

Hank Currins Entertain Couples Bridge Club

The Hank Currins entertained the Couples Bridge Club Saturday night at their home where mixed flowers were arranged effectively throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. Corky Crestini received boxes of candy for their high score among the men and ladies. The consolation prize went to Mrs. R. A. Duncan. It was a box of greeting cards.

Couples enjoying the evening of bridge were Mr. and Mrs. Crestini, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Currin.

During play, soft drinks and potato chips were enjoyed. Chocolate cream pie, nuts and coffee were served at conclusion of play.

March Bride-Elect Honored At Parties

Miss Jean Dickey, March bride-elect, was honored at several social courtesies over the weekend. Miss Dickey will wed Wait Kenian of Drexel HI, Pa. Saturday, March 24.

On Friday evening, Miss Dickey was guest of honor at a dessert-bridge party in Durham, given by Mrs. Louis Carr.

The house was decorated in a pink and white bridal motif, and each bridge table was centered with a bouquet of pink and white camellias and a pink candle. Miss Dickey's place was marked with a pink camellia corsage.

After the games, the bride-elect was showered with an array of kitchen gifts from approximately 20 guests.

Mrs. Frank MacMillan of Fayetteville entertained for Miss Dickey at a luncheon Saturday, at 1:30 at her home.

Camellias and other spring flowers were used attractively throughout the home for the occasion.

Guests were served a delicious luncheon buffet style from the dining table. The luncheon consisted of creamed chicken and patty shells, orange cups, string beans, toasted salad, hors d'oeuvre, rolls, coffee, and a dessert course. Delicious mints and nuts were served later with demitasse.

Attending were Miss Dickey, and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Dickey, Mrs. Louis Carr, Mrs. J. E. Whitley, Mrs. Earl Porter, Miss Lucy Harms and Mrs. W. H. Huckabee, all of Durham, Mrs. Don McMillan of Fayetteville, and Mrs. So. Rose.

Charles Little, a member of the same Army outfit, was admitted to the Army Hospital at Fort Bragg for treatment. His condition today was reported as satisfactorily. Little is from Louisburg, Tenn., Route 5.

Coroner Henderson said it was definitely established that McIver was driving the death car and that there would be no purpose in conducting an inquest.

McIver was the eighth person killed in Harriet's highways this year.

Balkmann-Adcox Engagement Announced Today

Mr. and Mrs. Starlin Steve Adcock of Lillington have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Etta Elizabeth Adcock to Mr. Carl Julius Balkmann, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Balkmann, Jr. of Pittsboro.

Miss Adcock is a first year student in the commercial department of Peace Junior College in Raleigh. She was graduated last year from Lillington High School and as a senior was chosen the Girl Scout May Queen.

Mr. Balkmann, who is in Army service, is stationed at present at Fort Bliss, Texas. He attended Campbell College last year.

A summer wedding is planned.

MRS. WARREN RETURN
Mrs. J. O. Warren has returned home after visiting for several days with her son Richard Warren and family in Lumberton.

McLEODS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLeod of Reidsville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLeod this past weekend.

WEEKEND GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Blalock, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little of Wadesboro visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hadley over the weekend.

AT PEACE COLLEGE
Ashley Wade and Betsy Rose spent the weekend at Peace College, as guests during "Hospitality Weekend."

DAVID CRANE

HOLLYWOOD ICE SHOW STAR — Gloria Doggett (above), one of the top stars of the Hollywood Ice Revue, will be featured in several of the numbers of the big ice show when it is presented by the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum at North Carolina State College March 19-24. The revue, one of America's principal theatrical and artistic productions, will include comedy, drama, music, and dance routines. Eight performances will be given at the Coliseum during a six-day run.

SPPEEDING ABOUT 100 MILES AN HOUR

Bragg Man Killed In Harnett Crash

Harnett Coroner Grover C. Henderson of Dunn said today that no inquest will be held in an accident that killed one Fort Bragg soldier and seriously injured another Friday night about 11:30 o'clock, 12 miles south of Lillington.

He ruled that Leo McIver, 28, Negro, of Company B, 50th Signal Bn., Fort Bragg, a native of Ray, Ok., came to his death as the result of his own negligence.

Highway Patrolman R. H. Leonard of Lillington, who investigated the crash, said the car driven by McIver was traveling about 100 miles per hour when the accident occurred.

The car ran off the road and hit a tree on Highway 210.

BULLETINS

WAKE FOREST (W) — President Harold W. Tribble of Wake Forest College today declined to comment on the formation of a "committee for better administration of Wake Forest College."

ALGERIA, Algeria (A) — France threw its full military might today against the 16-months-old rebellion in Algeria. France clamped down on the restive population with virtual martial law, ordered massive troops reinforcements for the sprawling North African possession and sent the French naval fleet steaming across the Mediterranean to blockade the coast.

WASHINGTON (W) — Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey and three key members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee agree there will be no tax cut this year.

LONDON (L) — The first Soviet theatrical company to visit the U. S. in 30 years will leave Europe in September for a two-month American tour, according to Moscow Radio.

MUNICH, Germany (G) — The American refugee program will mark its fourth anniversary Wednesday with the departure of the 25,000th European refugee for the United States.

MAINZ, Germany (G) — The U. S. Army prepared today to turn over operation of its giant Mainz ordnance depot to a private German firm.

LONDON (L) — Photographs of pin-up girls graced the pages of confidential flying manuals of Britain's Royal Air Force today. The RAF Bomber Command published photos of showgirls in its quarterly "flying safety review" to encourage pilots to study.

VISITING HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Doffenmyer and son, Jimmy of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Everett Doffenmyer this week.

SUNDAY GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Mack Blissett, Jr. of Wilson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Sr.

MRS. BATTERTON HERE
Mrs. E. V. Batterson of Charlotte is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lilly.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH
Mr. and Mrs. James Farthing, Jr. of Dunn announce the birth of a son on Saturday, March 17 in the Dunn Hospital. Mrs. Farthing is the former Rosalyn Poole.

TATUMS VISITED HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tatum and children of Charlotte were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Stewart.

VISITED PARENTS
Miss Fannie Sue Turnage, a senior at Meredith College in Raleigh, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Furman Turnage this past weekend.

DUNN FURNITURE COMPANY for FRIGIDAIRE

A pretty girl with a mind and way of her own suddenly lands Captain Easy in jail. Then she springs a big surprise and Easy is tripped into playing the leading role in one of the strangest adventures of his career. Every day brings a new angle and he gets in deeper and deeper. Be sure to follow the new adventure in the comic.

CAPTAIN EASY
Starting Thursday, March 23

Serving This Community Since 1919
The Commercial Bank
DUNN, N. C.

when it's

then you're cooking ELECTRICALLY!

You can see for yourself how Electric Cooking banishes "smudge pots" and saves you hours of scrub-drudgery. For here is White Glove cleanliness at its highest best.

Outside surfaces of pots and pans start clean and stay clean, from now on! The wife-saving ingredient in this modern recipe is the fumeless, flameless heat of electricity. Gone forever are soot, smudges and smoke because electricity simply doesn't make soot, smudge and smoke. You save hours of cleaning time — dollars in redecorating costs.

No ease your way to even greater cleanliness, comfort and convenience in your kitchen. Your electrical dealer can help you prove to yourself that ONLY electric cooking is White Glove Clean. You'll bless the happy day you start to seek the White Glove Way.

SEE YOUR ELECTRICAL DEALER SOON

You'll Live Better Electrically!

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY