These Little Things

TV SHOWS, HARRIET, ED JOHN MACK, JANET, ETC

The Town of Dunn is receiving nationwide publicity this month, but in the kind of publicity that many friends of E. C. Daniel, Jr. don't like. One of the big scandal magazines has a story which reportedly gives the "inside" reasons why his marriage to Margaret Truman won't last — which is pure nonsense. The story tells about the days when E. C. worked in Dunn on Sonny Tuleman's Daily Bulletin. If you're planning to be in New York next week and want to see some good television shows in person set in touch with Margaret Strickland of Dunn. The local school teacher has a big bunch of tickets, five in each set, for some of the too TV shows which originate in New York, including the Arthur Godfrey Show and several quiz show programs. She had planned to be in New York next week but has decided to wait until later in the summer and visit Canada instead. Margaret taught in Canada one year as an exchange teacher. She'll be happy to give the tickets to someone who can use them — they're all for free, of course. The marriage of Mrs. Worth (Harriet) Stewart of Dunn and Charlotte to Tom Rogers came as no surprise. The two had been romancing for a long time. Harriet is a charming gal. He's a good looking fellow, too. Mr. (Continued On Page Two)

Arrest May Come In Jernigan Shooting

Sheriff B. A. Henry said late this afternoon that no warrant has yet been issued in the liquor raid shooting of Elmon Jernigan, 20-year-old Meadow Township farmer reportedly threatened with blindness from the gunshot wound in his face.

"I just don't know" what development will come next, Sheriff Henry said today. Jernigan was shot when officers raided a still and seized a large quantity of beer. Sheriff Henry told the Smithfield Herald that one of the officers on the raid, ATU Agent C. S. Coats, fired several shots after attempting to board a pickup truck which came down the road with dim lights. Officers on the raid included, according to Henry, Sheriff's Deputies E. O. Beasley, Ersaenen Creech, Alvin Naron, J. T. Smith and Special Deputy Jack Hudson. Sheriff Henry declined to state against whom a warrant might be issued.

Baron Heinrich von Thyssen and Nina Sheila Dyer agreed to divorce conditions under which the baron agreed to give her more than $1.5 million in cash, jewelry and property. In turn, the former English model agreed never to use the name Thyssen and to return some valuable antiques to the baron. (Continued On Page Six)

A "Home Coming" at the Erwin Presbyterian Church will be held Sunday, June 10th, at 11:00 o'clock. The Church celebrated its 50th Anniversary last year, and it has been felt by many members that the opportunity of coming together has been a meaningful experience. Therefore, the "Home Coming" has been made an annual affair, to be held the Second Sunday in June each year. It is hoped that all members and former members, together with their families, will join in the participation of the morning worship service at 11:00 o'clock and the picnic dinner, which will follow on the Church grounds.

School Aides Are Named By The County

Dunn's two elementary schools have official new names. They are Magnolia Avenue School and Wayne Avenue School (that's the new school). Names were chosen Monday by the county board of education at its monthly meeting in Lillington. In other business the board re-elected the county supervisors, Miss Bessie Masseengill and Beaman Kelley for the white schools, and Miss Willa Mae Jeffries for the Negro schools. Mrs. Ted Malone of Coats was re-employed as visiting teacher or truant officer.

Two speech correctionists, Mrs. Palmer Davis of Dunn for the white schools, and Mrs. Mildred Holloway for the Negro schools were re-elected, and also a special education teacher, Miss Bertha Westbrook of Coats.

Contracts for principals and teachers whose contracts have been received by the county superintendent to date were approved.

Mrs. Maggie N. Douglas, and her husband who operate the Seminole Boarding Home, a detention home for Negro children who are wards of the Harnett Juvenile Court, appeared to request the use of the abandoned Ridgeway School building. BEEFCAKE BRAWL — MAE BOUNCED

Mae West's Muscle Men In Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two muscle-men appearing with Mae West in a local night club act got into a fist fight in her dressing room yesterday. One ended up in the hospital with a cut mouth, and the buxom Miss West was knocked off her feet in the melee.

The fight broke out while Miss West was conducting a news conference backstage at the Casino Royal, where she and her "chorus line" of male "beauties" are appearing. The "come up and see me" actress was exclaiming to newsmen that the "Mr. Universe" of her show, Mickey Hargitay, 26, will soon be replaced in the cast. She said the replacement will be "Mr. Universe of 1956," due to be picked this weekend. She denied the cast change had anything to do with Hargitay's interest in curvaceous New York actress Jayne Mansfield.

At this point in the proceedings, Hargitay entered the room and tried to get in a few words of his own. Each time he interrupted Miss West, police said, he was told to shut up. The advice was dispensed by Chuck Krauser, 24, a member of the "chorus" (Continued On Page Two)

Charge Brings Stiff Denial From The GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats today accused the Eisenhower administration of aiding private utilities in a fight to destroy public power and remove all opposition to "a complete private power monopoly in the United States."

The Democratic majority of the House Government Operations Committee made public a 250-page report calling for President Eisenhower to fire Interior Undersecretary Assistant Secretary Fred G. Aandahl.

The report accused former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay, Davis and Aandahl of a "brazen attempt" to subvert the law by favoring private utilities in the sale of federal power.

Republican members of the 30-man committee issued an angry dissent.

They denounced what they called the Democrats' "venomous attack on private enterprise." The Democratic report, they said, was a "textbook for socialism."

MISUSE OF POWER

The Republicans' 50-page dissent said the Democrats had displayed a "shocking misuse of congressional prerogatives and functions for partisan purposes."

The reports are based on 18 days of stormy hearings held across the country last year by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Earl Chasoff (D-Pa.).

"The announced administration policy," the Democratic report said, "is identical with that of the companies."

"It is designed to destroy the federal power program and eliminate every vestige of opposition to the establishment of a complete private power monopoly in the United States."

Arthur Godfrey Loses Parker

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Parker, a member of Arthur Godfrey's "family" for six years, declared himself an ex-member today.

The 53-year-old tenor said his association with the Godfrey gang would end after June 30 when his present contract runs out. Parker said he planned to devote much of his time to production of a proposed TV drama series and outside singing engagements.

Parker said the break with Godfrey was amicable. "It is most gratifying to me not losing Arthur's friendship, which goes back long before I started working for him," Parker said. "This means a great deal to me and it will be wonderful to be a guest on Arthur's show."

Parker was at a low point in his career when Godfrey picked him up. Before the war, Parker had been well known as a musical comedy star and as a radio performer on the shows of Jack Benny, Burns and Allen, Ben Bernie and Eddie Cantor.

Ike Says Have A Little Fun Every Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower offered this advice today: "Everybody ought to be happy every day. If you don't have some fun every day, that is a day wasted."

"Play hard, have fun doing it and despise wickedness."

He gave the prescription for happiness in an informal talk to a group of visiting young Republicans.

EARL RECTOR

Church Will Have Newlyweds On Staff

The Gospel Tabernacle in Dunn will soon have a pair of newlyweds on its staff, but they aren't hitched yet.

Twenty-one year-old Earl Rector, a '56 graduate of Holmes Bible College in Greenville, South Carolina, took over this week as the Tabernacle's first full-time educational director and church secretary.

Earl who is tall, dark and wavy-haired plans to be married in August to Betty Jane Gravett, of Danville, Va. The bride-to-be, also a graduate of Holmes Bible College, will become the choir director of the church.

At Holmes, he was president of the senior class, worked on the school annual and was pianist for the college trio which traveled in North and South Carolina.

The trio never came to Dunn, though, and Rector's first visit here was two months ago when he came for an interview. Rev. Bane T. (Continued On Page Six)

Nobody Knows If Grace Is Pregnant

MONACO (AP) — Nobody knew for sure today whether Grace Kelly was pregnant. But the Rev. Francis Tucker, chaplain to her husband Prince Rainier, said, "I sure hope she is."

"I have had no definite word that she is," Father Tucker added hastily in Paris, where he was on his way back to the United States.

"But neither of them has made any secret that they want to have children," he said. "Nobody is taking a very big chance when he says the princess is expecting." He noted a Berlin newspaper report that Grace is expecting an heir in January, said he knew nothing definite but added "I sure hope she is."
