PARIS (AP) — The National Assembly voted Socialist Premier Guy Mollet into office early today with an overwhelming majority that promised him solid "third force" backing against the Communists and the right-wing Poujadists.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Anthony Eden wind up their talks today with a top-secret discussion of nuclear energy, including chances of controlling East-West H-bomb tests.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Minnesota Republican leaders announced they are entering President Eisenhower's name today in the state's GOP presidential primary March 20. Sen. Edward J. Thye (R-Minn.) and other party leaders planned to call at the secretary of state's office with petitions signed by about 1,000 voters to file Mr. Eisenhower's name.

NEW YORK (AP) — Although progress is slow, science definitely is making headway in its search for ways of preventing human arteries from "hardening" and stopping the "hardening" process once it has started.

CORTINA, Italy (AP) — Madeleine Berthod of Switzerland was declared the unofficial winner of the women's Olympic downhill ski race today as America's Andrea Mead Lawrence failed in her third bid for a gold medal in the 1956 winter games.

CHICAGO (AP) — George Buck Weaver's dream of clearing his name may come true someday, but it will be too late. Weaver, 64, once a famed third baseman with the Chicago White Sox, collapsed suddenly and died Tuesday on a South Side street not far from his home. He apparently suffered a heart attack.

WILSON (AP) — Atlantic Christian's defending champions moved into a second place tie with Elon today in the North State Conference standings.

Little Things

Why welcome her with open arms when it meets again. All the guys around town are still talking about and whistling over those pictures of Jayne Mansfield in the current issue of Playboy. What a doll. That gal out-evens Marilyn Monroe. Nothing plain about that Jayne. Right now, she's getting twice as much publicity, too. She, Anita Ekberg and Sophia Loren are in just about all the magazines. Because of the smash hit she made in "I'll Cry Tomorrow," Susan Hayward is also getting publicity in all the national mags. McCall's features the lovely lady this month. Susan has been very much in the news ever since her suicide attempt. It seems that almost any sort of publicity scandal—divorce, raids, etc.—only serve to make movie stars more popular. Attendance at Robert Mitchum's movies increased 40 per cent after he was arrested with Lila Leeds in that dope raid. And look what happened to Marilyn Monroe because she posed nude for that calendar. Speaking of dope raids, a local addict was in the hospital at Lexington, Kentucky at the same time Lila Leeds was a patient there. Celebrities get special treatment out there she told us. Some of them go around wearing masks so nobody will recognize them. Some even wear hoods over their head to make sure!

BIRTHDAYS: Monday was the birthday of Ray B. Tart, Mary Margaret Dudley and Tom Royal. Celebrating yesterday were Marvin Wade and Claude L. Smith. Today is the birthday of Polly Pope Clapp, Ralph Dudley and Charlie Upchurch.

THINGAMAJIGS: Peggy Bryan is a good-natured hospitable gal who likes to give newcomers a good impression of Dunn and to help make them feel at home. Peggy found out that H. T. Komer, the handsome new A & P manager, is fond of chocolate so she baked the lucky guy a chocolate pie. Now wasn't that sweet! And we've been knowing Peggy since she was in diapers and we haven't seen any of her pies yet. That's discrimination against the homefolks! But then all of us can't be handsome like Komer, so no pies for us. He says Peggy is a good cook, too. Lawrence Marshburne, one of the hardest-working guys in town, took his family to Philadelphia for a couple days rest and vacation this weekend. Lawrence says they had a big time. Jan Garber, the old maestra who used to make pretty music for dances in Dunn, is back at the Blue Room of the Hotel Roosevelt in New Orleans. Nobody but nobody can play "Sweethearts on Parade" like Garber. He and Pete Shell of Dunn are good buddies, played together years ago. James said Buttes Becker played for the dairymen's dance at Pinehurst. Remember Bubbles whose theme song is, "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles?" He used to play at the Hotel Sir Walter in Raleigh and he also played for our Junior-Senior Dance—that was 19 years ago, mind you. No wonder the little wife keeps reminding us that we're getting old. Dan it is. Dunn Presbyterians are discussing a big new building program. Members of the committee met with the Rev. Leslie Tucker Sunday night. A big attendance is expected at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday night.

THINGS TO DO: Monday was the birthday of Ray B. Tart, Mary Margaret Dudley and Tom Royal. Celebrating yesterday were Marvin Wade and Claude L. Smith. Today is the birthday of Polly Pope Clapp, Ralph Dudley and Charlie Upchurch.

Announcement of the winners was made last night at the annual meeting of the Central Girl Scout Council held in the First Baptist Church, Sanford. More than 300 adult leaders from the five county area attended including a delegation of 20 from Lillington, and also representatives from Dunn and Erwin.

For the first time Senior Scouts were privileged to attend an annual council meeting. Out of the 149 Senior Scouts in the council, 69 were on hand eager to hear the announcement of the Round-Up winners made by Barbara Morgan, Lillington, Senior Scout.

Election and installation of new officers, report of the executive secretary, Miss Cathryn Creasman, and a report of outgoing finance chairman, J. G. Gilbert of Pinehurst, featured the meeting. Mrs. Audrey Kennedy of Southern Pines presided at the banquet which featured decorations contributed by Dunn Troop 23. Mrs. Kennedy has another year of a two year term to serve, and other officers chosen by ballot of registered adult members were: Mrs. P. R. Jackson, Pineboro, second vice-president; Mrs. C. J. Harrington of Sanford, treasurer. Both will serve two years.

Five members of the board of directors also chosen on a rotating basis included: Mrs. W. P. Davis, Southern Pines, membership chairman; M. S. Whitted, Jr., Sanford, finance chairman; Mrs. J. M. Caddell, Sanford, office and staff chairman; Mrs. E. P. Schulken, Sanford, program chairman; and Mrs. A. C. Dutton, Southern Pines.

Truman Has Praise For Ike's Reply

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today he thought President Eisenhower's reply to Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin's friendship treaty proposal was "the best thing he's done in foreign affairs since he's been in the White House."

He expressed the opinion in answer to a newsman's question as he arrived here by train for several days of politicking in New York and New England.

A newsman remarked that the 71-year-old former President looked healthy enough to run for the presidency.

"I don't think any man can be healthy enough for the presidency," he replied.

Mrs. E. M. Slaughter, Sr. left Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends in Roxboro.

and ten year service. In the list of five year adult workers were Mrs. Wesley Coats of Dunn, Mrs. Charlie Morton, Mrs. James Renn, Mrs. Mrs. Brantley Matthews, Mrs. J. H. Blackman of Lillington.

Miss Creasman was among the four receiving ten year awards. Prior to joining the council as executive secretary, she was for seven years a senior troop leader in Lillington.

A Sanford woman, Mrs. Gilliam Anderson, received the Thanks Badge, highest award given to an Adult Scouting worker. She also received a 15 year service award. The presentation was made by Miss Sophia White, new field worker for the council, who is a former member of the Boone Trail School at Manners.

A Lillington senior Scout, Emily Kelly, led the singing of the Wayfare's Grace which preceded the meal and the adjournment song, "Peace of the River," sung by the senior scouts.

The finance chairman, J. G. Gilbert, reported that out of an operating budget of $11,223, the sum of $9,442.08 is in hand. Lillington was one of the three towns which over-subscribed its quota. The others were Pinehurst and Sanford. Lillington contributed $652.55. Erwin contributed $500. Dunn and Angier will make contributions out of the United Fund.

Mrs. W. A. Johnson, who succeeds Mrs. J. H. Black as Lillington community chairman of Girl Scouting, headed the Lillington delegation.

The round up winner from Lillington is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dean, who were present to hear the award announcement.
