 of article 7 of the contract before the proposal becomes effective.

Pastor Refuses To Allow Vote On His Firing

By TED CRAIL, Record Staff Writer
Seventy members of the Second Baptist Church sang a hymn, said their prayers, and listened attentively if reluctantly to church business last night and then the free-for-all started.

A group of members, several of them wives of the six men ousted from the church several weeks ago, sought to bring to an end the 11-year pastorate of Rev. E. C. Keller. They didn't succeed.

Introduced at the height of the stormy discussion, a "motion to adjourn" was accepted by the chair—occupied by Rev. Keller—and on the vote which followed the front and back rows split solidly. Defenders of Rev. Keller won the vote 36-32.

BANGS CHURCH DOORS

One member, C. A. Holland, strode angrily out as the voting started, banging the doors of the church as he went. His wife followed him.

The evening's outcome was a hard blow for Derwood Godwin, local real estate man who led the fight to separate Rev. Keller from his position. Godwin claimed later that a "secret ballot" on his motion to dissolve the pastorate would have gone against the pastor.

THE MOTION

Whereas, our pastor E. C. Keller, officiated March 26, 1954, 1954 effective March 26, 1954, duly accepted by the church; and,

Whereas, the church voted a 6 months extension of the effective date to October 1, 1954, and,

Whereas, the church voted on Sept. 19, 1954 against calling a new pastor by extending said effective date 12 months further, to expire October 1, 1955, and,

Whereas, no official recommendation to extend an indefinite call to E. C. Keller, or any other candidate, has been presented or (Continued On Page Two)

Graham Tries Out Intellectual Role

CAMBRIDGE, England (P) — A new Billy Graham changed from serge suit to cap and gown and tried out his common-folks preaching on the intellectually elite this week.

The meeting of minds was polite but enthusiastic.

The evangelist came with his North Carolina drawl and dogeared Bible into the big-brain country of Cambridge University.

His style has changed, his listeners have changed, and his surroundings have changed. But the effect has been the same.

Conservative and intellectual Cambridge turned out wholeheartedly.

Congregations packed Great St. Mary's Church from the first night and overflowed to extra seats in the aisles. Listeners filed two other churches that got Graham's speech (Continued On Page Three)

Rock Hudson Weds Agent's Secretary

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — Actor Rock Hudson, 29, and Miss Phyllis Gates, 26, his agent's pretty brunette secretary, honeymooned in secret today.

The actor and his bride drove off for their honeymoon shortly after they were married there last night by the Rev. N. B. Thorpe of Trinity Lutheran Church.

The couple eloped from Hollywood. They had been dating for a year and gossip columnists frequently had predicted their marriage.

The actor frequently was quoted as saying he wouldn't think of marriage until he was 30. His 30th birthday is next week. His picture recently appeared on the cover of Life magazine, listing him as Hollywood's most handsome bachelor.

TWICE DIVORCED BY SAME WIFE

Sailor Kills Wife, Children And Self
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (P) — A second divorce from the same woman was blamed today for provoking a sailor to shoot and kill his wife and two young children and then commit suicide, police reported.

Officers said George H. Smith last night shot his wife, Anne Ruth, 27, his daughter Connie, 8, and his son George Jr., 6, with a .22 caliber automatic rifle. Then turned the gun on himself.

Neighbors said the couple came here from Greenville, Ga., 18 months ago.

Before the shooting yesterday, Mrs. Smith appeared in court to file her second divorce action against the sailor. The Smiths were divorced several years ago. She married another man, then divorced him and remarried Smith.

A neighbor, Rose Marie Jaromczyk, 17, told officers Mrs. Smith came to her before the shooting and asked that she go to the Smith home and take care of the children. Mrs. Smith returned home. Miss Jaromczyk was preparing to leave for the Smith residence when she heard the shots.

Mrs. Smith was found lying near the front door of the home. Smith was in the doorway between the kitchen and living room and the children in the living room. Smith, his wife and their daughter were dead when police reached the home. The boy died later.

Harnett Polio Fund Sent To National

In an unprecedented move to save the March of Dimes nationwide program of providing for the necessary care of polio patients, the Harnett County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has transferred $6,000.00 of its "surplus" funds to the national organization.

In announcing the payment, Mr. Roy G. Cameron, chairman of the chapter, explained that the money was to be earmarked and pooled for redistribution among chapters of the National Foundation which are confronted with bills for patient care beyond the limits of their financial resources.

"We have made this payment," he said, "in compliance with a call issued by President Basil O'Connor of the National Foundation to all chapters with current surpluses beyond their estimated needs for this year.

"Our county has received Epidemic Aid totaling more than $19,000.00 during our years of high polio incidence," Mr. Cameron emphasized. "The money we have sent this year to aid other stricken counties brings to $12,196.12 the amount we have been able to repay to the Epidemic Aid Fund over the years. I wish to stress that we are not legally obligated to pay back the aid given us in the past, but we do feel a moral (Continued on Page Two)

Constable Freed In Hunting Case

Two Harnett County game warden, two men and five bird dogs splined from the air as officers were on a routine patrol, could add up to but one thing—hunting out of season.

But Magistrate M. B. Stewart of Lillington took a more lenient view and acquitted Constable W. B. Castleberry and Jack Howard late Wednesday of hunting birds in closed season.

Robert Wright, Harnett Wild Life protector and Jim Sullivan, Wild Life pilot were flying low over Western Harnett, they told the magistrate, when they saw a red pickup truck in the thinly wooded area. Nearby, they spied two men and five bird dogs climbing a hill.

Game wardens in the air quickly radioed wild life patrol car the direction, and the car went immediately to the scene. Supervisor Ed Cain, Cumberland County Protector Jack Canady, Wild Life Protector Oscar Chadwick and Special Protector Stacy Forbis answered the call.

In a short time two men with guns and five bird dogs appeared. Wardens recognized, to their surprise, a Harnett County constable and a friend, Jack Howard. Castleberry and Howard insisted they were squirrel hunting. A search revealed no birds, nor any squirrels. (Continued On Page Five)
