

FRIENDS SAY IKE WANTS SECOND TERM

NORMAL IN EVERY WAY — Renee Martz, a quietly sensational girl evangelist, is normal every way when she isn't on the platform singing and preaching the Gospel. Scheduled to return to Dunn for a week's rally starting Sunday, Renee is shown here straightening her neckerchief in a mirror.

SINNERS—EXPECTED AT CITY HALL

Teenage Evangelist Should Dazzle Dunn

Teen-age Evangelist Renee Martz, currently drawing big crowds in Augusta, Georgia, will start her week-long Dunn campaign on Sunday afternoon, February 26.

Last Minute News Shorts

WASHINGTON — Secretary Dulles returns to Washington at 3:30 p. m. EST to face a congressional investigation of the turnaround tank deal with Saudi Arabia.

WASHINGTON — The Senate is expected to stamp final approval on a proposal for a wide-open investigation of lobbying and other attempts to influence Congress.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Deputies rounding up 115 Negro leaders including 10 ministers, on charges (Continued on Page Five)

DOOR-KNOCKERS CAMPAIGN SUNDAY

Heart Disease Is Public Enemy No. 1

This coming Sunday-afternoon, members of Dunn's junior and senior women's clubs — like other women throughout the nation — will be rapping doors in search of an army to fight what has become the United States' chief domestic problem.

The problem is death from heart disease. The army of donors, willing to give money to tracking down and fighting the causes and effects of heart disease.

Dr. W. H. Lilly, chairman of the County Heart Association which is directing the drive, pointed out yesterday that the odds were perfectly good that Eisenhower would be struck by coronary thrombosis for this disease has become the leading cause — by far — of physical impairment.

"For every case of polio," said Dr. Lilly, "there are 162 cases of heart disease."

NEARLY 800,000 DEATHS Diseases of the heart and blood vessels caused half of all deaths (Continued on Page Two)

Two Months To Get Library Says Contractor

Erection of a new county library within sixty days was promised today by R. M. Turlington, Lillington contractor, who received the contract late Monday evening.

James R. Spence of Lillington, treasurer of the library board and chairman of a special building committee authorized by the county commissioners, said total costs of the building have been whittled to $46,192.50.

Performance bonds and insurance will be extra.

County commissioners had appropriated $15,000 as the limit to what the county could afford to spend for a new building at this time. An anonymous donor has added $1000 in cash.

An early bid of $26,000 submitted by a Fayetteville firm was rejected as too costly.

The library, which will service the entire county, will be built on a lot at the corner of Front and Ninth Streets, two blocks of the courthouse in Lillington.

Through the bookmobile, facilities of the library will be carried to all parts of Harnett.

The building is to be of red brick and will provide an adult reading room, children's reading room, book storage, librarian's office and rest rooms. Designed to fit library needs, it will be structurally sound and flexible to take additions in the future.

Contracts were awarded as follows: R. M. Turlington, general contracting, $13,633.50; plumbing (to the same firm), $750; heating, Alfred of Lillington, $900; Electrical work will be readvertised since the committee rejected the low bid of $1,500, submitted by McLeod's Electrical Company of Lillington as too high.

Members of the special committee present for the awarding of contracts were L. A. Tart of Dunn, chairman of the board of county commissioners, Mrs. S. R. McKay, county librarian, Mrs. Alton G. Johnson, Lillington, library board, and James Spence. Absent were G. T. Proffit, ex-officio chairman of the library board and county superintendent of schools, and J. E. Womble, county commissioner.

The committee members stated said the one initial library installation can be made at the cited low price only because a lot of "extras" were eliminated from the plans through careful study. The building planned has been carefully tailored to fit library needs.

Godwin Returns From Chicago

O. W. (Bill) Godwin, Jr. of Dunn, president of Godwin Building Supply Company in Dunn, has returned from Chicago, where he attended the annual National Home Show.

As usual, he brought back a lot of new ideas on the latest developments and the newest products in the building field.

And he left behind him orders for literally hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of these products, which will soon begin arriving in the warehouses of Godwin Building Supply Company covering nearly two whole city blocks here.

TALKS WITH LEADERS

In Chicago, Mr. Godwin talked with the leaders of the industry, getting a preview of things yet to come in the building field. He spent day after day seeing, examining, merits of each new idea, and each new product on display.

Before going to Chicago, Mr. Godwin attended the National Retail Building Convention and Show in New York and before that was in Cleveland attending the National Retail Lumber and Building Supply Show in Cleveland.

IN THE RACE—Hoping President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson will be his opponents, Henry B. Krajewski, left, files petitions at Trenton, N.J., as 1956 presidential candidate of the "American Third Party." Krajewski, 43, is a former pig farmer now operating a tavern in Secaucus, N.Y. With him are Mrs. Anne Marie Yezzo, vice presidential running mate, center, and Robert Falcey, clerk in the office of New Jersey's secretary of state.

IT DOESN'T PROMISE TO BE A CLOSE RACE

Hodges Is Opposed; Olla Ray To File

PINETOWN (P) — Pinetown pig breeder Olla Ray Boyd, perennial political office-seeker, announced today he will run for governor.

Boyd did not indicate when he plans to pay his filing fee to become a candidate to oppose Gov. Luther H. Hodges in the May 26 Democratic primary, but he said he intends to campaign on a platform of maintaining segregated public schools.

Boyd said his campaign slogan will be "North Carolina at the crossroads and the hour of decision."

"I am determined to keep schools segregated if elected — by law or by force," he said.

BAN FOR WHITE HOUSE, TOO

Boyd was a candidate for the U. S. Senate in the 1930' campaign and in 1952 was an announced candidate for president, but failed to get support at the state convention. He had twice before run for governor.

Boyd said he is an advocate of "white supremacy" and said he "commends the actions" of students at the University of Alabama.

"GREASY THUMB" GETS WISH

Capone Thug Dies The Natural Way

CHICAGO (P) — Jake "Greasy Thumb" Guzik, Al Capone's righthand and one-time "king of the gamblers," died like the respectable businessman he longed to be last night.

The pudgy, sad-faced gang lord was found dead in his bed at an apartment he rented under the name of "Jack Arnold." A fire department inhalator squad worked 45 minutes in a futile attempt to revive him.

Guzik died a natural death, apparently as a result of a heart attack, a coroner's official said.

It was a placed end for a man who never carried a gun, but seldom took a stroll through the Loop with less than $1,000 in his pockets.

The 69-year-old underworld veteran would have wanted it that way. Greasy Thumb had spent his last years trying to achieve respectability. But his record and the Chicago police wouldn't let him. His last brush with the law came only last week, when he sued the police department for $50,000 on grounds of false arrest.

+ Record Roundup +

TO ATLANTIC CITY — G. T. Proffit, county superintendent of schools, will return today from attendance at two national conventions in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Proffit and Bob Baggett of Lillington, member of the county board of education, left last week to attend the annual meeting of the National School Board Association. Then Proffit remained for the national convocation of the School Administrators Association.

GOP Leaders Confident He Will Run

WASHINGTON (P) — President Eisenhower has informed close associates here that he wants a second term.

The United Press was informed that he qualified his statement only to this extent: He would not commit himself publicly until after making a personal test of his physical powers during a vigorous shooting and golfing vacation at Thomasville, Ga.

He will return from Thomasville Saturday. He played 18 holes of golf there today. His game was markedly stronger. Republican leaders are confident now that he will announce after his return that he is available if the party desires to nominate him again.

GOP LEADERS CONFIDENT

The Detroit News reported today in a Washington dispatch by Martin S. Hayden that Sherman Adams and Leonard W. Hall had informed top Republicans the President would run. There "were no ifs or ands or buts about it," Hayden wrote.

Adams is the chief White House assistant. Hall is chairman of the Republican National Committee.

MEDICAL REPORT

Doubt that the President would run had been shrinking for nearly a fortnight since a medical examination here after which Dr. Paul Dudley White made an unforeseen estimate of his physical condition. "White said he reasonably could expect 5 to 10 years of active life — the kind of activity to which a President might expect to be subjected."

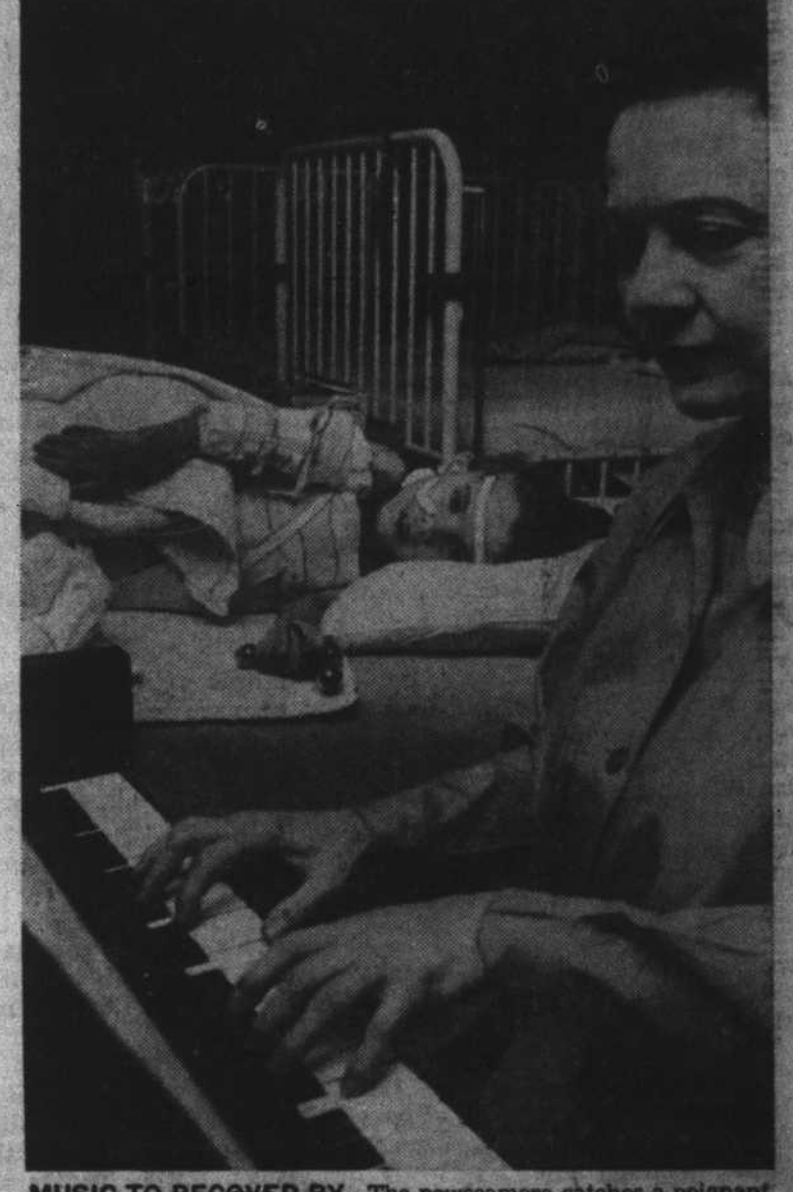

"Dr. White practically put him in nomination for a second term." White House aide remarked hereafter. It was before that medical examination that the President became definite in his confidential talks with his associates about wanting another term, despite the heart attack which he suffered last Sept. 24 during a Colorado vacation. He may not have put it to rest in identical words. But his position added up to this:

DOESN'T FEAR DEMOS

He was generally unimpressed by the likely Democratic opposition a Republican nominee might expect this year, but appalled by the thought that some of those mentioned might reach the White House. He would like more time to carry out the programs to which he feels he is committed and would be glad to take on another four presidential years if his health warranted it.

The President added that he would trust his own judgment as much or more than that of physicians in determining whether he would be fit to run. He has said that publicly, too. The President decided that a fair test would be a moderately strenuous vacation. The returns on that test of stamina have been good.

The President has not authorized

MUSIC TO RECOVER BY—The newscamera catches a poignant scene in Children's Hospital, Akron, Ohio, during the semi-annual Children's Concert Day. Five-year-old Letta Sublett, almost immobilized from burns, rings out a soft rhythm on the bells. Mrs. L. E. Warford's song on the piano. Under leadership of Children's Concert Society volunteers, youngsters in the hospital "roll their own" music in rhythm band fun. Those who can move go from ward to ward.

GET FINES, TERMS IN MORALS CASE

Angier, Route One Youths Convicted

Two 19-year-old youths — Charles Johnson of Angier and Staley Ogburn of Route 1, Angier — received suspended prison terms after pleading guilty in Johnston Superior Court Monday to carnal knowledge of Sallie Turner, 15, of Route 1, Wendell.

Judge W. A. Leland McKeithen of Pinehurst ordered each of the defendants to serve a sentence of four to seven years in prison, suspended for five years on condition that each pay a $500 fine and costs, remain of good behavior, violate no law and be placed on probation.

The Grand Jury last week had returned true bills charging Johnson and Ogburn with assault on a female and conspiracy to commit rape in addition to the carnal knowledge count, but it was announced at the start of the trial that the State would not prosecute the other two charges.

It was brought out during the trial that both Johnson and Ogburn (Continued on Page Four)

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Bargain Days Open Thursday

In Washington, D. C., today — this being the birthday of the fellow with the good throwing arm whom the city was named after — the merchants were offering hordes of dizzy bargains including 99-cent TV sets and ladies' pink panties at "a penny a pant-leg."

For those who could get there, it was great, but no-one in the Dunn trade area need fret. Some better-than-consolation bargains will be available in this city starting tomorrow as Dunn swings into its semi-annual Bargain Days.

SHOES ONE BUCK Local stores may not be able to match the Washington giveaway, where olives are a dime for a large can and mink scarfs are selling at five dollars each, but the picking is still good enough to make perpetual bargain-hunters get out the sugar-pot and count their money.

Item: a store here has 500 pairs of ladies' shoes for sale at a dollar each.

The Retail Merchants Association, under the chairmanship of Ed Black, Jr., is sponsoring the big price slicing which is designed to bring in shoppers from all over, get them acquainted with what Dunn has to offer.

MANY SHOPS JOIN Hundreds of space-feet of advertising appearing in this issue of the Daily Record give an idea—but only an idea—of what the stores are offering. Virtually all Dunn storekeepers have joined in this voluntary, cooperative movement to help area shoppers put all their bargains in one market basket.

Thursday marks the opening of

Royal Family Enjoys Very Earthy Scene

ROYAL FAMILY

LONDON (P)—The world finally learned today that the royal family roared with laughter at an earthy scene in a French revue.

But for a while irate British newsmen were in the dark. They were asked to leave the Garrick Theater just before the skit in the show "La Piume de Ma Tante" and (Continued on Page Five)

WHERE SUCH BARGAINS

When else could you get dollar t-shirts for 29 cents, plastic seat covers free on the purchase of four tires, bathroom sets for a buck, imported silverware reduced from the European price, parakeets for a $1.49 and aching arches for nothing? (Continued on Page Eight)