

Western Illinois Meets Kansas In Quarter Finals

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Top-seeded Western Illinois, an aggressive team with scoring punch, meets a powerful Kansas defensive outfit, Pittsburg State, today in the featured quarter-finals game of the 18th annual NABA basketball tournament.

Western Illinois, winner of the NABA tip-off tourney in December and highly regarded here, moved into the quarter-finals with a 72-67 victory over Pacific Lutheran. The Illinois team was in front the distance, but the Lutherans were in contention until the final six minutes.

The Kansas, seeded No. 7, advanced with a 89-72 triumph over Georgia Tech. whose scoring artist, Chester Webb, was held to only five field goals. Webb hit 14 free throws, however, for a 24-point total.

Third-ranked Wheaton, the other hot Illinois entry, defeated Stephen Austin 74-66 in its second rounder. Paced by Jerry Miller and Don Anderson, who hit 21 and 17 points respectively, Wheaton held a lead of about eight points over the Texans throughout.

McNesse State College, led by its left-handed shooting wizard, Bill Reigel, of Monaca, Pa., scored an 87-74 win over Central Ohio State. Reigel turned in a brilliant 42-point performance to make the difference. His shooting fattened his season total in 33 games to 1,137 points, best college mark in the nation.

Eight-seeded Texas Southern swept into the quarter-finals with a 64-61 conquest of a fighting Rockhurst team, the hometown delegate. Big Bennie Swain led the all-Negro club with 22 points.

Three seeded outfits were eliminated in Wednesday's second round play.

Midwestern of Wichita Falls, Tex., pushed by second-ranked Geneva, Pa., with an easy 93-75 win. Six-seeded San Diego State was dumped by Gustavus-Adolphus 69-60.

Unranked Tennessee A & I dumped fifty-seeded Eau Claire, 62-61, in a thriller. The Wisconsin team fought to the finish but the tall Tennessee players decided the Martin signed a statement admitting her relatives' deaths and said she confessed poisoning her present husband, Roland Martin, who is recuperating in a Biloxi, Mississippi, hospital. He was her stepson and is 19 years younger than his red-haired wife.

Attorneys William Thorford said an "investigation is still continuing" into the deaths of two more of Mrs. Martin's daughters.

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Miller of Lowell, Mass., captain of the Boston College football team last year, has been signed by the Washington Redskins of the National Football League. Miller, a tackle, weighs 248 pounds.

PARIS, France (AP)—Alphonse Hallmi, 24-year-old bantamweight boxer from French North Africa, meets Billy Peacock of Philadelphia in a 10-round bout at the Palais de Sport Friday night. Hallmi has won all 10 of his fights, nine by knockouts.

BOWIE, Md. (AP)—The Wheatley Stable's High Voltage, one of the top distaff racers last year and generally acclaimed as the best 2-year-old filly of 1954, heads a list of 21 eligibles announced today for the $25,000 added Barbara Fritchie Handicap at Bowie, March 31. CANNES, France &—Tony Vincent of Miami, Fla., and Malcolm Fox of Baltimore, Md., reached the men's singles quarter-finals of the Cannes International Tennis tournament by defeating C. Barclay of Canada and Alfred Hueser of Germany, respectively.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A memorial statue of Connie Mack—waving a scorecard in front of the dugout—will be erected in Reysburn Park, a small square across the street from Connie Mack stadium. A sculptor already has been commissioned to create the statue. Funds will be raised by a public solicitation of baseball fans throughout the country.

WAKE FOREST (AP)—Head basketball coach Murray Gleason and assistant Horace Bones McKinney will remain at Wake Forest College when the school moves to Winston-Salem this spring.
