Grounds Enough For This Divorce

LONDON (U) — Alfred Frank Fleet was awarded a divorce from his wife Elizabeth on grounds of cruelty after he testified she: Smearred butter on bedroom walls he had just decorated and told him to "Paper them again"; sat in a chair with a carving knife in hand and threatened to stab him if he went to sleep; telephoned him 10 to 15 times a day at work with threats and abuse; forced him to address secret even from his em- adopt a secret name and keep his players.
