NEW FARM BILL APPROVED IN HOUSE

Pre-Payment Proposal Of GOP Loses

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Agriculture Committee today approved a new farm bill containing the administration-sponsored 1.2 billion dollar soil bank plan.

The catch-all measure was approved unanimously after the committee rejected on a straight party-line vote of 19 to 15 a Republican attempt to provide for "pre-payments" under the soil bank. The measure was approved after President Eisenhower had requested the pre-payment provision under which farmers could be paid up to 500 million this year for promising to curtail plantings next year.

Democrats oppose the prepayment provision. They called it a "political gimmick" that would farm income this year only to depress it next year. The measure abandons the Democratic fight to restore price supports to rigid 90 per cent of parity — the chief reason for President Eisenhower's veto of the original farm bill.

Mamers Pastor Dies Suddenly

The Rev. William Carroll Shaw, died at his home in Mamers Friday at 1 p. m. from a heart attack. He was born May 5, 1881 in Guilford County, a son of the late William Henry Clay and Henrietta Welker Shaw. In early life, he attended Whitsett Institute and later taught school near Burlington. After serving in the Army for three years he attended LaSalle Extension University in Chicago where he studied law. He later practiced law in California. He entered the ministry in 1923 and has

DISCUSSES ISSUE OF THE DAY

Whitfield Speaks To Rotary Club

J. Vician Whitfield of Burgaw, one of the top Democratic contenders for the office of Lieutenant Governor, declared here Friday night that "the lack of courage among public men in dealing with the segregation question is astounding."

"I don't believe in dodging the vital issues of the day," the prominent legislator declared in an address to the Dunn Rotary Club. "I believe in taking a stand — and a courageous stand." Whitfield has taken the most positive stand of any of the candidates on the issue of segregation. He was introduced to the club by an old friend, Attorney J. Shepard Bryan of Dunn. "My position," he said, "is that no sacrifice is too great for us to make to protect and preserve the

SHE HAS LOOSE HAIR TO PROVE IT

Pulls Wife's Hair, Beats Child--He Gets 30 Months

Sam Hurley, Negro husband of Lillington, Route One, faced charges of assault on his wife, Isabella, last week in Harnett Recorder's Court. The six foot tall defendant who had no lawyer, submitted as guilty to the charge, but told Judge M. O. Lee, "I just don't know what gets into me when I drink liquor." Isabella didn't know what "got into em," but she knew exactly what he did—he pulled her by the hair. And from her pocket the witness took great handfuls of matching hair to prove her assault contention. "He beat on the child, too," added Isabella. She told the court Sam came over to a neighbor's house where she and the child were and started abusing her. A sister-in-law, Estelle Hurley, corroborated the wife. "Four to six months in jail for assault on your wife," said Judge Lee. Then, Solicitor Neil Ross ordered. (Continued on Page Eight)

THESE PIGS ARE OUT FOR PRIZES — P. J. Johnson, the boy without a hat in the above picture, and his friend Charles Sorrell this morning attended to the wants of a pair of grumbling pigs who have been entered in the stock show here. Johnson, 19, and Sorrell are both FFA'ers at Coats.

The two Yorkshires seen here will eventually wind up as bacon, but before then the young owner hopes to have a trophy for his shelf. Clester Johnson, his father, has 75 hogs on his Coats farm. They had first prize winners at both Dunn and Benson this summer. (Daily Record Photo.)

Woman Runs Through Sign At Crossing

Evelyn Parks Smith, 22-year-old Salisbury resident, was "walking around pretty stiff" when she appeared at a special session of Dunn Recorder's Court this morning.

It was only a few hours after an accident which hospitalized two persons, including 15-year-old Ray Dudley of Dunn, tossed two girls out of their car, and gave a number of other passengers, bruises and a severe shaking up.

It was one of the most thorough pile-ups to occur on the streets of Dunn in months, and investigating officers considered it lucky that more serious injuries were not suffered.

Samuel Peele, a 60-year-old resident of Laurinburg, will remain at Dunn Hospital a few days for observation. All other passengers of the 1949 Buick four-door sedan, driven by Evelyn Smith, were treated and released.

The driver of the car in which Ray Dudley was riding was his 17-year-old brother Billy. Billy did not suffer serious injury.

In the Buick were Joe Wallace, 21, of Laurel Hill, Route 2; Beulah Godwin, 21, of Hamlet; and Martha Peele, 21, of Hamlet. The Peele girl and Evelyn Smith, the driver, were both thrown from the car at the time of impact.

Heading home from the Bainbridge Naval Training Center, where the group had visited the sailor husband of one of the girls, they arrived in Dunn and found they had to take a detour on South Wilson because workmen were busy putting asphalt on the regular Highway 301 Route.

Evelyn confessed to the court that she was unfamiliar with Dunn streets, and simply hadn't noticed the stop sign on South Wilson. (Continued on Page Six)

Stock Arrives For Show

Cliff Ammons, the county farm agent, and others were on hand this morning as an orchestral background of moos and oinks slowly mounted at the Big Four warehouse.

Throughout the morning hours, farmers, FFA'ers and 4-H'ers from throughout this four-county area arrived at the warehouse with the pick of their stock loaded into

LUCKY TO BE ALIVE — The shock caught up with these two girls from Hamlet as they sat outside the hospital emergency room following the wreck. Martha Peele, 21, crying at left, told a reporter that she was riding along and "Next thing I knew I was lying under the exhaust pipe of the car." Shaken but not believed to be seriously injured, Martha waited with Beulah Goodwin, 21, another passenger, while their more seriously injured companions were treated. ## Office Safe Is Smashed; Approximately $450 Taken

A safe in the office of The Daily Record was cracked Sunday night and thieves escaped with an estimated $450 in currency and silver.

The robbery was discovered shortly before 9 p. m. when Hoover Adams, publisher, returned from supper. He had left the building about 7:15 o'clock.

"This is the last place in town I thought anybody would have robbed," declared Adams.

He said so much cash is not normally kept in the office but that no bank deposits was made on Saturday. Luckily, Adams said, he had taken $350 in cash from the safe earlier in the day.

All four drawers in the heavy fireproof safe had been forced open with tools from the newspaper's printing shop. Ledgers and other records were dumped on to the floor.

CHECKS, BONDS LEFT

The thieves left several hundred dollars worth of checks and money orders, government savings bonds, corporation stock certificates and other valuable papers scattered about the floor.

Approximately $200, mostly in silver, locked in a nearby filing cabinet had not been bothered.

Among the stolen money was a large cigar box completely filled

Revolution In Cuba Crushed

HAVANA (AP) — The government of President Fulgencio Batista announced today it had crushed a revolution in the seaport town of Matanzas. Unofficial reports said 15 persons were killed and 15 wounded, including military personnel.

The government suspended constitutional guarantees of the writ of habeas corpus and the right to assembly, and arrested former President Carlos Prío Socarras on charges he incited the uprising at Matanzas, the names means slaughter, 60 miles east of Havana. Sources said approximately 70 civilians were involved in the attack on government installations there. Scores of arrests were made

MERRITT, CHARLIE, FRED, COOKING, OTHER NOTES

Dunn National Guardsmen will take some special training next weekend at Fort Bragg. Paul Hood wrote home from Las Vegas, Nevada that he didn't like that town, gay as the famous gambling resort may be. Mrs. Rachel Tart Pate MacArthur has moved back to Dunn from Clinton and is now in her pretty new home here.

She shed her last husband with a divorce in Florida. "Feels good to be free and wonderful to be back in Dunn," said Rachel.

We forgot to ask her what name she's using now that she got her divorce. A former Dunn youth, Merritt Burns, of Greensboro, has been elected president of the Guilford County UDC chapter.

Tucker Will Speak At Memorial Rites

REV. LESLIE TUCKER

The Rev. Leslie Tucker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the address at the annual Confederate Memorial Day observance Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the historic old Chocora Cemetery, near Dunn.

Plans for the historic observance were announced this morning by Mrs. William Newsome, president of the Chocora UDC chapter, the sponsoring organization.

The colorful ceremony will include presentation of the colors by the Dunn American Legion post; music by the Dunn High School Band, under the leadership of director Harvey Bossell, the annual Roll Call, decoration of the graves and other events.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Jack Daniel, pastor of Hood Memorial Christian Church. (Continued on Page Eight)
