road term, suspended on condition that he pay the costs and remain of good behavior for six months. For driving without a driver license he drew a 30-day term, suspended on payment of costs. He was handed the same sentence for public drunkenness.

Wilbert Wood of Route 2, Benson, was judged guilty of assault. He was sentenced to eight months on the road, suspended on condition that he pay the costs and not go on the premises of his wife, Mrs. Belle Wood, without her permission. The defendant gave notice of appeal to Johnston Superior Court, and an appeal bond of $1,000 was posted with C. L. Williams of Benson as surety.

Nathan McLamb, Jr., of Route 2, Benson, was convicted of possession and driving without a driver license. He received a 60-day road sentence, suspended on payment of a $10 fine and costs.

Five defendants were convicted as speeders as follows: William Titus Ward of Raleigh, costs; Maydell Stephenson Parrish of Route 1, Benson, costs; Kinsey Ray Winstead of Route 2, Middlesex, costs; Mary K. Benson of Groose, Mich., costs; and Frank Passarella of Cornia, N. Y., costs.

June Smith of Route 1, Benson, was found guilty of public drunkenness, drew a 30-day road term, suspended on condition that he pay costs and remain of good behavior for six months.

Six other defendants were judged guilty of public drunkenness and taxed with the costs as follows: Russell Allen of Route 1, Four Oaks; Earl Lee of Route 2, Benson; Warden C. Beasley of Route 2, Dunn; Norman Ennis of Benson; Lloyd R. Paynor of Benson and Howard Elliott Bass of Dunn.

Taxed with the costs for following too close were John Richard Swene of Jacksonville, Fla.; William Douglas Kline of Strasburg, Va.; and Cecil Grant Miller of Fishers Hill, Va.

During the costs for improper passing were James Terrelliner Graham of Dade City, Fla., and Louis Epstein of Bronx, N. Y.

Clarence Lee Westbrook of Newton Grove was taxed with the costs for driving without a driver license.

The State not-prosecuted the drunken driving charge against William Jernigan of Benson due to the death of the defendant.
