DULLES ISSUES CHALLENGE TO REDS

Calls For Free Elections In Red Territory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles challenged Soviet leaders today to permit free elections in Russia and Eastern Europe if they really believe communism can win on its own merits.

Violence is the classic and natural tactic of Soviet communism as taught not only by Stalin but also by Lenin. Dulles told the 41st annual convention of Kiwanis International. The Soviets "would surely be tempted" to revert to violence if the free world let down its guard. Dulles warned.

"If communism is so good that, as its leaders say, others will freely accept it on its merits, why not give the first chance to those who know it best?" Dulles asked.

Until free elections are permitted in Russia and Eastern Europe, he said, the free people are entitled to presume that there is "something basically wrong" with the Communist system.

RAPS SPEECH

Dulles called Communist Party boss Nikita Khrushchev's speech denouncing Stalin "the most damning indictment of despotism ever made by a despot."

He said the speech "should of itself be sufficient to make all free peoples shun that type of despotism as they would shun a plague."

In Khrushchev's speech, Dulles said, Stalin emerges as a "deviationist" from Marxist doctrine, "almost a traitor . . . a man so brutal and sadistic in character as to rival one of the most evil of the Roman emperors, Caligula."

For the free world, Dulles said, "it is not enough to prove that despotism is bad. It is equally necessary to go on—and on—proving that freedom is good."

TO HONEYMOON IN EUROPE

Marilyn Monroe To Marry Playwright Arthur Miller

MARILYN MONROE

Plans Revealed During Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Playwright Arthur Miller said today he will marry actress Marilyn Monroe very soon, perhaps within the "next few days."

Miller announced the long-rumored wedding plans to reporters after telling the House Committee of Un-American Activities that he has never been under "Communist Party discipline" but has contributed to Communist-front organizations.

Miller said he hoped to honeymoon in Europe with Miss Monroe, who is leaving for London July 13 to make a new picture. He has applied to the State Department for a passport. But his last passport application, two years ago, was turned down.

Rumors had been flying on Broadway that Miller, who won a Pulitzer Prize for his "Death of a Salesman," would marry the movie star in Connecticut this weekend. Newsmen asked Miller about it during a brief recess in his testimony.

He said the date and place of the marriage have not been set because "as you can see, I have been rather busy." He said, however, that the marriage will probably take place in just a "few days." Miss Monroe is now in New York.

Miller said the main reason he applied for a passport to visit Europe was "to be there with Miss Monroe who by that time will be Mrs. Miller."

His testimony before the committee dealt, not with romance, but with his past links with Communist-front organizations.

Miller acknowledged that in the late 1940s he gave money to some organizations which were later cited as Communist fronts.

He said this "soured the mood I was in at the time" and added that he did not investigate the groups to which he contributed.

"I was never under Communist Party discipline," Miller told the House investigators. "As for contributing to front causes, I would not deny that."

"In those times, the late 1940s, I supported some things I would not support now. I would not now support a cause or movement that was dominated by Communists."

The committee claims Miller has been affiliated with 29 organizations which have been cited either by the attorney general or by congressional groups as Communist fronts. However, no witness before (Continued On Page Two)

TWO CONTESTS REMAIN

Second Democratic Primary Saturday

A second Democratic primary will be held Saturday, June 23 in two districts of Harnett County.

Polls close at 6:30 p. m.

McRae said around 4,000 ballots, copies of the short, short ballot had been printed. Not that he expects that many voters to vote, but because the law requires more ballots than voters, just in case any official batch should be destroyed by fire or other calamity. McRae distributed ballots to polling places in all areas yesterday.

The races to be decided, McRae said, are for an office as important to voters as any to be filled. Counceman committees have authority to name all appointive officers, fix the county tax rate, and handle all county financial matters.

SAME OFFICIALS

The same judges and registrars who served in the last primary election will again be in their places starting at 6:30 a. m. Saturday.

AT WASHINGTON MEETING

Managers Discuss How To Beat GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — Managers for the three Democratic presidential contenders now campaigning against each other assembled today to talk about how to campaign against the GOP next fall.

A VARIED AGENDA

Stevenson's delegation was headed by his campaign manager, James A. Finneran. Kefauver's by Campaign Manager F. Joseph Donohue, and Harriman's by Carmine De Sapio, Tammany chief and New York national committeeman.

Television campaigning, travel plans, fund raising, organization and national convention planning were on the agenda for discussion.

De Sapio made a gesture toward Southern Democrats, who are definitely cool toward Harriman. (Continued On Page Two)

MANY DIGNITARIES ATTEND

Smash Opening Held At Sherwin-Williams

One hundred ladies came away with one hundred orchids this morning as the new Sherwin-Williams paint store, located in the Quinn Shopping Center on West Cumberland Street, held its formal opening. Lofton A. Tart, chairman of Harnett County commissioners, cut the ribbon, making the opening official.

A number of officials of the famous paint firm and many local dignitaries were on hand for the ribbon-cutting. Becky Lee, the "Miss Dunn" who is soon to be a contestant in the state beauty and talent pageant, was a charming hostess for the large crowd of well-wishers who turned out.

The strikingly modern store is managed by Lawrence Marshburne, who spoke on WOKB a short time after the official opening and expressed delight with the turnout and general interest in the new firm.

High company officials who were present included Bruce Couden of Charlotte, chief of Sherwin-Williams operations in the two Carolinas; and A. J. McGraw of Raleigh. (Continued On Page Eight)

Twining Off For Moscow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Nathan F. Twining left for Moscow today with the "hope" that he will get to fly in some new Russian airplanes during his visit.

The Air Force chief of staff and a roster of six general officers left National Airport in an Air Force DC-6 transport.

Twining said the party will spend 24 hours at a European base and arrive in the Russian capital (Continued On Page Four)

STATE GIVES APPROVAL

Lillington Keeps County ASC Office

By LOIS-BYRD Record Staff Writer

The Harnett County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office is staying in Lillington, thanks to the Lillington Chamber of Commerce.

M. P. Crews, Jr., vice-president of the Lillington Chamber, said formal approval has been given by the administrative office of the State ASC of the quarters offered the agency on the second floor of the Wilbourne Furniture store building.

Moving day for the federal farm agency from its present site in the basement of the county agricultural building, has been set for June 29.

Present office space for the ASC was vetoed by the State ASC Administrator H. D. Godfrey as entirely "inadequate" to serve a large agricultural county with 8,000 farm families. Expansion of activities also is expected with the new soil bank program. (Continued On Page Four)

LEE COUNTY CHAIRMAN UNDER BOND

Official Indicted For Abusing Woman

SANFORD (AP) — Chairman J. T. Ledwell of the Lee County Board of Commissioners was free under $200 bond today on a charge of abusive conduct brought by Gladys M. Baker of Bethune, S. C.

Ledwell is to appear July 3 in Kershaw County, S. C., to answer to the charge.

The commissioner, a widower and divorcee, has been acquainted with Miss Baker for some time and has been a frequent visitor at her home in Bethune. She has an aunt who lives here. Miss Baker charged that Led-well on June 14 "under the influence of liquors or narcotic drugs" tried to break into her home. The warrant said he ripped the screen from the front door and used profane, vile, indecent and threatening language.

Ledwell accepted service of the warrant yesterday through his attorney. (Continued On Page Two)

These Little Things

By HOOVER ADAMS

MARILYN, MAYTAGS, 42 VISITORS AND BECKY LEE

Any way you want to look at it, Marilyn Monroe is still news—world-wide news at that. . . . In Washington this morning a relatively obscure playwright named Arthur Miller revealed that he and the sexy siren are to be married. . . . Within a matter of minutes, the United Press rang five bells in newspaper offices throughout the nation and in other parts of the (Continued On Page Five)

PAT WARD SAYS IT ISN'T FAIR

U. S. Puts $9,977 Tax Bite On Ex-Call Girl

WASHINGTON (AP) — A petition filed by Pat Ward in the United States tax court revealed that Uncle Sam has set a $9,977 tax on the money she collected in 1952 "in return for her favors" as a call girl.

Pat's petition said she had given most of the money on which the tax has been levied to oleo heir Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke, convicted of compulsory prostitution largely on her testimony.

Uses Married Name

Pat's petition was filed under her married name of Sandra Smith and listed her present address as 55 Morton St., New York City.

She filed an income tax return showing her earnings in 1952 were only $280 and she said she owed no tax. The government said she received a "salary" of $180 that year and $17,500 in "other earnings."

It said her tax on such an income would be $6,017. It accused her of filing a false return and assessed fraud penalties of $2,006 and other penalties for substantially understating her income.

She said in her petition that in 1951 "when she was a child of 18 years of age" she "met and consorted with one Minot F. Jelke." "The Said Jelke"
